decision of the Army concerning [illegible]
[illegible] when they arrive you may [illegible]
again are to receive two hundred [illegible]
[illegible] Battalion of Marines I also [illegible]
receive [illegible] in order to effectuate
[illegible] in order to [illegible]
[illegible] for the [illegible]
[illegible] together with a [illegible]
[illegible] upon them with [illegible]
every means to circulate [illegible]
the origin of the evil which [illegible]
our Government. [illegible]
[illegible] and may accumulate [illegible]
you may leave the Transport with you for [illegible]
and cause temporary Huts to be [illegible]
Island for the reception of the Royalty [illegible]
for Provisions. I send you herewith an [illegible]
commission Surgeon of the Battalion [illegible]
to act as Surgeon of the Garrison on [illegible]
detachment of Lieut. Fenwick has received [illegible]
enclosed letter of Captain Dennis [illegible]
by General Stafford if he has not already [illegible]
Bermuda I must beg of you not on any account [illegible]
sending him in. A Captain Brevet [illegible]
Stokes to take command of the [illegible]
Lieut. Raven in any manner he may [illegible]

I send you a letter for Mr Bradley I have the honor to be under cover to General Mason Sir, Your which after personal leave and [illegible] Seal
Rear Adm. Cockburn &c.
Chesapeake
Sir
Bermuda [illegible]
I have the honor to inform you that when I saw last Captain [illegible]
his intention of sending two [illegible]
Petit Jean and West [illegible]
of [illegible] Pounds [illegible]
[illegible]