Gunroom

Gunroom, in which place part of the Bread is stowed; the Bread room not being sufficiently large to contain the proportion, and which has become a nuisance to the Ship, and having in consequence thereof requested a survey thereon

You are therefore hereby required and directed to repair forthwith on board the Lacedemonian and there take a most strict and careful survey on the Bread so complained of, causing such as you may find unfit for men to eat and a nuisance on the Ship, (after being carefully weighed) to be thrown overboard on your present reporting to me form under your hands a correct account of your proceedings therein with your particular remarks on the State and Position of the cause thereof and you are to take