Starboard point of the Creek, over position the Enemy had been firing from — our Boats harassed his retreat and chased him to his former Anchorage where he lay secure defended by strong parties of Regulars and Militia, stationed on each side of the Creek behind the Trees. Notwithstanding the unfavourable situation of the St Lawrence, the Enemy's Guns were so ill directed that only four Shot struck her; in this skirmish our Loss consists of three killed, and two slightly wounded; Indeed this is all the loss we have hitherto sustained from the Flotilla in the different skirmishes we have had with it. — I have great pleasure in acquainting you that the Conduct of every Officer and man employed under my orders, demands my highest approbation. I am much indebted to Captain Brown and Mr Fa[illegible] for their Zealous and Cordial Co-operation.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Obedient & faithful
Humble Servant
