Ordnance they had, was embarked in the Boats.—

173

After daylight finding no other object to attack, I re-embarked the Party again without loss or molestation, the Militia having retired out of Reach.—

I cannot close this Statement without mentioning to you the Cordial Support I met with from every Officer and Man serving under my orders; and had the Enemy given them the opportunity, I feel Confident they would have given an additional proof of that zeal and gallantry which they have shown on so many other occasions.

I have the honor to be
Sir
with the greatest Respect
Your most Obedient and
Very humble Servant
