Council Office Whitehall
the 31st of March 1818.

Sir,

Booty Cernacock Bay

Letter to Law Officers to prepare Draft of New Warrant of Distribution. —

The Lords of the Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council having had under Consideration, your & Mr. Attorney and Solicitor Generals Report bearing date the 12th of December last, submitting that it will be advisable that the Warrant for the Distribution of the Booty taken at Cernacock Bay should be revoked, in Order that the question respecting the Share of the Military Commander in Chief may not be prejudiced by the Terms of the said Warrant, and also that Sir John Borlase Warren may be nominated a Trustee as Naval Commander in Chief; I am thereupon directed to desire that you and Mr. Attorney and Solicitor General will be pleased to prepare the Draught of a new Instrument for the Distribution of the said Booty, inserting therein the Name of Sir John Borlase Warren a Trustee as Naval Commander in Chief, and some indifferent Person Connected with the Army as Trustee on the part of the Military Forces, agreeably to the Suggestions contained in your said Report. —

His Majesty's Adv: Genl.
