LETTER TO THE NEWS.

Scientific Advancement—Wooden Wedding—Ladies' Aid Society, &c.

Messrs. Editors:—The strides of science are now wide and in quick succession. They are pushing into all the industries of the country, as well as the works of God. The self-binders we see clicking away in most of the harvest fields seem to be a success, and are destined to come into general use. But a few years ago reaper agents said man was the only thing they would get to bind wheat; now some of the same men will sell you a self-binder and give you a guarantee on it. Science moves in advance of the mass of the people; not so much now as formerly. The iron mouldboard plow was tardily received by the people; they held that the iron poisoned the land, and thus rendered it less productive. Some held that machinery would throw the working class of people out of employment.—This was a grave error; for every man machinery dispenses with in the field it places in the shop, and thus makes a skilled workman of him.

Our farmers seem to be Providence favored; they have had good crops for several successive years, notwithstanding their continued predictions of a failure.

It was our privilege to attend the wooden wedding of Mr. Joseph H. Porter and wife, near Worton Station, on the 20th inst. It was one of those grand old occasions where the old are made young and the young made happy. Most of the company gathered early in the evening and all seemed to enjoy themselves with a zest. About nine o'clock the doors of the dining-room were thrown open and the guests invited out to refreshments, under which the tables fairly groaned (metaphorically speaking) of ice-cream, cake, lemonade, strawberries, &c., and of which there seemed to be no limit to the supply. After the third table had been cleared, a fiddle being at hand, the young folks naturally indulged in a hop. We owe much of the life of the occasion to young Doc. and the widow from Philadelphia. Among those present we noticed Mr. Tip Jewell and wife, Mrs. Wm. Stewart and daughter, Mrs. Julia Bird, Mrs. Millicent Beck, Mr. Abe Crawford and wife, Dr. Hessey, Highley Stewart, and many others we fail to call to memory at present. Our hostess received many useful and ornamental presents, some being sent from Washington. Between eleven and twelve o'clock, with light hearts and kind wishes to the bride and bridegroom of five years, good-bys were said and the company dispersed.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mr. G. T. Williams' on the 23d inst. The best feature I saw of the thing were the refreshments; we were also refreshed on the occasion—in politics—by one of your townsmen who is a candidate.

A DECIDED SUCCESS.

Eds. Kent News:—Lengthy and elaborate preparation and fatiguing rehearsals are not always requisite to a successful entertainment or the commemoration of a Children's Day. Such was the case with the Galena M. E. Sunday School in their celebration on Sunday last. With but five general rehearsals the school went thro' the exercises laid down on the program in a highly creditable manner. In the music the school was assisted by the church choir. A very pleasant feature in the program was a duet by Miss Macie Miller and Miss Annie McCauley, entitled "The Twigs;" these little misses sang the song very sweetly. The pastor's address was very practical and threw much light upon the church work being done through the instrumentality of the children. In the case of this school and charge works testified to their faith, as they raised in a few moments $10 or $11, making $25 for the educational fund. We would hardly have recognized the interior of the old M. E. Church edifice for its "seared and battered" walls were very tastily decorated by the dexterous hands of the ladies. To do this tribute was laid upon old Mother Earth, and everything that could contribute to arts of beautifying was seized upon from the waving fern of the wood to the pure lily by the door-step. "The Gates Ajar," were beautifully represented upon the desk, while an anchor and cross over the pulpit platform fittingly illustrated the christian's way. Over all was the appropriate motto "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of the Lord shall stand forever." Some people fail to appreciate the time, patience and labor that artistic decorations of this kind call for. In this case those that directed and executed the above designs showed no little taste and talent. Such decoration is not a vain show merely; it cultivates the æsthetic taste and in its way goes far toward educating the masses in the things that make for purity and Heaven. Give us then more "Children's Days," more anniversaries, more Christmas entertainments, with their tasty decorations and beautiful flowers, their glad songs and pleasing recitations, and their stirring addresses and happy memories. We are always the better for them. OBSERVER.

LYNCH'S AND VICINITY.

Messrs. Editors:—We have had our festivals, children's meetings, aid societies, &c., but to cap the climax, on the evening of the 20th, we were invited to attend the wooden wedding of Mr. Joseph H. Porter and wife, near Worton Station, where we were very highly entertained. All the delicacies of the season were set before us in abundance, which we enjoyed very much. We had some very fine music by Mrs. Bird; also both vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. Porter and neices, which was very much appreciated by the company. Your correspondent had a birds' eye view, of the winding up of a really enjoyable affair, in beholding a grandmother stepping to the sound of a violin with one of our popular young M. D's for a partner. They seemed to say:

"So let the whole world wag as it will,
We'll be gay and happy still!"

The bride of five years' had gathered around her two very pretty little olive branches. It was also her birthday as well as wooden anniversary. She received some very handsome presents as well as useful ones. May they have many more five years' of happiness, and at last, when called away, may it be to a better world, where there will be no separation, but all will be joy and love forever, is the sincere wish of a

FRIEND AND LOOKERON.

THE CHOPTANK RIVER STEAMBOAT WAR is at an end. For five years the Maryland and Potomac companies have been fighting each other, at considerable loss to both companies. The Maryland Company was the first to develop the route, and it was carrying on a profitable business when the Potomac Company put the steamer Georgeanna on the line for the purpose of dividing the business. The consequence was that a bitter competition was started. Freights and fares were cut down lower and lower, until at last passage to Baltimore only cost twenty-five cents. As a result of this, the people came to Baltimore to do their shopping, much to the disgust of the country merchants. After awhile a compromise was effected, by which regular rates were established. This arrangement was then continued, with slight variations, each company losing money, but still putting on a bold front. The Maryland Company having two steamers, the Ida and the Enoch Pratt, had most of the trade; but although every nerve was strained to make the route pay, the effort was not successful. The Potomac Company made a stubborn fight, but has at last been completely routed. The Georgeanna will make her last trip Friday night, after which she will be withdrawn and sold.—Balt. Sun.

SNOW HILL, Maryland, claims to have been the cradle of the Presbyterian Church in America. It is claimed that Rev. Francis Makemie founded the first Presbyterian Church on the continent at that place in 1683 or 1684. Snow Hill is one of the oldest settlements in Maryland. It was laid out by act of Assembly as early as 1686, forty-three years before Baltimore was known as an organized village. Parson Makemie organized five congregations in Somerset county, and it seems to be well attested that Snow Hill is the parent spot of Presbyterianism in America. The surviving congregation, that has an unbroken history for two centuries, proposes to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary by the erection of a Makemie Memorial Church, and the enterprise is not only eminently commendable, but it should receive the generous encouragement of Presbyterians throughout the country. The New Castle Presbytery, at its last session, urged the General Assembly to recommend the Makemie Memorial Church to the favor of Presbyterians generally. Judge Wilson, Congressman Covington and Mr. Smith, all of Snow Hill, are a committee to receive contributions.

DR. ISAAC J. HATHAWAY, in the cellar of whose residence in Philadelphia the remains of a number of infants were recently found buried, was on Wednesday convicted of having performed a criminal surgical operation upon a servant girl named Mary Butler in April, 1881, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and undergo an imprisonment of seven years—the fullest extent of the law.

"MY MARYLAND."—At a concert given in Philadelphia one evening last week for the benefit of a military organization, the old war songs were sung with unction. The Record says the singing of "Maryland, My Maryland" was listened to by a loyal Philadelphia audience with as much patience as the "Battle Cry of Freedom." The war seems to be over, even in Philadelphia.

THE fourth of July will be celebrated at Oxford by a regatta on a big scale, a walking match and other sports.

A Brilliant Wedding on Poole's Island.

Messrs. Editors:—On the 13th of June at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Captain I. J. Allen, Dr. WM. H. ETHERIDGE, Jr., of Baltimore, to Miss CORA R. ALLEN. The steamer Trumpeter, Capt. Cundiff, was chartered and left Light st. wharf at 3 o'clock P. M., with a company of about fifty invited guests to witness the happy parties joined in holy wedlock. The boat arrived at the island about 5:30 P. M. The marriage ceremony took place at 6 P. M., precisely, the Rev. A. M. Courtney officiating. The ceremony was well conducted and passed off pleasantly. The bride was attired in a handsome silk dress and wore no ornaments excepting a few natural flowers and diamonds; her two charming and pretty sisters, Misses Sadie and Nellie Allen, acting as bridesmaids. The groom was in full evening dress, and with his genial smile looked contented and happy. After the nuptials were concluded, we all partook of a substantial supper and refreshments in remembrance of the happy couple. At 9:30 P. M. the steamer returned to Baltimore with a happy freight, arriving there about 12:30 P. M., where carriages were in waiting to convey the guests to their homes. The toilets of the ladies have rarely been surpassed in social circles.

The presents were numerous and handsome, consisting principally of silverware, etc., etc., Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Wm. H. Etheridge, Jr., will make Baltimore their future home, where the doctor has a large practice, and will have the congratulations and best wishes of his large circle of acquaintance in this county.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Cross and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Diggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Allen, Rev. A. M. Courtney and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt, Capt. and Mrs. Cundiff, Mrs. M. Mitchell, Misses Ella and Ada Hoffecker, Miss Lizzie K. Scott, Miss Price, Miss L. Page, Miss Mamie Allen, Drs. Wm. H. Etheridge, Sr., and F. Pierce Hoover, of Baltimore; Jno. Tarbutton, Lewis C. Justis, W. A. Vannort, W. Thurston, G. N. Jacobi, Jno. N. Sparks, W. Hazel, Geo. T. Moore, and many others.

A GUEST.

A BRAVE YOUNG MAN.—At Coney Island, a few days ago, a little daughter of Henry Benedict, of Philadelphia, whilst playing on the beach, was struck by a high wave and carried off her feet. The father and another daughter, who were in a carriage, plunged into the water to save the child, but in an instant all their lives were in peril. At this juncture CHAS. H. Billars, aged 19 years, a Newark bookkeeper, plunged into the water and reached the girls, who had floated some distance. He swam with them until he reached a footing on the sand, and dragged them beyond the breakers. Billars dashed in again and succeeded in dragging the father to land, and then he fell unconscious. Several persons arrived in time to lift the form of the gallant lad and rub him to consciousness. Billars modestly refused to accept a money compensation, when Mr. Benedict pressed upon him a superb gold repeater, which he took from his pocket, with a gold chain and seals attached, and also a diamond ring of considerable value.

A. T. WARREN, Esq., one of the County Commissioners of Caroline county, has recently passed through an unusually heavy affliction.—On Monday afternoon of last week, his eldest son, a bright and interesting child about eight years old, in company with some other children, went fishing and was drowned. On Thursday afternoon, another and the only remaining son, died after an illness of about ten days. This child was three years old. On Friday afternoon it was laid at rest by the side of its little brother in the cemetery.

JOHN G. THOMPSON tells a Washington newspaper man that he "will work just as hard for the success of the party as if he were chairman of the executive committee." There is no doubt about that. Colonel Thompson may be somewhat displeased with his relation to a comparatively private station, but he is one of that class of Democrats who fights for the party in any sort of capacity.

A MILLIONAIRE'S WEDDING.—Mr. John Stevens, a son of the late Edwin O. Stevens, of Castle Point, Hoboken, and Miss Mary Marshall McGuire, of Virginia, were married Monday morning at Berryville, Va. The groom is about twenty-seven years old, and is said to possess $6,000,000. The married couple will pass the summer in Europe.

A BAND of 150 masked men rode up to the jail at Jefferson, Texas, on Tuesday night, took out the negro Douglass, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Rodgers, put him on a horse and rode rapidly away. The next morning Douglass was found hanging to a tree with four bullet holes through his head.

ACCORDING to an English paper Mr. Langtry is rusticating in Wales on a weekly stipend of $15.75 from Mrs. Langtry.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of Friday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry $1 15@1 20; Fultz $1 14 @1 17 for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 55@60; yellow, 55@60. OATS, Maryland, 47.

A Physician who has had a most wonderful, uninterrupted and successful practice for a quarter of a century, and traveled a great portion of the Old World—England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Italy, Sicily, Switzerland, Turkey; also China and Japan, Central and South America, for study and information. A graduate of medicine, not only in America but also in France.

He is competent to Treat the most Obstinate Complaints that have baffled the Skill of the most Eminent Physicians of the day. He does not treat Symptoms that so many complain of, but goes to the Root and Causeof the Disease, and will tell you how you feel better than you know yourself.

Therefore it is obvious that a man that is capable of knowing the course must be more qualified to make a successful and speedy cure, without keeping the patient lingering along from month to month or year to year, until the sufferer has almost given up in despair of ever being cured or benefitted. He does not bleed you out of your money at one dollar and two dollars a visit, day after day and month after month, as the general practicing physician does, but gives you the benefit of his long practice and medicine at a fair and reasonable price and within the reach of all.

DR. THAYER

Treats successfully and guarantees a cure in any of the following complaints: Liver Complaint, Consumption, Malaria, Diarrhoea, nervous, sick and bilious Headache, Constipation or Costiveness, Neuralgia of the Heart, Heart Disease, Lumbago, Kidney Complaints in their worst forms, and Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, loss of Energy, loss of Appetite, Restlessness, loss of Sleep, Tiredness in the morning on rising, a general breaking down of the whole system, Catarrh of the Bladder, Blood and Urinary Complaints in their worst forms, Rheumatism and Diabetis, Asthma or Shortness of the breath, Goitre or Thick Neck, Lung and other complaints.

Female Complaints.

Those ladies that are afflicted so much with falling of the Womb or that feeling of Bearing Down, Leucorrhoea or Whites, should lose no time in giving Dr. Thayer a call, even if they have despaired of ever being benefitted, as he will give them a medicine that will cure them in a very short time.

Office hours from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

☞Consultation free and strictly confidential.

Extract from Frederick Daily Times:

Dr. Thayer's success in treating and curing all chronic and complicated diseases has become known to us to be an accomplished fact, and it is certainly surprising and remarkable that a man—a perfect stranger—should come among us and treat all diseases with such almost superhuman results that have baffled the skill of the most noted physicians. The people of Centreville and its surroundings will now have the opportunity of calling on Dr. Thayer; the sick and afflicted and heretofore incurable can call and be treated and receive the benefit of this remarkable man's skill. It is certainly surprising that persons afflicted come to him and are told of all their complaints by him almost better than they know themselves, as in most cases they have hitherto been treated for symptoms and not the cause of the disease. Dr. Thayer strikes at the root of the complaint. We would advise all, no matter how afflicted, not to delay in giving him a call.
