Lieutenant Colonel Napier and sundry other Documents on the subject of the said Booty and of the Warrant for the distribution thereof already issued; Their Lordships were pleased in the Month of March last to direct His Majesty's said Law Officers to prepare the Draught of a New Instrument for the distribution of the said Booty, naming Sir John Borlase Warren therein a Trustee as Naval Commander in Chief, and some indifferent person connected with the Army as Trustee on the part of the Military Forces; and such Draught of Instrument having been accordingly prepared, Sir Borlase Warren being named therein a Trustee as Naval Commander in Chief, and Colonel John Macdonald, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, as Trustee on the part of the Military Forces; Their Lordships do agree herewith to lay the said Draught of New Instrument before Your Royal Highness for Your Royal Highness's Approbation in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty; And Their Lordships further submit to Your Royal Highness that directions should be given to the Right Honourable Earl Bathurst, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to lay the former Warrant under Your Royal Highness's Sign Manual, before Your Royal Highness, in order to be cancelled.

Council Office, Whitehall
12th May 1818.

Guernsey
Royal Commiss.

Letter to Mr. Justice Holroyd as to the Services stated to have been rendered by Mr. Wm. Berry.

Sir,

I am directed by the Right Honble the Lords of the Committee of Council for the Affairs of Guernsey and Jersey to transmit to you the inclosed Memorial of Mr. William Berry, praying Remuneration for the trouble and expence which he alledges to have attended his Exertions in forwarding the objects of