Reference:
ADM 1/507 34689
COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION

An Extract of Intelligence dated the 31st October 1814, transmitted to Rear Admiral Sir Thomas Henry Hotham, by Captain Nash of His Majesty's Ship Salamander, respecting the Enemy's Steam Frigate launched at New York.

An Extract
Henry Hotham
Rear Admiral.

"The Steam Frigate was
"launched this day; her construction
"is as follows. Single Deck, with
"about 12 Ports on each side,
"32 Pounders; Square Bow and
"Stern, with three Guns at each
"end, of 100 pound Caliber; Short
"Guns.— Spar Deck arched over
"and Bomb proof; principle
"the engine to throw hot water;
"she is not cased with Iron, as"