Reference:
ADM 1/507 34689
COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION

Duplicate.
No. 38.

875

Subject, at Stafford,
14th November 1814.

Sir,

Captain Nash of His Majesty's Ship Saturn, having transmitted to me a report, stating that he was informed off New London, by a Mr. Fox (a Dutch Gentleman) that it was generally understood in the United States, all the American Ships of War are now fitted with furnaces for heating Shot; and that the

The Honble
Sir Alexander Cochrane K.C.B.
Vice Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief &c &c &c.