hold strictly in view, the conduct of the American Army toward Majesty's unoffending Canadian and you will spare merely the of the unarmed Inhabitants of United States - For only by carry this retributory justice into the Country of our Enemy, can we to make them sensible of the impolicy, as well as the inhum of the System he has adopted

You will take every opportu of explaining to the People, how much I lament the necessity following the rigorous example the Commanders of the American Forces

And as these Comman must obviously have acted under tions from the Executive Governmen of the United States, whose intimat and unnatural connection with th late Government of France hat
