New York September 30th 1813.

The continued Success of the American Ships of War in action with those of His Majesty, added to the Inequality in the number of the killed and wounded on board the American, when compared with the Loss on board the British Ships, and the generally trivial Injury to the Body of Rigging of the former contrasted with the Damage received by the latter, are Events respecting which Your Lordship will naturally desire a Solution. - A Residence of 14 Years in the United States has afforded me an Opportunity for Information, and I hope Your Lordship will not consider it impertinent to offer you my Sentiments on so important
