Downing Street
20th May 1814

Sir

And 27th May

I am directed by Lord Bathurst to transmit to you for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the enclosed copy of the instructions which have been given to the Officer destined to command the Military force which is to be employed during the present year upon the Coasts of the United States and to request that you would move their Lordships to give corresponding instructions to Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane or the Naval Officer intrusted with the command of the expedition

I am
Sir
Your most obedient
Humble Servant
Henry Goulburn
