~~other~~ concluded in the letter of the Lieut Governor at Jamaica.

Their Lds are obliged to make these remarks because they feel that the returns made by the Officers of the disposition of the Naval force are not such as to afford a great increase of the public revenue. It is therefore incumbent upon them to come to a distinct explanation on many points in which such reports appear to them doubtful or liable to misunderstanding or misrepresentation.

The ~~detention~~ arrival of the Barham was an event which would not have been calculated upon by you so as to make up the deficiency of force on the station & that the intention of sending the Statira (the only ship you could hardly justify a detachment that the was part of the ~~the~~ Naval force at Jamaica and I am further commanded to ~~be~~ ~~that~~ — in the Jamaica district.

Upon this I am to observe that, on an inspection of the journal in the position of the Death account to your letter dated 12 Decr. 1813 it appears that it said such upon the 21 by your ~~the~~ ~~Lieut Governor~~ of the 21 ~~officers~~ ~~Lieut Governor~~ appears not to have been within that time month, - how soon after some of these ~~vessels~~ vessels may have arrived or others may have been detached, Their Lordships are not enabled to state but it is certain that of the 21 there still paid
