for carrying these Objects into execution. He was not aware at the time he wrote that you were upon your Passage to join him. The Brigade which you carried from the Gironde is supposed to have consisted of about 2300 Effective men; & you were authorized to chuse any one of three Battalions which sailed about the same time from Gibraltar for Bermuda, the strongest of these Battalions consisting of above 1100 Rank & file. – I calculate therefore that your Corps will have amounted to 3400 men, exclusive of the Marines; – a force very superior to what Sir R. Cochrane had contemplated as necessary for an Expedition to the Southward.

His Majesty's Government however are desirous to render the Succession your Command so respectable that there may remain no doubt of its being equal to the Object which Sir R. Cochrane has proposed, & to which His Majesty's Government attach a great Importance.

I have therefore ordered the immediate Embarkation of the Troops noted in the R. & F.

93d Regt. –	900.	Margin under the Command of 95th ———	470.	Mr. Genl. Keane, & I have instructed
Detachments of 4th, 21st, 44th & 86th Regts.	380.	that Officer to place himself & his
One Squadron of 14th L. D. –	160.	Corps under your Orders. – I have 1 Comp. R. A. – with Detach. of Drivers. –	150.	also directed the Commander of the Rocketmen. –	40.	Forces in Jamaica to place at your
Sappers & Miners	50.	Disposal the 5th West India Regt. &
	2150 –	200 Black Pioneers; – so that, when the whole of your force shall have been assembled at the place of Rendezvous, I calculate that you will proceed to your destination with near 6000 men, exclusive
