PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE

Sir,

Taking into consideration the advanced state of the Season and the sickness that prevailed in the Chesapeake last Year, in the Month of August, where out of two thousand Men, by the begin=ing of September five or six hundred were laid up with fever and ague, which in a manner ren=dered that Corps inefficient for the rest of the Season—

I am of opinion that until the month of October our efforts ought to be confined to the Northern States, and if it should

Sir — &c — &c

Sir Nisbon Cockburn Bart.
