Resolved, That in performing the services indicated in the above Resolution Mr. Breckenridge be requested to cultivate as far as practicable friendly relations with the auxiliary Societies and friends of the American Colonization Society - this Board being convinced that the operations of the two Societies may not only be conducted in the most perfect harmony, but that they will afford mutual assistance to each other.-

Resolved, That Mr. Breckenridge be authorized should he find it to be necessary to say to the State Colonization Societies that he may confer with, that this Board will be at all times willing to afford to such Societies while Contributors to the Maryland Society, reports from time to time of its affairs, and that this Board will have no objection to admit one or more of the Officers of such State Societies to the deliberations of this Board.-

Resolved that the local Agent be requested to ascertain and report to the Board the amount of collections made by the Committees heretofore appointed with the names as well of the Donors as of those whose names were on the list and who has not been called upon - and that the Clerk be requested to collect such sums as have been subscribed and not paid to the Society, either by the Committees or by Individuals, of which a List may be furnished to him by the Local Agent, and that they report in writing to the Board.-

Resolved also, that the Clerk be directed to ascertain as far as practicable and record in a Book to be kept for that purpose all the donations heretofore made to this Society, since its organization - and that it be his duty to record from time to time all contributions to this Society in such Book.-

Resolved, That Mr. McKenney be requested to correspond with Mr. McDonough of New Orleans on the subject of the views and objects of this Society.

Mr. H. H. Coles bill for cloathing for the African Princes was ordered to be paid.
