Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING.....April 5, 1884.

Gen. Grant Interviewed.—The New York World's Washington correspondent furnishes that paper with an interview with Gen. Grant on the presidential contest. Being asked if he had a preference for President, he said: "Certainly. I have never made any concealment of the fact that I should prefer John Logan to all the other candidates. I have said so frequently, and have never had any reason to change my views. I think Logan's chances as good as those of any of the candidates." Gen. Grant said he had not had a conversation with Mr. Blaine since the spring of 1880, and had no reason to expect to see him during his present visit to Washington. Indeed, alluding to a report that he was to meet the Maine statesman at a dinner to be given by Gen. Beale, Gen. Grant is quoted as saying: "I know nothing of it. It is a doubtful story. I would not go to a dinner where I would be expected to meet Mr. Blaine."

Excitement in Charles County.—The Port Tobacco Times says very great excitement exists in Charles county over the arrest and escape of Wm. Brooks, colored, who was arrested on the charge of committing an outrageous assault on Miss Ann Wedding, a young white woman, living on the Glymont road, two weeks ago. The prisoner was chained to the floor of the jail, but he effected his escape by burning a hole through the floor and dislocating the staple to which he was chained, tearing up the floor of his cell, and knocking down the plastering of the ceiling below, which opened clear his way for escape into the yard of the jail. The Times say it is not the first time Brooks has been arrested for the same offense, and it was only a year ago since he had returned from serving a sentence for criminal assault on a white child. A reward of $200 is offered for the arrest of Brooks.

Lieut.-Gov. Chauncey F. Black, of Pennsylvania, has written a letter in which he favors the repeal of the internal revenue taxes as being unnecessary, oppressive, injurious to particular classes, and attended with corruption. He favors the "taxing of foreign imports for the purpose authorized by the constitution, namely, to raise revenue sufficient for the legitimate needs of the treasury, and incidental protection, encouragement and reward equal and just to all classes of men and all kinds of lawful business, including manufacturers, agriculture and commerce in all their branches." In regard to a presidential candidate, Mr. Black says should Mr. Tilden accept the nomination "he will be named without a ballot, and elected by a majority great enough to render a second attempt to count him out a rather dangerous experiment."

A Decrease in the Right Direction.—The proprietor of one of the leading cutlery establishments of Boston, in an interview a few days ago stated that the sale of bowie knives has greatly decreased since the war. There are not as many sent South as there used to be, owing to the laws of some of the Southern States which prohibit the carrying of them. More bowie knives were formerly sent to Texas than to all the other States put together almost. Nowadays very few go there, as a law prohibiting them exists. The carrying of bowie knives as weapons of offense and defense is going out of fashion in many places, and for this reason their sale is falling off in a measure. The same dealer says the dirk is going out of use, and few are now made.

The Close of the Oyster Season.—The oyster season is now drawing to a close. The prices within the past week have fallen from 40 and 75 cents to 20 and 50 cents per bushel. The packing establishments are still in operation, but the Western and family sales are rapidly falling off. The bay craft engaged in dredging and transportation are making their last trips for the season and will begin soon to lay up for repairs and general overhauling. The prices have ranged better during the winter months of the present season than for several years, but the oystermen say that the profits have been small, owing to the scarcity of oyster and prevalence of stormy weather.—Balto. Herald.

The first of the five caissons to support the piers of the new Baltimore & Philadelphia railroad bridge across the Susquehanna was launched at Havre de Grace last week. It is a rectangular wooden structure, about 70 feet by 30 feet, with a total height of 17 feet, 3 inches, built of courses of heavy yellow pine timber. The timber in the caisson aggregates 2,500,000 feet board measure.

Mrs. James K. Polk, at the venerable age of 91, still lives in excellent health at Polk Place, Nashville, Tenn. She never had any children, but adopted a niece, who married George W. Fall, a merchant of Nashville, and who with her husband and only daughter, Sadie, make up the happy family at Polk Place.

"Then, Augustus is to preach? Is he to study or will he be merely a lay preacher?" "I guess he will be a lay preacher most of the time. Laying around out of a job.—Hereford Post.

Edward Jones, of Sussex county, Delaware, offers to bet $100 that he has the best ten acres of wheat between the two bays. He says his wheat would hide two rabbits ten days ago.

There are more crabs, terrapin, clams, oysters and scale fish in the waters of Maryland than in any other State in the Union.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

The Want of a Reliable Diuretic,

Which, while acting as a stimulant of the kidneys, neither excites nor irritates them, was long since supplied by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This fine medicine exerts the requisite degree of stimulation upon these organs, without producing irritation, and is, therefore, far better adapted for the purpose than unmedicated excitants often resorted to. Dyspepsia, fever and ague, and kindred diseases, are all cured by it.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.
