on the Liberian coast, to such there a beacon, glorious alike to the sight of the native and the emigrant African, as it speaks to one the language of civilization and the Gospel, and calls unto the other to come unto his fathers home.—

The Board propose to despatch at least two expeditions during the coming year — one in May and the other in October. Each will convey about one hundred emigrants.— To accomplish this work, much assistance will be required, and the Board reiterate their calls upon the Friends in this State and throughout the Country, for prompt and efficient aid and cooperation.—

By order of the Board.
