[illegible] HOUSE BUILDIN[illegible].

The Ne[illegible] Herald recently published a lis[illegible] of hou[illegible] b[illegible] articles and the tarif[illegible] rate on same. Ho[illegible]uilders will thereby be [illegible]ble to ascertain f[illegible] this how much more it c[illegible]s to build a hous[illegible] this country in consequence of the protecti[illegible] tariff than it would if we had [illegible] tariff. The [illegible]owing figures give the presen[illegible] tariff rates—it is to say, the extent to which the present[illegible] tax increases their cost to the working ma[illegible] on the following articles:

	Per Cent.		Per Cent.
Nails	100	Oil cloths	40
Lumber	18	House furniture, finished	5
Common window glass	60	House furniture, unfinished	3
Linseed Oil	41	Clocks	3
White lead	54	Books	21
Wall paper	2[illegible]	Earthenware	40
Cement	2[illegible]	Glassware	55
Slates	25	Tin utensils	45
Laths	9	Chromos	25
Shingles	14
Carpets	50

The meaning of these figures is that of every $100 the workingman now pays for building or furnishing a house from $25 to $30 is spent to pay tariff taxes. Not that he always uses articles produced abroad, but that the prices of the above mentioned articles, whether produced at home or abroad, are raised to the extent of the tariff rate. That is what "protection" to manufacturers means. The workingman is the best judge as to whether he is benefitted by such a tax. If he has any superfluous income which he wishes to devote to payment of artificially increased prices for his house, his furniture, his clothing and his tools, he is of course not burdened by being required to do it. Under the present law he is not at liberty not to do it.

Mr. Thomas Hughlett, Jr., who is in command of the Tuckahoe creek hatching station, under Fish Commissioner Humphreys, secured about 1,000,000 of shad eggs last week, which are being rapidly hatched. If the Fish Commissioners will but continue to hatch and turn out in our waters young shad by the million, our rivers will ultimately be thoroughly restocked with these delicious and profitable fish. Whether the artificial propagation did it or not, one thing is certain, there are a great many more shad in the Choptank river this season than there has been any spring for many years.—Easton Star.

"Mother, is it right for a pusson to try to believe something what he doesn't believe?" "No, son." "Well, then, why do you try to make me believe it's right when any one rings the door bell to go and peep out the winder and see who it is, and if it's sich and sich a one to tell her you're not in?" "Well, that's a different thing." "Oh, yes; you always say that's a different thing when you git beat."

About 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoo[illegible] steamer Trumpeter was going up the Bal[illegible] harbor, she ran down the steam yacht Teleph[illegible] owned by C. S. Maltby, cutting her in two an[illegible] sinking her almost instantly. The Telephone is a small yacht, and is used in conveying stores from point to point about the harbor. The steamer's bow struck the yacht almost fairly amidships. Three men were on the Telephone. These were thrown into the water. The steamer at once stopped and the men, who had been able to keep afloat, were rescued in the yawl and landed at Union dock. It seems that the yacht had first been struck by a passing tug and the captain was thrown overboard. The yacht, thus left with no one to steer her, got in front of the steamer and was struck. No blame is attached to the captain of the steamer.

Dr. Robert Wright died at his residence in Centreville last Monday morning, in his 87th year. Dr. Wright was the oldest graduate of the West Point military school and likewise the oldest resident of Queen Anne's county. He held a position as door-keeper in the Senate at the late session of the Legislature, where he contracted a cold which caused kidney trouble, terminating in his death. He was at one time possessed of considerable property. He was twice married, leaving children by both unions.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, January Term, 1884.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the Sale of certain Real Estate of which George T. Spry died, seized, and to have the proceeds distributed amongst the parties aforesaid in proportion to their respective interests.

The bill of complaint states that Geo. T. Spry, late of Kent co., departed this life in the year Eighteen Hundred and Eighty, seized of certain Real Estate in said county, particularly described in said Bill; that the said Geo. T. Spry left Annie T. Spry, his widow and the following children and heirs at law; Your oratrix Vermadella McKeown, William F. Spry, James A. Spry, George A. Spry, Robert E. Spry, Samuel M. Spry and Sarah C. Spry, to whom the said Real Estate descended, each of whom was seized of an undivided one-seventh part; that your Oratrix intermarried with one James McKeown; that William F. Spry intermarried with one Annie M. Lewis; that James A. Spry intermarried with one Martha A. Clark; that your Orators and one of the defendants, George A. Spry, are residents of New Castle county, State of Delaware; James A. Spry and Martha Spry, his wife, and Samuel M. Spry, of Philadelphia city, State of Pennsylvania, the residue, of Kent county, State of Maryland; that said Samuel M. Spry is an infant under the age of twenty-one years; that Annie T. Spry, widow, by release and quit-claim deed, released all her dower, claim and demand in the Real Estate of her late husband, Geo. T. Spry, unto the aforesaid heirs-at-law; that the said Sarah C. Spry, one of the heirs-at-law aforesaid, sold and conveyed all her undivided one-seventh interest in the aforsaid Real Estate to her brother William F. Spry; that the said late George T. Spry, and Annie T. Spry, his wife, executed a deed of Mortgage on the said Real Estate for one thousand dollars to Hamilton L. Crew, who assigned the same to his wife, Sarah C. Crew; that the said Sarah C. Crew and Hamilton L. Crew assigned the said Mortgage to the said James A. Spry; that the said Real Estate cannot be divided amongst the said parties entitled thereto according to their respective rights, or without loss and injury to the parties entitled to same, and the said Vermadella McKeown is entitled to have said Real Estate sold and the proceeds of sale divided amongst the parties entitled thereto according to their rights to the same.

It is thereupon this 10th day of April, 1884, adjudged and ordered that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, State of Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 10th of May, 1884, give notice to Jas. A. Spry, and Martha Spry, his wife, Samuel M. Spry, George A. Spry, the non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 12th day of September, 1884, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
