SATURDAY MORNING..........MAY 10, 1884.

DON'T FORGET MOTHER.

A father talking to his careless daughter said: I want to speak to you of your mother. It may be that you have noticed a careworn look upon her face lately. Of course it has not been brought there by any act of yours, still it is your duty to chase it away. I want you to get up tomorrow morning and get breakfast, and when your mother begins to express her surprise go right up to her and kiss her on the mouth. You can't imagine how it will brighten her dear face. Besides, you owe her a kiss or two. Away back when you were little she kissed you when no one else was tempted by your fever-tainted breath and swollen face. You were not so attractive then as now. And through those years of childish sunshine and shadows she was always ready to cure by the magic of a mother's kiss the little dirty chubby hands whenever they were injured in their first skirmishes with this rough, cold world. And then the midnight kisses with which she routed so many bad dreams as she leaned over your restless pillow, have all been on interest these long years. Of course she is not so pretty and kissable as you are, but if you had done your share of the work during the last ten years, the contrast would not be so marked. Her face has more wrinkles than yours—far more—and yet if you were sick that face would appear more beautiful than an angel's as it hovered over you, watching every opportunity to minister to your comfort, and every one of those wrinkles would seem to be bright wavelets of sunshine chasing each other over the dear face. She will leave you some of these days. These burdens, if not lifted from her shoulders, will break her down. Those rough, hard hands, that did so many unnecessary things for you, will be crossed upon her lifeless breast. Those neglected lips that gave your first baby kiss will be closed forever, and those tired eyes will have opened in eternity, and then you will appreciate your mother, but it will be too late.

MOTHER WIT.—A long list might be made of men who have owed their advancement in life to a smart answer given at the right moment. One of Napoleon's veterans, who survived his master many years, was wont to recount with great glee how he had once picked up the emperor's cocked hat at a review, when the latter, not noticing that he was a private, said carelessly, "Thank you, captain." "In what regiment, sir?" instantly asked the ready-witted soldier. Napoleon, perceiving his mistake answered, with a smile, "In my guard, for I see you know how to be prompt." The newly-made officer received his commission the next morning. A somewhat similar anecdote is related of Marshal Souvoroff, who, when receiving a dispatch from the hands of a Russian sergeant who had greatly distinguished himself on the Danube, attempted to confuse the messenger by a series of whimsical questions, but found him fully equal to the occasion. "How many fish are there in the sea?" asked Souvoroff. "All that are not caught yet," was the answer. "How far is it to the moon?" "Two of your excellency's marches." "What would you do if you saw your men giving way in battle?" "I'd tell them that there was a wagon-load of whisky just behind the enemy's line." Baffled at all points the marshal ended with: "What is the difference between your colonel and myself?" "My colonel cannot make me a lieutenant, but your excellency has only to say the word." "I say it now then," answered Souvoroff, "and a right good officer you'll be."

REMARKABLE INSOMNIA.—A Wheeling, W. Va., dispatch states that a most remarkable case of insomnia has come to light in that city. Joseph Saulsbury, a ship carpenter, about sixty years of age, has not slept an hour at a time, nor more than ten hours in all, since January 1. Otherwise he seems sound and healthy, and works every day at his trade. When these facts first became known his acquaintances doubted his statement, thinking that the matter was a dodge to gain notoriety; but when Joseph and his family persisted that such was the case it was determined that two persons should watch with him every night after his work. It was done for five nights in succession, and during that time he manifested no desire to sleep, spending the night reading and smoking, and resuming his work in the morning apparently as fresh and invigorated as though he had just risen from a sound night's sleep. Since this test was made others have watched him closely among them several physicians, who are at a loss to account for this remarkable phenomenon. It is safe to say that it has been at least ninety days since Saulsbury's insomnia commenced, and all this time he has not been in bed.

A YOUNG GIRL ACTS AS DEPUTY SHERIFF.—Miss Ida Kurtz, daughter of the sheriff of Franklin county, Pa., holds the position of deputy sheriff, and she enjoys the distinction of being the first female officer in the State who ever conducted a prisoner to the Eastern penitentiary. She was entrusted with the custody of Thos. Cunningham, a big, burly ruffian, who had been sentenced for three years for aggravated assault. The plucky girl had him handcuffed and brought him safely from the jail in Franklin county.

TO THE FARMERS
—OF—
Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW
—IS THE—
Best Plow in the World

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.
