The president stated to the Board that the object of calling them together at this time was principally to hear read the despatches just received from their agent John B. Russwurm.

The dispatches were then read. After which the President stated that as an opportunity offered of sending direct to Cape Palmas by the way of Boston he had prepared brief despatches which if the Board pleased he would then submit for their approval. They were read accordingly.

At the suggestion of the Treasurer the following items of business were concurred in: 1st The Maryland Col. Journal

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers
