Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING,..........JUNE 7, 1884.

A BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.—A writer in the Cumberland Daily News, who recently traveled by canal from Georgetown through Montgomery, Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, gives a gloomy picture of affairs on the route. He says: "I now found nothing but idleness, gloom and despondency. Employes of the canal are in want for the bare necessaries of life; being nearly one year in arrears for wages from the canal company, storekeepers all along the line are unable to replenish their stocks, having credited out in some cases their all, to feed such employes on promises to pay from the canal company, and in expectation that the canal would carry its usual percentage of coal for eastern markets. At Point of Rocks, Weverton, Knoxville, Harper's Ferry, Shepherdstown, Sharpsburg and other intermediate points boats are tied up all along. At Williamsport the canal is virtually blocked with empty boats, pastures on every side are eaten up by the idle mules, the owners having nothing of their own to feed them with; boat-yards all standing idle; farmers formerly dependent on canal as a market for their produce and being too far from railroads to find other markets, are suffering with other dependents on the canal. At Hancock this same destitution exists, if possible to a greater extent. Cumberland, the shipping point, with a population of 13,000 people, to a great extent dependents on the canal for their existence, is suffering in the extreme. Merchants doing little or no business; boat-yards, seven in number, where hundreds of men were employed, are doing nothing."

A NEW POLITICAL PARTY.—A dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Some of the features of a strong secret political organization, numbering several hundred thousand members, have been uncovered here. It extends from Maine to California. It claims 25,000 members in Indiana, 50,000 in Illinois, 60,000 in Ohio and 40,000 in Maine. The name is the "New Era," and it is anti-monopolistic in character. It is charged that the order has been organized in Ben Butler's behalf, and that its movements are concealed to further his presidential aspirations. The organization was founded in Chicago less than a year ago. Some of its principles may be gathered from the following card inviting membership to the organization.

"Before the one Father who watches over all, we stand as brothers and seek to establish equity and fraternity in all relations of life. We love our country and support the execution of all equitable laws, yet hold that laws which defeat equity are crimes against the inalienable rights of man. The right and title of the men of toil to the fruits of their toil and to a safe home and country are from God, and sooner or later His will shall be reached and established among men that it may be done on earth as it is in heaven. We invite all good men of every proper trade and calling, who believe in and hope for these things and are willing to fraternally co-operate for their accomplishment, to come into our organization."

THE GEN. HOOD CHILDREN.—Two young lady passengers who arrived at New York last Saturday in the steamship Elden brought with them the remembrance of a family tragedy of great interest now some years old. They are twin sisters, Annabel and Ethel, daughters of the late Gen. John B. Hood, famous as a Confederate commander. Gen. Hood was the father of nine children, including three pairs of twins, when his wife and he in quick succession succumbed to yellow fever in New Orleans. Warm hearts refused to let the interesting orphans suffer a lack of care and affection, and the three sets of twins were adopted by kind friends—Mr. McGill, a wealthy planter of Mississippi, taking one pair; Mr. Adams, a wealthy New Yorker, who owns a summer house at Newport, taking the second, and Mr. John A. Morris, of New Orleans, a relative by marriage of Mrs. Hood, the third. The last named pair are the sisters Annabel and Ethel, who for five years have been studying in Hanover, Germany. They came to New York for a visit to their kind foster father, at his beautiful country place in Westchester county, New York.

FIRST PICKPOCKET—"Say Bill, now's your chance." Second Pickpocket—"Where." "See that rich lady with her purse in her hand? She's getting into a crowd, too." "No use snatchin' her purse." "Why ain't there?" "There ain't nothing in it." "How do you know?" "I just seed her a-comin' outen a mil'nery store."

HAVING made his will, Mr. Barnum was lately asked if he thought he would go to heaven when he died. "Well, I don't see why not," was the characteristic reply of the great advertiser. "I think I have the best show on earth."

LEARNED MEN are never anxious to seem learned to others, and to be called wise.

AFFECT not to be otherwise, but rather acknowledge thine own ignorance.

RECOLLECTION is the only paradise from which we cannot be turned out.

"It's a great comfort to be left alone," said an Irish lover, "especially when your sweetheart is wid ye."

OPERATIVE IN KENT COUNTY.

Passed at the Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, 1884.

To Regulate the Catching of Fish in Chester River.

AN ACT to repeal chapter four hundred and eleven and chapter three hundred and thirty-three of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and chapter one hundred and fourteen of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled "An act to better regulate the time and manner of taking and catching fish in the waters of Chester river and its tributaries lying within the counties of Kent and Queen Anne's, in this State, and to re-enact the following in lieu thereof:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to take, capture or destroy fish in the waters of Chester river or its tributaries in Kent or Queen Anne's counties by seines, drag-nets, set-nets, fish-baskets, fish pots, weirs, pound-nets, fykes or any other means or contrivance whatsoever which is now known or used in capturing or destroying fish, or which may hereafter be invented for that purpose from the twentieth day of May to the tenth day of September, except with hook and line; provided, however, that seines or nets may be used for the taking of taylors and mackerel fish, provided the meshes of such nets or seines are in the bar not less than one and seven-eighth inches, or in the mesh less than three and three-quarter inches.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons who use stakes or poles in setting nets of whatever class or description in the waters mentioned in the first section of this act to leave such stakes or poles in the water where they were used, but shall remove such stakes or poles from the waters where they were used on or before the first day of June in each year, nor shall they again be put down in said waters prior to the first day of September following.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons in said waters mentioned in the first section of this act, to employ their seines upon the beach or shore at any time whilst engaged in fishing, so as to leave the smaller fish to perish, but to employ the same in water of sufficient depth to enable the smaller fish to return to the waters for growth and maturation; and any person using seines, pound-nets, fish-baskets, fykes, traps, or nets of any class or description that catch the fish alive shall immediately cull them and return the small fish to the waters at the place where they were taken.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no person or persons other than the bona fide residents of Kent and Queen Anne's counties shall use any boat or trap of any kind or description used in catching fish in said waters of Chester river and its tributaries in said counties; provided, however, that persons owning or occupying lands in said counties on said river and its tributaries shall have the right to rent or otherwise grant to non-residents the privilege of fishing on or opposite their shores during the fishing season hereinfore limited and fixed; and, further provided, that the right to take fish with hook and line shall be allowed to all persons at all times.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the information of any citizen of either of the said counties, that he knows or verily believes that any person or persons have violated any of the provisions of this act, before any justice of the peace of either of said counties, the justice of the peace of said counties shall docket a case in the name of the State of Maryland against such person or persons so charged by oath as offending, and issue a warrant at once to some one of the constables or the sheriff of such county for the arrest of the party or parties so charged in said oath with such violations of this act, to be brought before such justice for trial, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten nor more than sixty dollars for each and every offense, in the discretion of said justice of the peace, one-half of which fine shall be paid to the informer, the other half to the school fund of the county where such conviction was rendered; and in default of payment of such fine such person or persons so convicted shall be sent to the county jail where such act was committed for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, at the discretion of the justice of the peace.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons convicted of offending against any of the provisions of this act shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he or they may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace before whom such conviction is had, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court of the county in which the trial was had. If any resistance be made to the officer directed to execute this act by any person or persons offending against the same, the said officer shall summon the posse comitatus and proceed therewith without delay to execute his duty under such warrant. The justice before whom such offender or offenders shall be taken, shall have full power to issue summons for all witnesses that be named to him to compel their appearance and examine them under oath.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same is here repealed, and that this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 4, 1884.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW
—IS THE—
Best Plow in the World

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.
