SATURDAY MORNING,.........JUNE 14, 1884.

Foreign Landholders in this Country.

The amount of land owned in this country by Englishmen, British corporations and other foreigners, is larger than most people suppose. A list of these holdings, ranging from 5,000 to 4,500,000 acres, and footing up a total of 20,941,000 acres, is published. In other words, European subjects own more than half as much land in this country as there is in England. Among the largest tracts that have passed into foreign hands are the following:

Rage for Fancy Fowls.

New York Mail and Express.

There is a lively demand for thoroughbred fowls. Dealers are doing an unusually large business in eggs for hatching. The better varieties bring $1 50 to $4 per setting of thirteen eggs. In exceptional cases as high as $10 per setting has been paid. Fancy-bred cocherels and biddies command correspondingly high prices in sets. Just now Wyandottes are the range. Fine specimens of fancy fowls range in value from $10 to $100 per trio. The best are produced in Massachusetts, Connecticut and this State. Samuel J. Tilden is one of the most extensive amateur breeders of fancy barnyard fowls. He has all varieties of turkeys, chickens, geese, ducks, etc. His collection embraces about three hundred chickens, it is said. He has named one little bantum, who is particularly pugnacious, John Kelley. Wm. H. Vanderbilt is a new buyer. His most noteworthy purchase was at the late chicken show, at which he paid $75 for a pair of white-crested black Polands from Ohio. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher will talk chickens for hours at a time. His favorite breed are the Leghorns and he buys as many as 400 and 500 eggs in a batch for hatching in incubators on his farm up the Hudson.

PLOWING by steam was put to a practical test the other day at Fargo, Dakota. In prairie countries like Dakota the length of the furrow is often a half mile and at the first plowing or breaking of the virgin soil it takes a man with four horses or four oxen and a boy to drive them a day to break a little over an acre. An acre and a half is a good day's work. By the method just tried at Fargo a traction steam engine draws eight plows after it, and instead of one acre breaks twenty-five acres a day. By the old method it costs $3 to break an acre, while by the steam plows the cost is reduced to $1 per acre. By this new method, too, since labor is so scarce in the West, an enormous increase in the acreage will be made, as the chief difficulty or labor in corn growing in these prairie regions is first getting the ground broken. The possibilities of this country to produce are beyond all conception, and with the constant additions in improved machinery and increased facilities a continually overstocked market can hardly be other than the result.

THE term shinplaster is applied to any paper money and especially to that which has depreciated in value. The term is said to have been first used during the Revolutionary war. Continental currency having become almost worthless, and an old soldier unable to dispose of what he had, very philosophically made use of it as plasters for a wounded leg.

A JOKE that didn't end in smoke. The voters of Livermore township, Westmoreland county, Pa., humorously proposed to elect Miss Ada Read a Justice of the Peace, and are dismayed to discover that, having the requisite number of votes, instead of taking the joke she takes the oath, and will perform all the duties of the office.

THERE are several girls employed as railroad station agents in Minnesota. But really we should think they would make better ties.

WOMEN now serve on juries in Washington Territory. The best-looking lawyer generally wins his case.

DEARBORNS,

Have a reputation throughout this Peninsula. We have sold them in New Castle Co., Delaware, and in Cecil county, Md., and as far as Salisbury, Md. We have over ONE THOUSAND of these running today, and as far as our personal knowledge extends we do not know of twelve set of tyres cut in the whole of them. This is evidence enough of what kind of lumber we use in making them.

We could give you testimonials enough to fill one side of the KENT NEWS to establish this fact if it were necessary, but the public already know of the standing of these goods.

We have justly earned the high reputation we hold as manufacturers by our manner of doing business—

We give our own personal supervision to every minutia in building;

We see that all lumber is well seasoned before it it used, and every other part is what it should be.

You will find a large lot of Single, Double and Three-horse TREES of the best hickory, well ironed; also, Plow Hames.

You will see by calling at our works that we have too much at stake to do mean or shoddy work.

Thankful for past patronage and hoping for a continuance of the same,
