Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING......... JULY 12, 1884.

HON. JOHN A. KASSON, of Iowa, has been appointed Minister Plenipotentiary to Germany.

CONGRESS adjourned last Monday. The House bill to provide for the restoration of Fitz-John Porter to the army, which passed both houses, but was vetoed by the President and passed over the veto by the House, failed to receive the necessary two-thirds vote in the Senate to pass it over the veto.

BARTHOLDI'S colossal bronze statue, "Liberty Enlightening the World," is finished, and was formally presented to the United States at Paris on the 4th. France offers a government ship to transport it to the United States. It is to be placed on Bedloe's Island, New York harbor. The statue is 151 feet high, and will stand on a base 177 feet above the ground, making its whole height when completed 328 feet.

FAYETTE STREET, immediately below the northeast corner of Holliday street, Baltimore, was the scene of a startling tragedy at an early hour Tuesday morning, the victim being William McGowan, the "prince" of gamblers. His alleged assailant was Augustus Slater, nephew of Mr. Rober J. Slater, of political fame. The victim of this tragedy killed Onno G. Gorter, a sporting character, about two years ago within ten yards of the place where he met his own fate.

ANOTHER terrific storm, accompanied by rain and hail, passed over a portion of Cecil county last Sunday night. At Rising Sun the track of the Philadelphia and Baltimore Central Railroad was washed so badly that no trains could pass, and passengers had to be transferred around the break. Near Peach Bottom, on the Columbia and Port Deposit Railroad, a landslide occurred, and trains were delayed. Considerable damage was done to corn and other crops.

THE REV. GEORGE R. BRISTOR, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has been acquitted of the charges of immoral practices brought against him by the Newark Conference. His acquittal was on an appeal from the Newark Conference to the General Conference. The latter appointed a judiciary committee of 19 to hear the appeal. The committee met in the Methodist book rooms in New York city and was in session several days. Mr. Bristor presented his own side and spoke on the appeal for ten hours. The vote stood ten for acquittal and nine against. This puts an end to the case, as the committee had full powers.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR has appointed Mr. H. Wheeler Combs, of Oakland, Garrett county, Md., to be general appraiser of merchandise for the district of Baltimore, which place has been vacant since the death of Mr. John F. Meredith, who held it 22 years, and died a year ago. Mr. Combs is a lawyer, about 32 years of age, who has been an active republican in his county, which he has represented in conventions, but has not been prominent in State politics. Mr. John T. Graham, of Baltimore county, and Mr. Chas. Hanna, auditor of the custom-house, were among the other applicants for the place. There are four general appraisers, who districted the country between them. The Baltimore district extends as far south as the gulf. The duties are to see that uniformity is maintained in the classification of imported merchandise by the local appraisers at different ports, and to be parties to the settlement of differences where questions arise between the importers and the local appraisers.

THE DROWNING OF TWO RICHMOND GIRLS.—The Richmond Dispatch furnishes the particulars of the drowning at Old Point, Va., Monday, of Miss Charlotte Williams, daughter of Mr. John L. Williams, stockbroker, and her cousin, Miss Susie E. Gibson, daughter of Mr. P. H. Gibson, insurance agent, of Richmond. The young ladies who were guests at Mrs. Eaton's boarding-house, went in bathing Monday about noon with their aunt, Miss Williams, from Kimberly's bath-house, just above the Baltimore wharf. The tide was running out and carried them unconsciously down close to the wharf, where the water deepens very rapidly. They soon found themselves being carried out and screamed for help. Dr. Halbard, of the marine hospital service, happened to be on the wharf, and jumped overboard and succeeded in saving the aunt and a little girl who was with her, but when he came to look for the others they had disappeared. By this time the alarm had spread, and a crowd of expert swimmers came on the scene and commenced diving to recover the bodies. This continued over half an hour without success, when Barney Green, of the Hygeia Hotel, succeeded in finding that of Miss Gibson, which had lodged against the wharf. Dr. Bailey, post surgeon, and assistants, at once applied all known remedies, but life had long been extinct. The body of Miss Williams was recovered about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, about 50 yards from where she disappeared. Both bodies were recovered without disfigurement. An Old Point dispatch says Mr. J. A. Boyle of Baltimore, rendered valuable assistance in rescuing Miss Williams, the aunt. The drowned girls were in their seventeenth year. Alluding to the sad affair, the Richmond Dispatch says: "The affair produced a profound sensation of sorrow at the Point, and when telegraphed here plunged two large families into inexpressible grief. They were two of the most engaging girls of the city, and were loved by all who knew them."

NO FEAR OF CHOLERA.—A New York letter says: All the talk in the local newspapers, and the sensational reports in some of them, about the fear of cholera here are baseless. There is really no uneasiness felt in intelligent circles, nor is there the slightest cause for uneasiness. The best medical authorities here still doubt very gravely if the cholera which has appeared in the South of France is of the Asiatic type. There are seven distinct kinds of cholera, and any of them may be, and have repeatedly been, mistaken for Asiatic. The panic, with the heat and other material conditions of the season at Toulon and Marseilles, would account for all the cholera that has declared itself in those cities. Southern Frenchmen are easily frightened, and, having suffered terribly from the epidemic in years gone by, they lose their reason and all calmness the moment they hear of the scourge in their vicinity. If the cholera had been really Asiatic, it would probably have spread much faster than it has done according to the worst reports. We have had so much cholera here in the past that little apprehension is felt about it. Our physicians and hygienists understand how to deal with it, and their experience has been invaluable. There is no rational probability of its reaching our shores this year or next; but if it should, it would be arrested and extinguished no doubt, as it has been time and again before. No reasonable precautions or efforts will be spared by the authorities, but they all agree that there is absolutely no ground for the smallest alarm.

SINCE Harper's Weekly joined the independent revolt against Blaine, and directed Nast's pencil, for the first time, against the candidates of the Republican party, the Republican journals have suddenly discovered that his cartoons show a wonderful decadence of his once great powers. The Baltimore American's allusion to this sad instance of failing genius is really affecting, and one can almost see the tears that surely fell when the sorrowful announcement that "Mr. Nast's increasing age has unquestionably brought about a decreasing vigor of mind, as well as a diminishing artistic genius," was penned.—Nast's mind is doubtless as vigorous as it was four years ago, and the only trouble is that his productions do not strike the average Republican mind with the same force, or inspire the same appreciation, as when Democracy was the sole object of his ridicule and all things Republican were sacred in his eyes.

CAPTURING THE OWNER OF OWL'S NEST.—After an exciting chase Sheriff Stevens and Constable Williams last week captured the notorious Brice Douglas, of Caroline county, a violator of the local option law, who has defied the law and eluded the officers for several years. Douglas was indicted by the grand jury of 1881 for selling whiskey and keeping a disorderly house known as the "Owl Nest" in Denton. He was brought to trial, but succeeded in getting away and leaving his bondsmen in the lurch. Since that time he has been playing hide and seek with the officers. When found last week he was at work near Ridgely, and after arrest escaped and took to the woods. He was pursued and recaptured by the sheriff and posse after an exciting foot race. He will have to answer several charges of local option violation at the fall term of court.

AT this season of the year horsemen cannot be too careful of the comfort of their animals. They should be provided with fly-nets, driven slowly and watered frequently during the day. Their stables should also be well ventilated at night.

BREVITIES FROM FAIRLEE.

Corn looks healthy. Our farmers had a grand opportunity to get their tillages in order before harvest and improved it. Hot nights are what corn now needs. Hay is not abundant — weeds are. The white weed or ox-ey daisy (Leucanthemum) is threatening to take entire possession of some fields, while St. Peter's wort (Ascyrum, crux St. Andrew) has invaded the clover and pasture fields and greatly shortened the crop of hay. Many are threshing their crops of wheat and will soon find out whether the length of the head and fullness of grain has compensated for the shortness of straw, or otherwise.

Religious services are conducted in the grange hall while the church edifice is being improved.

Butler, (not ex-Gov. Ben) says in Hudibras:

"What countless dangers do environ
The man who meddles with cold iron!"

To which may be added:

Nor less for vengeance is he ripe
Who fools with printers' ink and type.

That letter from Fairlee in last week's issue was like a charge of dynamite upon that community, and the NEWS correspondent came in for his share of comment, wise and otherwise; n'importe—

Though some commend and some abuse
We'll pick up items for the NEWS.

It fully illustrates the power of the press; the fourth power of the American government; the power behind our throne. SIMON SHARP.

LETTER FROM CAMBRIDGE.

Messrs. Editors: DEAR SIRS: I have thought that possibly a line or two from this section of the State might be acceptable to you and interesting to your readers, hence venture a few jottings for your excellent paper.

Cambridge is situated on Cambridge creek, an arm of the Choptank river, and contains about three thousand inhabitants at present and is rapidly increasing. Its chief industries are oyster packing, there being about a dozen packing houses; canning of vegetables, fruits and oysters; ship building is carried on extensively, there being several yards, all as busy as they can be in repairing old and building new vessels. We have also several phosphate factories which have been doing a flourishing business. The Cambridge Manufacturing Company is a large concern; they manufacture grits, hominy corn and flour for the New York market in their grist mill. They have also a large saw mill in which they saw hundreds of thousands of feet of lumber annually for all kinds of building purposes; a cooper's shop where they make all the barrels and packages for the shipping of their goods; also peach boxes for the home market, and are prepared to supply any demand upon them for box material.

Having both water and railroad facilities, Cambridge is elegantly located for a manufacturing town.

The corn in this county, so far as your correspondent has visited, is looking well and promises a good yield. Peaches will be abundant.

The Fourth of July was doubly celebrated; first as the 108th anniversary of our nation, and second as the bi-centennial of the founding of our city. The people turned out en masse. A procession over a mile in length paraded the streets, headed by Col. Wallace as chief marshal. Floats representing the mechanical, manufacturing and mercantile interests of the city were in line. The most unique and attractive of which was one gotten up by Mr. Drain, the cashier of the bank, which was a wagon drawn by a goat, with two pretty little girls in it riding under a white canopy. The procession disbanded at noon. At $2\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock P. M. a large audience assembled under the trees in front of the courthouse to hear the orator of the day. The Hon. Mr. Stewart, a native of this town but a resident of Texas at this time, first spoke, followed by Col. Jas. Wallace. After the speaking about fifty masked young men paraded the streets accompanied by a band of music. At $9\frac{1}{2}$ P. M. there was a fine display of fire-works from the east side of the harbor witnessed by thousands of people.

The new Grace M. E. Church South was opened on Sunday, the 6th, for worship. Bishop Granberry preached, morning and evening, to large audiences. Thirteen thousand dollars were asked for, and about five thousand five hundred were raised. As the whole amount was not provided for, the church was not dedicated, but will be used for service. It is a handsome graystone structure, with brick trimmings, surmounted by spire with bell. DORSET.

MORE SEA-LIONS FOR DRUID HILL.—Mr. C. A. Eastman, a strongly-built, rugged-looking man, who is known on the Pacific coast as a successful sea-lion hunter, reached Baltimore last Saturday after one week from San Francisco, with a huge female sea-lion with her male baby, the gift of Mr. John W. Garrett to Druid Hill Park. They were objects of intense interest to the crowds of people who visited the park on Sunday. The mother sea-lion, which weighs about 800 pounds, appeared to be in good health and eats her rations of fresh fish. The youngster, which Mr. Eastman says is only three weeks old, was frolicsome as a kitten, and amused everybody with his antics. This baby is about the size of a half-grown pig, and has a black hide, while the mother and all adult sea-lions are brown in color. The mother nursed her infant on the bank of the pond, and was not disturbed by the people who thronged the line of the protecting slatted railing a few feet distant. Both animals did a good deal of bawling, but the infant excelled in making a noise.—Balto. Sun.

A GENERAL IN DISGRACE.—Gen. Thomas W. Egan, who fought in the battle of Gettysburg and was in almost every battle at that time, was arraigned before a New York police justice one day last week, on the charge of drunkenness. Appealing to the justice Egan said: "Liquor has been my curse. For ten years I have been its slave. But from this day forth I will be a changed man. I will quit drinking and make a solemn vow that not another drop of that poison will pass my lips again." Egan was sent to an insane asylum.

THE annual encampment of the Pennsylvania militia will be held this year at Round Top, on the battle field of Gettysburg, commencing August 2 and ending August 9. The camp will be located on the ground traversed by Pickett's famous charge, and accommodations will be provided for 8,000 men. Gov. Pattison is expected to be present and ex-Governor John F. Hartranft, Major-General National Guard of Pennsylvania, will be in command. Gen. Sheridan, with an escort of regular troops, will take part in the encampment.

CHARLES H. GOGEL, formerly proprietor of "Painter's" restaurant and confectionery, No. 77 Lexington street, Baltimore, was sentenced by Judge John Brown in the Criminal Court last Saturday, to five years in the penitentiary for forgery, to which he pleaded guilty. Chess Burnham was sentenced to six months in jail for assaulting Councilman Wesley, and Geo. Sauner and John Hartman were sentenced to jail for six months for keeping a gaming table.

DURING his sermon in Brooklyn last Sunday morning Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, referring to cremation, said that the idea of the resurrection of the body would oppose a lasting obstacle to the pagan custom of burning the dead. There might be sanitary reasons in crowded populations, or reasons of convenience in favor of the custom, but all the beliefs of English-speaking and German-speaking people were violated by the idea of incineration.

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHT YEARS OLD.—Thos. Murray, a colored man residing in Baltimore, and who claims to be a hundred and eight years of age, was in town yesterday. He used to belong to the Hopper family in this county, and it is said his age can be traced to beyond a hundred years. The old fellow is hale and hearty, and until within a year or so he did not have to use spectacles.—Cent. Observer.

A CAREFUL survey of the flooded district, together with information gathered from the principal losers, lead to the belief that the county's loss from the recent flood was about $53,000; that of the mills and other business concerns, $120,000, and that of private individuals, $85,000, making in all $258,000.—Cecil Co. News.

A DELAWARE man has invented a wheat scalping machine, that is a machine that will take the bran from the wheat before it is ground, and leaves it in much better condition for milling. This invention will doubtless prove a valuable one to millers, and boiled scalped wheat will become an article of diet in almost every family.

THE receiver of Grant & Ward reports that the creditors of that defunct firm will get one-third of a cent on a dollar's worth of claims. Among the preferred creditors in the firm's assignment are Mrs. U. S. Grant, 2,763; Frederick D. Grant, $533,763; Jesse R. Grant, $113,415.

THE Baltimore Oriole has decided not to give a pageant this year. The association has a debt balance of something like $5,500, to meet which the assets, in the way of unique and expensive paraphenalia, that cost $20,000 or $25,000, will be used.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry 95c.@$1 05; Fultz 96c.@1 02 for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 71@71; yellow, 66@66. OATS—Maryland, 38.

CARTER HARRISON, who has been three times elected Mayor of Chicago, has been nominated by the Democrats for Governor of Illinois. He is very popular among the Germans, and his nomination will go far towards taking the State out of the hands of Gen. Logan. Illinois used to be Democratic and may cast her electoral vote for the Democratic candidate for President again this year.

GREAT damage to the wheat crop in Somerset and Worcester counties is reported. The long wet spell of weather last week caught most of the crop on the ground and sprouted the grain. This week it became dry enough to thrash, when it was found badly damaged. The estimate is that the damage will amount to about 50 per cent., of the entire yield. This will prove a serious loss to the farmers of those counties.

The above brands are sold and delivered, 12 bags to the ton, and in fine and dry condition for drilling. EXTRA MOISTURE IN A FERTILIZER ADDS TO THE COST. You should count the cost of the Fertilizer by the cost per acre. As the soil requires more of a lower grade Fertilizer to the acre than one of a higher grade, the consequence is that the extra quantity required, the extra labor in applying it, and the poor results obtained, make the lower grade of goods more costly.

With perfect confidence we refer buyers to all who have applied our Fertilizers.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW

—IS THE—

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A. Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.
