National Democratic Ticket.

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS AT LARGE:
HON. THOMAS J. KEATING,
GEN. BRADLEY T. JOHNSON.

DISTRICT ELECTORS:
1st District—CLEMENT SULIVANE,

A CORRESPONDENT of the London Times, writing from Shanghai, says that war between France and China is apparently inevitable.

COL. HENRY PAGE, of Somerset county, has withdrawn as a candidate for Congress, leaving that county solid for Col. Levin L. Waters.

GEN. WEST, of Mississippi, has declined the nomination for Vice-President on the Greenback ticket, which has General Butler for President.

THE Greely relief expedition found the survivors of Lieut. Greely's party—seven men in all, including Greely himself—on June 22 on Smith's Sound. Nineteen of the men had died.

"BEHOLD THE DOSE!" exclaims the Baltimore American, in announcing Cleveland and Hendricks' nomination. A very bitter dose to the American and its followers, no doubt!

IT is said that ex-Senator Wallace will probably be elected chairman of the national democratic committee. Senator Gorman is chairman of the national congressional committee.

AN enthusiastic ratification meeting was held Thursday night at the Holliday Street Theatre under the auspices of the Cleveland Club of Baltimore. Speeches were delivered by Gov. McLane and Ex-Govs. Whyte and Hamilton.

GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS, chairman of the Independent Republican General Committee, has issued a call for a conference of Republicans and Independents who have resolved not to vote for Blaine and Logan, to be held at New York on Tuesday, July 22.

A COLLISION between two Baltimore and Ohio railroad passenger trains occurred at Washington on Saturday evening at 8.40 o'clock, by which an engineer and fireman were killed, and eight or more persons were injured. The two engines were totally wrecked, and the destruction of rolling stock was complete.

"TO THE Eastern Shore mosquito: This is cholera year. Please don't call until 1885."
—American.

To the Baltimore American: This is the National mud-throwing year — when political lies are at a premium. Please discontinue the wholesale business in this line. You can resume in '85.

COLONEL W. F. VILAS, the permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention, first came into national reputation for oratory by the speech he delivered in November 1879, at the banquet of the Army of the Tennessee. He is above the medium height. He wears spectacles, has reddish black beard scissored close and moustache of the same.

ON WEDNESDAY of last week an election was held in Chapel district of Talbot county, the only district in the county in which liquor is now permitted to be sold, to determine "whether spirituous or fermented liquors shall be sold in said district or a license granted for the same." The holding of the election was authorized by an act of the last Legislature. The contest was an animated one, and resulted in a majority of 115, out of 519 votes in favor of license and against prohibition.

THE death of from 50 to 100 persons a day in both Toulon and Marseilles does not tend to quiet the dread of cholera epidemic in Europe. There are no signs that the pestilence is abated in either of the two cities in which it has been raging; but as yet the general flight of their inhabitants does not seem to have resulted in the spread of the disease, although one case is reported at Nice. Other countries are taking precautions against its introduction.

THE article which we reprint today from the Philadelphia Times sets forth very clearly and squarely Governor Cleveland's position on the question which has been raised that he is an enemy of the workingman. Unable to find tangible issues against Cleveland his enemies have endeavored to make capital with those of the laboring classes who are not well informed by pretending that certain instances of his exercise of the veto power had been inimical to their interests. The allegation is not true. It is only necessary that the nature of the bills vetoed shall be understood by those whom they only pretended to benefit for its falsity to be recognized. Gov. Cleveland is a friend to the workingman, but he is not a demagogue, willing to obtain cheap popularity by simulating friendly activity — in his own interest.

READ IT.

We publish in full on our first page the platform adopted by the Democratic National Convention last week. Persons who take little interest in political matters are apt to pass over such articles and call them dry reading. But this is well worth a careful perusal and we hope all our readers will so consider it and carefully ponder the facts therein recited, and the purposes expressed. We also give a sketch of the lives of the nominees.

"SHADOWS OF A GREAT CITY," is the title of a new play by L. R. Shewell, Esq., of this county, which was presented for the first time at McVicker's Theatre, Chicago, on Tuesday evening. A dispatch from that city says:

The audience filled the house, and at the close of each act called the principal players to the stage. Finally Mr. Shewell was compelled to yield to the applause and make his appearance. He gave great credit to Joseph Jefferson, who, he said, had first suggested the plot, and had superintended its production and been present at every rehearsal. Then Mr. Jefferson was called to the front, but would only express his thanks.

The play is skillfully constructed showing a thorough knowledge of stage requirements and a keen eye to stage effects. The story is interesting, and full of strong situations. The scene is laid in New York city, the first act in that of Ouckst mansion on Broadway. The later developments of the story occur at Blackwell's Island and in the picturesque region of Hell Gate and Harlem.

THAT BRILLIANT METEOR.—Over one hundred and fifty nebulæ which have escaped the vision of previous astronomers have recently been discovered by Dr. Lewis Swift, Director of the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y. One of these is of a most peculiar nature, and seems to be undergoing a wonderful change. Dr. Swift desires to thoroughly investigate that great meteor which appeared on the night of July 3d, and for this purpose requests all who may see it to communicate with him at the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., immediately, giving the direction of view, motion, color, etc.

FACING A MILE IN 2:01.—The 10,000 persons who assembled in the Chicago Driving Park last Thursday week witnessed an unparalleled performance. Westmont, a sorrel gelding, made a mile with a running mate in 2:01, beating all records by several seconds. One hundred watches timed the noble animal, and the record is correct to a second. The first quarter was made in 30½ seconds, the half mile in exactly one minute, and the three-quarters in 1:30. A light road wagon was attached. Close to the wire Westmont spoiled a two-minute record by galloping madly. Westmont is a well-built chestnut gelding, owned by S. F. Johnson of Creston, Iowa, and had a record of 2:15¼. He has been in training with running mate for a short time only. The racer was Pinebrand, six years old, with no record, and recently changed hands at $300.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Final Result—The Vice-President—How Maryland Voted—Incidents.

We gave last week the result of the balloting for President at Chicago, but had to go to press before receiving the news of the nomination for Vice-President. The convention, upon reassembling at 5 o'clock, Friday, proceeded to receive nominations and several names were presented, but all of them withdrawn upon the presentation of the name of Hendricks. The telegraph report says:

The demonstration that succeeded surpassed in vehemence and enthusiasm any similar scene that has taken place during this eventful day. All the flags and banners were gathered around the section occupied by the Indiana delegation and these waved amid the shouts of the large audience and the strains of patriotic music from the band, ending with "Auld Lang Syne," the words of which were sung with feeling, the chorus being rendered by several thousand voices.

Then the band struck up "Old Hundred," and all joined in the solemn hymn of praise. This was followed by the music and song of "America," and that again by "Home, Sweet Home."

Finally the chairman got a chance to make the formal announcement of the vote. He said that there had been 816 votes cast; all of them for Thomas A. Hendricks, and that Mr. Hendricks was therefore the candidate of the national democratic convention for Vice-President of the United States. (Cheers.)

Upon the nomination of Cleveland, John Kelly, attended by some of his supporters, left the hall confused and disgusted at his thorough defeat.

Ben Butler left Chicago in very low spirits. He said Cleveland could not carry Massachusetts.

On the first ballot for President the Maryland delegation voted—Cleveland 6, Bayard 10. On the second ballot the Cleveland vote, before the stampede, was Walsh, Brattan, Henning, Wells, Talbot, Fenton and Hamill, but before the final announcement the entire 16 votes were cast for Cleveland.

Ex-Gov. John Lee Carroll, chairman of the Maryland delegation, was called to New York on account of the illness of his father-in-law, Royal Phelps. Col. J. Thos. Scharf was elected to fill the vacancy in the delegation, and Senator Gorman was made chairman.

A Prohibition Ticket.

Mr. Wm. Daniel is dissatisfied with both the Democratic and Republican parties because neither platform endorses the prohibition movement, and it is announced that "the Maryland State Temperance Alliance" will favor a "Prohibition Home Protection Ticket." Mr. Daniel is now searching the State over to find sixteen "good men and true" to represent the movement in a national convention to be held at Pittsburg July 23.

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

It was certainly a happy thought that suggested THOMAS A. HENDRICKS for the vice-presidential nomination. Very few regarded him as among the possibilities for that place. After getting the news by telegram we tried the guessing ability of a number of our best politicians upon the subject. None of them guessed Hendricks. McDonald, Carlisle, Palmer, Hoadly, Payne, Thurman, and even Ben Butler were among the guesses, and two of the guessers did get so near as to say "Well, it can't be Hendricks?" But when informed that such was the fact, its propriety and wisdom was readily acknowledged.

Possibly there is not a purer statesman in the West — indeed in the nation at large — than Thomas A. Hendricks. His ability is acknowledged by all, his democracy unquestioned, and he has great personal popularity in his own pivotal State. Besides these qualities he represents in his person the millions of voters who, in 1876, were swindled out of their presidential choice, and, as such, in connection with his worthy associate, Cleveland, will receive the votes of some who would repair the great wrong then committed.

Singular Threshing Accident.

The Easton Ledger reports the following singular accident as having occurred last Monday morning in the wheat field of Mr. William G. Quimby, on Mr. H. G. Dudley's farm near Wye Mills.

Mr. Quimby was threshing wheat with a steam thresher belonging jointly to himself and Mr. George H. Tarbutton. A large rack-wagon, drawn by two valuable mules, belonging to Mr. Thomas Quimby, was unloading at the thresher. Another wagon of the same kind, loaded with wheat, and drawn by two mules belonging to Mr. George H. Tarbutton, was at the thresher also. The wind was high, and the smoke from the smoke stack was blowing against the loaded wagons. The wheat on Mr. Quimby's wagon took fire from a spark from the engine, and burned with great rapidity. The burning wagon was turned around, and in doing it the wheat in Mr. Tarbutton's wagon took fire. It was all done almost instantly. Mr. William Quimby tried to cut his brother's mules from the wagon, but being strong and powerful, and badly frightened, they were uncontrollable, and broke away before they were loosened from the wagon. They ran for the barnyard with the blazing wagon, and doubtless would have fired the farm buildings but that in rushing through a gate they struck a gate post, which stopped them. The mules fell down and the burning mass of wheat fell forward on them. One of the animals was burned to death on the spot, and the other was burned fatally. The wagon was entirely consumed.

Mr. Tarbutton's mules were more fortunate. Being more tractable they were cut out of harness unhurt. But the wheat and wagon were burned. The fire also caught to the straw stacks, which were destroyed. The thresher also was entirely destroyed.

Mr. Quimby paid $465 for his mules about a year ago. He considered his team, wagon and harness worth $600. The thresher was worth about $250.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

A most distressing and fatal accident occurred about 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon of last week on the farm of Col. Joshua Clayton of Middletown, Del., on Bohemia Manor, two and a half miles from Chesapeake City. The farm is rented by Mr. Wm. Cavender, who had got everything ready for thrashing wheat, and was well under way. The motive power, a small portable engine, was owned by Joseph Warwick, colored, and engineered by D. N. Griffith, colored. There was about 70 pounds steam on, and two cocks of water (they said), and one the pump valves not working well, they had stopped the engine and were repacking the valve—Warwick on one side and Griffith on the other—when the boiler exploded with terrific force, blowing out the crown sheet and a part of the lining of the boiler over the fire. The entire engine was thrown a distance of thirty feet, struck the ground and rebounded, then struck the hay rigging of a wagon load of sheaves of wheat, and fell forty feet further on, turning completely over in the transit. Mr. Cavender was loading a wagon, twenty feet directly back of the engine, and was very severely scalded all over his left side and face and right hand. He was blown a considerable distance, and bruised and cut in several places. The explosion set fire to the threshed straw, and the barn, stables and shedding with what grain was threshed, were quickly consumed. The loss is estimated at about $2,000. The buildings are said to be insured.

Morgan Money, 14 years old, on the wagon, was struck by the engine and thrown from the load; he fell down by the engine and had his leg below the knee broken, both bones, his right arm at the elbow lacerated, his body badly scalded, and his head badly hurt either from his fall or struck by part of the broken wagon, producing a collapsion of blood and serum between the skull and scalp, over the entire top of his head. He died Friday afternoon. Mr. Cavender will probably recover. Tom and Willie Baker, young men, who were loading grain with Mr. Cavender, are scalded and bruised considerably; Willie much worse than Tom, but neither dangerously. A jury of inquest was held on the body of Morgan Money on Saturday and a verdict rendered to the effect "that the explosion was owing to the lack of care on the part of said owner, in not having the said boiler put in proper repair, and in the engineer not having had a sufficient quantity of water in said boiler for safety at the time of the explosion." Under this verdict the State's Attorney ordered the arrest of both Warwick and Griffith, and they were held in $1,000 each for court. Both gave bail.

A GENTLEMAN who visited Mr. Blaine recently, reported him as saying that he did not regard the nomination of Cleveland as a strong one. Mr. Cleveland was but little known. There were several men who would have been more available. He seemed perfectly satisfied with the nomination, and did not indicate by word or look that it troubled him.

PROF. GAMBRILL'S CONCERT.— The entertainment given by Prof. T. D. Gambrill at the Town Hall last Tuesday evening was one of the most enjoyable occasions ever presented to our citizens. The program, as arranged by the professor, proved his wisdom, and the execution of the various parts reflected credit upon all the parties engaged. The "Emerson Quartette Club" is one of the best amateur musical organizations we have ever heard; their performances alone were well worth the price of admission; the club is composed as follows: W. J. Rever, tenor; Frank Anderson, soprano; Chas. H. Webb, alto; Harry Sloan, bass. Three of the quartette were trained under Prof. Gambrill. Mr. A. W. Hawks, the elocutionist, completely captivated the audience, and kept everybody in a roar of laughter with his inimitable renditions. Mr. H. has remarkable talent in the special line of his stage efforts and would draw a full house anywhere his abilities were known. He is second only to Conly, and that is saying much. Mr. Harry Waltjen's tenor solos were also highly appreciated, as also Prof. P. C. Orem's piano performances. A good audience was present, but in consequence of the heavy expense Prof. Gambrill will realize no pecuniary profit from the entertainment. A repetition of the concert would no doubt tax the capacity of the hall, as everybody would want to go.

THE NEW JAIL.— The proposals for building the new jail were opened by the county commissioners on Tuesday and the contract awarded. The bids were as follows: H. M. Stuart, Chestertown, $13,500; B. H. Gardner & Co., Chestertown, $13,750; C. Awalt & Son, Westminster, $14,600; W. S. Smith & Bro., of Baltimore, $13,000, and R. K. Pippin, Chestertown, $15,620.20. W. S. Smith & Bro., of Baltimore, submitted the lowest bid, but it was accompanied with unsatisfactory qualifications and exceptions, and the contract was awarded the next lowest bidder, Mr. H. M. Stuart, at $13,500, who contracts to finish the jail according to the architect's designs within six months.

HO, FOR CAPE MAY!— The Odd Fellows of Chestertown announce their grand excursion to Cape May next Wednesday. It is not necessary for us to say anything about the advantages of this trip. Cape May excursions are too well known here to need any additional recommendation from us. The Odd Fellows promise to leave no effort untried to make this the very best excursion of the kind ever given. Read their advertisement in another column.

THEIR FIRST DEFEAT.—Our Chestertown base ball nine met with a humiliating defeat last Thursday. After a continuous round of victories they went to Sudlersville to "clean up" the nine of that village but were cleaned up themselves instead. The score stood Sudlersville 38, Chestertown 26. Our informant reports the playing "fearful" on both sides.

A SPLENDID MELON.—We are indebted to Mr. D. B. Stewart, of the commission house of D. B. Stewart & Co., 68 S. Calvert street, Baltimore, for a fifty pound watermelon. It was perfect in every particular—full ripe, solid meat, sweet as could be desired, ice cold, and enough for several good sized families to feast upon. Mr. S. is certainly a good judge of melons if this was one of his selection.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.—The following are included in Presiding Elder Caldwell's appointments for the second quarter: Millington, July 18, 20; Sudlersville, 19, 20; Crumpton, 20, 21; Church Hill, 26, 27; Chestertown, 25, 27; Queenstown, August 1, 3; Kent Island 2, 3; Centreville, 3, 5; Ingleside, 9, 10; Pomona, 16, 17; Rock Hall, 17, 18.

A TREAT.—MRS. Cummings, our Main street confectioner, sent us last Wednesday a freezer of ice-cream and a variety of cake, to which all hands did full justice, and for which our acknowledgments are tendered. Mrs. C. makes all kinds of cream and water-ices, and sells by the gallon or plate.

BAKERY.—Mr. Wm. H. Blakeney, successor to W. Hudgins, has his Bakery, on Cross street, in full operation, and is serving his customers with fresh bread, cake, &c., every day. We have tried his bread and can recommend it as very superior. Give him a trial. He is in every way worthy of confidence and patronage.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.— Thomas B. Gardner, Esq., was, on motion of C. H. Baker, Esq., admitted to the Kent bar on Wednesday. Mr. Gardner was admitted to the Baltimore bar on the 2d of June last, after an examination before the Supreme Bench of that city.

A FIELD OF CORN on the Krebs farm in Still Pond was badly cut by hail on Friday of last week. The blades were left threadless and the stalk somewhat damaged. Strange to say no effect of the hail was discovered outside of that particular field.

Answers to Correspondents.

We herewith open a column for replies to advertising agents—to save postage.

E. Alden & Co.—Your proposition to insert 6-inch advertisement one year next to reading matter, and take a roller box in payment is declined. Send us $25 cash and the advertisement will be inserted to take run of paper.

Geo. Stinson & Co.— We don't want any more pictures. Our office is already decorated. We would take a good likeness of Cleveland and Hendricks. But you pay us cash for our work and we will pay you cash for your pictures—such as we want.

Messrs. Aschenbach & Miller — Your proposition to advertise to the amount of $50 and take pay in "Iron Horse Powders," "Cayenne Plaster," "Torrefrid Wheat Food" and "Bay Rum Shampoo Powder," is declined. We are not dealing in that kind of merchandise. Send us cash and when we need powders or plasters we'll remember you.

N. W. Ayer & Son—Our liberal Philadelphia friends. Your proposition of July 14 is sorrowfully declined. Your offer of $3.50 "less usual commission of 25 per cent." for a 1-inch card one year, must have been intended for some city paper. It is too much for us poor country devils who never get a $5 adv. Please correct your mistake and offer us a fair price.

D. J. Cox & Co., New York — Your proposition to publish certain matter one year for $9.75 and take pay in "Tonic Beer" is declined. Will do the work proposed for $160.35 cash. Nothing less, and upon no other terms. We have to send to Baltimore for our liquor, and pay cash at that.

Anderson & Co., Providence, R. I.—We most positively decline to insert your 1 column cut "under our editorial head" for "$12.50 payable quarterly." Will give it place in the neighborhood of Hostetter's Bitters or Blatchley's Pump for $35 cash in advance.

THE WATCH recently presented to Lieutenant E. L. Usilton by his friends in Philadelphia is a most beautiful piece of workmanship and cost nearly $300.

SEE advertisement of Reid's National Hotel. This hotel is centrally located and conducted in first-class manner at low rates. Give it a trial.

LIME.— H. E. Cooper, at Worton Station, is the agent for the celebrated Rambo lime, and is selling at lowest prices.

A LAWN PARTY is advertised to be held on Mr. J. P. Dixon's green, near Chestertown, on Tuesday evening, August 5.

THE M. E. Sabbath School of Chestertown advertise an excursion to Cape May, Wednesday, August the 6th.

GOVERNOR HUBBARD, of Texas, who was given national prominence at Chicago this week, thought of at Mecca, Georgia, where he went to school when a lad. He used to say: "Boys, I'm going to Texas to be governor," whereat his college chums would laugh. At Chicago he looked like a Southerner of the old Howell Cobb and Herschell Johnson school, having a small head and a huge paunch, and seeming to be loaded with a bag under his waistcoat, like the lean actors who portray Falstaff.

TO CURE DISEASES and relieve suffering is the work of the physician, but it is indispensable that he should have pure medicines skillfully prepared. To secure these take your prescriptions to Todd's New Drug Store at Millington, Md. 2t.

LARGE YIELDS OF WHEAT.

Mr. Bonwill's Big Crop.

STILL POND, July 17th, 1884.

Messrs. Plummer & Usilton: Gents:—By request I give you my yield of wheat. We measured from the machine 1209 bushels from 25 acres clover fallow; 911 bushels from 25 acres stubble fallow and corn ground.

Yours, resp'y, E. M. BONWILL.

This yield of fallow, being about 48½ bushels per acre, is probably the largest ever raised in Kent county. Mr. John F. Beeks, in the same neighborhood, we understand, had also a very fine yield, his crop averaging 37 bushels to the acre. Ex-Senator Hepbron raised 136 bushels of Egyptian wheat from five bushels seeded—a fraction over 27 bushels from one. Mr. John Hurlock, near Kennedyville, got 40 bushels per acre from his fallow. Capt. Andrew Woodall, on his Dyre farm, near Galena, raised 29 bushels per acre. Mr. Garrett Foxwell, on Mr. T. W. Eliason's Welch farm, got 42 bushels per acre on nine acres of lawn, 36 to 38 bushels on 100 acres of fallow, and 28 bushels per acre on 91 acres of corn ground.

In Queen Anne's county the following are the largest yields yet reported:

John Dodd raised 4,538 bushels of wheat on 112 acres from 127 bushels seeding, averaging 40½ bushels per acre on fallow and corn ground —fallow averaging 42½. Jas. H. Dodd got 1,250 bushels from 30 acres, being 41⅔ bushels per acre. E. B. Vandyke got an average of 40 bushels per acre from his fallow. J. Hersey Hall, of Centreville, got 39 bushels to the acre.

The following is the largest crop reported from Talbot:

Mr. Robert Hough, of "Knightly," sowed 45 bushels of Fultz wheat on his fallow field of 40 acres, and reaped 1,400 bushels, or over 31 bushels for each bushel of seed, or 35 bushels per acre.—Easton Star.

LITTERING THE STREETS.—A Hint to Storekeepers.—A few of the storekeepers of Chestertown have fallen into a very bad practice—that of allowing the sweepings of their stores to litter the public streets. These sweepings are not so objectionable when composed only of dirt, but the bulk of it in many cases consist of old paper and scraps of every conceivable kind, and render the appearance of the streets very ugly. Especially and if those who are guilty of the practice would "take in the situation"—survey their "ornamentation" about the time Sabbath worshipers are passing along, and hear the compliments indulged in we imagine a little more care would be exercised in, the matter. Doubtless it is simply a want of thought in most cases and this hint will be sufficient to remedy it. Where "hints" will not answer the purpose a more effectual remedy should be taken.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17, 1884.

Messrs. Editors: — For the information of shippers of fruit to Philadelphia markets we write you that an old law has been revived, which requires all boxes, baskets, buckets, cups or packages, of whatever description, shall be plainly marked as to what part of a bushel it contains, such as qts., pts., ½, ⅓, ¼, and all shippers disregarding this law are liable to have their fruit seized and sold to account of the city — already some have been seized and sold. Yours, respectfully, R. P. STEWART & CO.
