SATURDAY MORNING.......AUGUST 2, 1884.

IMMORTAL DEMOCRACY.

The life of the Democracy does not depend upon any success of the hour. Elections may be lost or elections may be won; wisdom or folly may prevail for the time being; delusions may overcome the minds of men and passion and interest may lead them astray; but after all political sins have been committed, and all blunders endured and punished, the truth of Democracy still shines untarnished, and the hopes of mankind cluster around the possibility of its realization. Those who imagine that the life of the Democratic party depends upon its fortunes at any particular time, those who fancy that the failure to carry an election may disrupt, disorganize, or destroy it, are mistaken and deceived.

What is Democracy? What makes the Democratic party? Democracy is the government of the people by the people and for the people. It is that theory and form of political institutions which establishes the self-government of communities and States, and diminishes to the greatest possible extent the domination, the control, and the interference of the central organized authority.

There are two tendencies in human nature. One is to the increase of power in government, the other to its dimunition. The Democracy is the representative and embodiment of the latter tendency.

Those, then, who would stake the existence of Democracy and the Democratic party upon local and temporary issues, such as taxes on wool or the excise on whiskey, fail to appreciate its grand and universal nature. Democracy remains after all these momentary controversies have been fought out and forgotten.

So long as there is a republic there must be a Democratic party. The party of centralization, bent always on enlarging the sphere and aggrandizing the importance of the central power, stands out on one side, and the party of the masses, of liberty and equality, stands out on the other. The fact that the Republicans triumph in one election after another only renders the continuance of the Democracy more necessary—more indispensable. In every free commonwealth there is as great a need for an Opposition as for a Government; and though the Republicans should continue to hold the keys of power and place for another quarter of a century, the Democrats will continue to oppose their principles and resist their development. They may continue for a long time, and on many fields, to fight none but losing battles, and the tired and exhausted veterans may sadly drop out of the ranks and disappear. But new recruits, young, ardent, disinterested, believing in liberty and devoted to the republic, will rise up to take their places.

No calamity can extinguish Democracy; no error of those who are temporarily intrusted with its leadership can break it down; it is immortal.—N. Y. Sun.

A Remarkable Hen.

There is, on the farm of Rev. Robert Gamble, Mt. Joy, Lancaster county, a remarkable hen. Last year, when a mere pullet and before she had laid an egg, she adopted two motherless chicks. She watched over them with parental care until they could take care of themselves. But there is something still more remarkable to tell about this hen. Every day for the past month she has visited the kitchen and laid an egg in the cradle in the presence of all present. Even the rocking of the cradle does not disturb her equanimity. And if at any time the door should happen to be closed she will scratch and cackle until she gets in. After making her daily deposits in the cradle she steps down and out, cackling with the liveliest satisfaction, and does not trouble herself about the absence of the nest egg.—Record.

So you struck the man because he called you a liar? said the police judge. "Yes, sir." "From which I am to infer that you were not a liar?" "Oh! no; I was a liar, and am yet. If I had not been a liar I should have paid no attention to the fellow's remarks. Truth is so scarce, judge, that when I hear it I can't keep down my enthusiasm."

It is selfish to dwell on our griefs, as though some strange thing had happened to us, as though they were too important to be relieved, or it were a virtue to sink under them. That bereavement seems rather sanctified which saddens the heart not over much, and softens without withering it.

People may make injuries worse by unreasonable conduct, by giving way to anger and satisfying that for the moment, instead of thinking what will be the effect in the future.

John Andrews, a colored preacher, sentenced to prison nine years ago for life for murdering his wife, escaped from the Georgetown, (Del.) jail Sunday night.

Let a man be never so ungrateful, or inhuman he shall never destroy the satisfaction of having done a good office.

Every heart has its secret sorrow which the world knows not, and oftentimes we call a man cold when he is only sad.

Gen. Diaz has been elected President of Mexico, and will take his seat on the 30th of next December.

D. M. Wilson, of Kent county, Del., claims to have cut 135 tons of hay from 45 acres.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW

—IS THE—

Best Plow in the World

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

THE CROP PRODUCER

FOR WHEAT AND GRASS.

Farmers, if you wish to obtain large yields of the above crops and get the worth of your money, use the best Fertilizer in the market—

"WHITELOCK'S VEGETATOR."
Price, $36.00 per Ton of 2,000 pounds. New Bags, 167 Pounds Each.

If you desire a lower-price manure, which is the cheapest and best for the money, purchase our

"SUNNYSIDE" PURE BONE AND DISSOLVED PHOSPHATE
Price $30.00 per Ton of 2,000 Pounds. New Bags, 167 Pounds Each.

To those desiring a Dissolved Bone Phosphate, without Ammonia, the action of which is superior to most articles sold as Acid Phosphate or South Carolina Bone, we offer our

"SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE & POTASH FERTILIZER."
Price $20.00 per Ton of 2,000 Pounds. New Bags, 167 Pounds Each.

The above brands are sold and delivered, 12 bags to the ton, and in fine and dry condition for drilling. EXTRA MOISTURE IN A FERTILIZER ADDS TO THE COST.

You should count the cost of the Fertilizer by the cost per acre. As the soil requires more of a lower grade Fertilizer to the acre than one of a higher grade, the consequence is that the extra quantity required, the extra labor in applying it, and the poor results obtained, make the lower grade of goods more costly.

With perfect confidence we refer buyers to all who have applied our Fertilizers.
