SATURDAY MORNING......AUGUST 23, 1884.

OUR FAIRLEE LETTER.

The Season—Quite a Heavy Loss—A Good Sermon—A Positive Nuisance—More Room—Work on the Church—Hint for Re-opening—Personals.

This season will be memorable for the extreme and sudden changes of temperature. For several days in succession the thermometer has indicated 100° in the sun at 12 M. and at 6 A. M. only 68°.

A fine young horse belonging to Wm. Remage, who lives with his father on the farm of Mr. Richard Diehl, near Fairlee, fell dead at the plow recently; doubtless from being overheated.

Rev. N. M. Browne officiated in the Grange Hall on the 10th in the afternoon, delivering an instructive and logical discourse on the passage in Exodus 33, verse 14.

The dog nuisance is becoming intolerable in this vicinity. In one case especially "it were a consummation devoutly to be wished," that the yelping brute might be seized with an incurable diptheria. Josh Billings says that "some folks are poor enough to keep two." I knew an instance where the poor man tried to keep ten. Of course the cur I allude to belongs to one of this class. His howling and barking might make a healthy man sick; how annoying then must it be to the sick and convalescent! Sheep are of no account in comparison with such pets, nor is it of much consequence if one of them should burglarize a neighbor's cellar, break into his safe and appropriate the leg of mutton stored therein for his Sunday dinner. So it happened here-about some time since. When will the Solons of the State give the people an efficient dog-law?

Mr. W. J. Payne is enlarging the capacity of his store-room to meet the requirements of his trade. Wing and Kline are the workmen.

The painters, Howard and Willis, are at work on Salem M. E. Church. The house will be ready for reoccupancy probably by or before the middle of September and will be rededicated, I am told, without the usual collection. If this prove true everybody should attend and honor this "new departure" by a rousing voluntary contribution to the Ladies' Aid Society.

Mrs. Maggie Schwearer and children, formerly of Fairlee, now of Baltimore, are visiting Capt. Isaac Rogers and other relatives and friends in Kent. Miss Caroline J. Smyth, teacher of school No. 10, is on a visit to Miss Anna Bell, near Cumberland, Allegany county. Her sister, Miss Minnie Smyth, is spending some time with Mrs. Jacquett, nee Mary Dwyer, in New York. Miss Ala Bordley, of Savannah, Ga., is visiting relatives and friends in Kent; glad to greet Miss A. again. Geo. Edw. Noland is again at his place in the grange store, having left the Beach.

The quarterly conference, Pomona circuit, has voted their pastor, Bro. Macnichol, a vacation of three weeks. Bro. James Kendall being pastor pro tem.

ITEMS FROM WORTON.

County Fair—Churches—Afflictions—Improvements, Changes, &c.

Messrs. Editors:—Great interest is manifested and preparations made for the agricultural fair. The track is being put in thorough repair and the old buildings repaired and new ones erected. Undoubtedly the association will meet with greater success than heretofore.

The Presbyterian Church is approaching completion, and Worton will soon have as big a belfry as any village. The Union Church is undergoing thorough repair and will soon look as bright as a new pin.

Mr. Ike Parsons fell from the church building and sustained severe injuries, but is convalescing. Mr. Thos. J. Parsons has been confined to his house with ulcers.

Lewis Newsom intends to sell his property here and resume farming January 1. Mr. Geo. M. Porter has under way another dwelling. Mr. Porter is famous here as a builder and has done more towards the building up of this place than any other one man in it.

Miss Georgie Porter, graduate at the recent commencement of the State Normal School, has accepted the position as teacher in the public school at Hibernia. No change to be made in our school, as the people are content to let well enough alone.

PETER POKER.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Views of Leading Men at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

It is scarcely yet time for either party now in the political field to make accurate forecasts of what the result of the presidential election will be in November, but a survey of the democratic prospects, as presented by a number of leading men from those States on which public interest may be said to centre more than any other, may serve, like weather vanes, as pointers to show which way the political wind blows. The opinions we propose to give have the more value and are entitled to the more credit, so far as the outlook at present is concerned, because they emanate from calm thoughtful men, who are not themselves engaged in active politics, but who are at the same time in a position to judge of the drift of public sentiment from an extensive correspondence and quiet personal observation. Some of them have been or still are judges of courts in several of the States; others are ex-Governors or retired Senators or Congressmen, once well known, but no longer seeking distinction in the political arena, and others again are lawyers of prominence, or merchants of standing in the communities in which they live. The opinions which they express, and which we here in substance reproduce, have not been gathered from hearsay, but were elicited during a number of conversations with the gentlemen in question in the leisure hours of a leading watering place the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs. The States thus heard from were New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, Florida and North and South Carolina. The chief point in question was with respect to the vote of New York, where the political elements are so mixed and muddled as to produce, in the minds of outsiders, the appearance of inextricable confusion. But a judge who occupied a seat on the bench of that State for many years, whose name is honored by all who know him, and to whom its politics are familiar, declares emphatically that New York will be carried by a heavy majority for Cleveland. He asserts that the attempt of the republicans to capture the Irish vote for Blaine, and of Butler to draw to himself the votes of the workingmen, greenbackers and anti-monopolists, will meet, at the best, but with moderate success, and will be far more than offset by the defection of the independent republicans, which his information, derived from various parts of the interior of the State, goes to show will be surprisingly large, while another considerable slice will be taken from the republican vote by the prohibitionists enlisted under the banner of ex-Gov. St. John. The factious position taken by Tammany he regards as of little account, for he does not believe that Mr. Kelly could control the Tammany vote if he persisted in going in opposition, nor does he believe that Mr. Kelly has himself any purpose on this occasion to go counter to the expressed will of the democracy of the State. Accounts received from Connecticut and New Jersey point also to assured democratic majorities in those States. Representatives from two other States—Florida and North Carolina—which are said to be doubtful, declare that they are not doubtful at all, but that both will go democratic by fair and incontestable majorities. As for South Carolina there is no thought of its being captured by the republicans.—Cor. Balto. Sun.

The above brands are sold and delivered, 12 bags to the ton, and in fine and dry condition for drilling. EXTRA MOISTURE IN A FERTILIZER ADDS TO THE COST. You should count the cost of the Fertilizer by the cost per acre. As the soil requires more of a lower grade Fertilizer to the acre than one of a higher grade, the consequence is that the extra quantity required, the extra labor in applying it, and the poor results obtained, make the lower grade of goods more costly.

With perfect confidence we refer buyers to all who have applied our Fertilizers.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 28, 1882.

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,

HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.
