Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING.........Aug. 30, 1884.

For President:
GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York.

For Vice-President:
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.

For Congress:
CHARLES H. GIBSON, of Talbot county.

The assets of Ferdinand Ward, of the late firm of Grant & Ward, New York brokers, are reported at $3,400, with liabilities amounting to several millions. The assets of General Grant have not yet been made public.

The Maryland Sunday School Union has sent its annual appeal to the various Sunday schools of this State for contributions. It is hoped there will be a general and liberal response. This institution has done a great work in the State in reaching the destitute sections, and in rescuing thousands of children from depraving influences.

Mr. Francis B. Thurber, of New York, the well-known anti-monopolist, states that he has information to the effect that Mr. St. John, the prohibition candidate for President, is a candidate against his own wishes, and is willing to retire in favor of Gen. Butler. There is no doubt the latter would gladly accept the prohibition nomination, and any other nomination, that may be lying around loose.

Mr. John Kelly is still astride the political fence, not knowing which way to drop. At a meeting of the committee of arrangements for the Butler reception in New York, a letter was read from Mr. Kelly, in which he stated that as he was a member of Tammany Hall, and as that society would not meet until the 9th of September to take action on their position in the campaign, he did not feel at liberty to take part in any demonstration.

Commander Schley has been appointed to the office of chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting—a position which carries with it the rank of commodore—and is a proper recognition of the energy and ability with which the last Arctic relief expedition was directed to a successful conclusion of its labors. Maryland, which gave him birth, and the naval service, which had been measurably discredited by recent failures, cannot but add their commendation to the honors so fairly won by the new commodore.

Captain Waddell, commanding the oyster navy, has returned to Annapolis from a week's tour of inspection of the police boats on the oyster districts, and states that as far as he could discover there have been no violations of the law during the closed season. Wherever he went he found the people unanimous in praise of the present oyster law, desirous of strictly enforcing its provisions and anxious to have the next Legislature pass a still more stringent law. Captain Waddell will next week examine the condition of the oyster beds.

The United States steamer Tallapoosa was sunk in the sound near Martha's Vineyard on Thursday night of last week by a schooner loaded with coal. The Tallapoosa was a two-gun vessel of the United States navy upon which a good deal of money was not long since spent in repairs. The circumstances of the collision, so far as gathered, seem to show that it was a fair test of the relative strength of the two vessels. They were both going with some speed and struck each other at like points, "their stems seemingly coming together exactly." But the vessel of peace got the best of it, and the vessel of war sank within a few minutes, with the loss of two men.

Ex-Gov. John P. St. John, of Kansas, and Mr. William Daniel, of Maryland, the prohibition candidates for President and Vice-President, were formally notified of their nomination at Cuba, N. Y., Monday. Both candidates responded to the address of notification, which was delivered by Prof. Samuel Dickey, of Michigan, chairman of the committee, and signified their acceptance of the respective nominations. In his remarks Mr. Daniel called attention to the fact that he was "the first person selected since the war from a Southern State as a candidate for a national position," and expressed the hope that "this action may be the harbinger" of the reign of harmony, good-will and union throughout the land.

PROSPECTS OF THE CANVASS.

From the N. Y. Herald of Wednesday.

We have made careful inquiries of well informed persons in several of the most important States, East and West, as to the facts of the canvass so far as developed, and the prospects in each of the States where this inquiry was made. The replies we have received surprise us as much as they gratify us.

From Ohio we hear that the democrats are fairly certain of success. While they are united and meeting everywhere with promising results, the Blaine managers feel the effects of a cold wind of popular disfavor. The democrats do not boast that they will carry the State in October; but they believe they have an excellent promise of victory, and that if the republicans carry Ohio it will be by so narrow a vote as to make it substantially a defeat for them.

Concerning Indiana, we have the most positive assurance that the State will certainly go for Cleveland by at least ten thousand. In both Ohio and Indiana the number of republicans who will vote against Blaine is found to be astonishingly large, and sufficient in itself to turn the scale in those States.

From Michigan we get confident reports that that State will be lost to the Blaine ticket.

Iowa, our private correspondence shows, is at least an uncertain State, with the probability that it will cast its electoral vote for Cleveland.

In Wisconsin the opposition to the Blaine ticket believe they will carry the State and defeat Blaine and Logan, and there are Blaine men who privately admit this to be very probable.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very dangerous to the Blaine men. There are sanguine but well informed men in Massachusetts who assert even that with faithful hard work that State can be carried for Governor Cleveland, and they add that the effort will be made. From New Hampshire democrats write that they can carry the State, unless the Portsmouth Navy Yard swamps them. Connecticut is regarded as a doubtful State, with the chances in favor of the democrats now and a strong set of the tide toward them.

In answer to numerous inquiries from other parts of the country we will add that New York and New Jersey appear to be safe for Cleveland. The canvass in both States goes on energetically, and the reports at headquarters leave so little doubt of a favorable result that these two States need not give uneasiness to democrats elsewhere or distract their attention from their own localities. New York is well in hand, and those who are managing here for the democratic party are confident that they will show a good result in November.

A survey of the field at this moment gives promise of a "tidal wave" in November against the Blaine ticket. From all quarters reports come to us of very large and increasing republican opposition to the Blaine ticket and much smaller defection from the democratic ranks than was at one time feared. There is, according to our reports, a spirit and determination this fall among the voters everywhere which promise very important results—a determination to "make a change" and to see whether the people still control or whether the "machine" politicians really have the country by the throat. A correspondent from Illinois writes us:—"If people in the East could see what a revolution is going on in this State and in Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa, the friends of Cleveland everywhere would be greatly encouraged."

Irishmen and Blaine.

Blaine workers who have been counting on the Parnell name to gain Irish votes for the Plumed Knight will be very unhappy as they read our report of a talk with Mrs. Parnell, for that lady undoubtedly expresses the opinion of all intelligent Irishmen when she says, "The Irish people have reason to fear Blaine."

Major Haggerty, whose name and record are well-known by Irishmen throughout the land, also talks in a manner that will not cause any member of his race to vote for Blaine. He is surprised at the republican candidate's impertinence in coming forward as a friend of our foreign born fellow-citizens, and says: "I do not understand how any thoughtful Irishman can have a tender thought toward Blaine."—N. Y. Herald.

The members of the State central committee of the second congressional district are called to meet at Barnum's Hotel on Monday next to take the necessary steps to call a new convention.

The war between France and China has commenced in earnest. The reports of the destruction of the whole of the Chinese fleet are confirmed. The French lost five men, including an American pilot. The secretary of the Chinese Embassy to France still remains in Paris.

Russum for Congress.

The Republican congressional convention for the first Maryland district met at Cambridge on Thursday and on the second ballot nominated Geo. M. Russum, Esq., of Caroline county. This gentleman no doubt expects to make it lively for Mr. Gibson, but we predict that he will get left by a large majority.

A Western Shore Compliment.—The Anne Arundel Advertiser, of which Mr. Wm. T. Iglehart is editor, refers to the democratic nomination in the first Maryland district as being received with great satisfaction. Continuing the Advertiser says: "Mr. Gibson belongs to what is called the 'young democracy,' — in at every breach and the last to retreat. His career has been both successful and honorable; he has won his spurs in repeated contests at the bar, is a tried officer and one of merit, and has the qualities to make him equally useful to his constituents in the House of Representatives. We wish him fair sailing and propitious weather."

The Maryland Prohibition Electors.—The executive committee of the Maryland State Temperance Alliance held a meeting in Baltimore last week at which a resolution was adopted naming the prohibition electoral ticket as follows: Electors at large — Robert D. Morrison and Edwin Higgins, both members of the Baltimore bar. District electors — First congressional district, Lawrence Hastings, merchant, of Worcester co.; second district, Henry Taylor, Baltimore county, senior member of the Baltimore News Company; third district, Wm. Silverwood, coal merchant; fourth district, James Pollard, member of the Baltimore bar; fifth district, to be filled hereafter; sixth district, Oliver H. Bruce, teacher and editor, Allegany county. These gentlemen, with a couple of exceptions, have been classed as democrats. The State conference is to be held in Baltimore on September 10, and the mass ratification meeting on that occasion will be addressed by leading temperance men. The executive committee voted to refer to this conference the question of the nomination of prohibition candidates for Congress.

Queen Anne's Items.

The Chester River Steamboat Company has leased Booker's wharf on the Queen Anne's side of Chester river for five years with a privilege of ten years. They have just completed a splendid pier there, 85 by 110 feet in dimensions, with commodious freight and passenger houses.

The trial of Dr. Benton, charged with assault upon Dr. Weedon, both of Kent Island, with a loaded pistol, took place before Esquire Goldsborough on Friday of last week. The charges not being sufficiently sustained, in the judgment of the magistrate, a verdict of not guilty was rendered.

Harry B. Smith, formerly of Chestertown, was arrested in Centreville on Saturday last on the charge of stealing an angle trowel from J. W. Yates, and given a hearing before Esquire Goldsborough, who held him to bail for court.

Daniel Foster, a young man residing near Queenstown, was given a hearing last Saturday before Justice Goldsborough, charged for assaulting with intent to rape Miss Maggie Evans, a 15-year-old daughter of Captain B. S. Evans, of Winchester. Justice Goldsborough deemed the evidence sufficient to hold him for court in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The Record says there seems to be an organized band of horse thieves operating in Queen Anne's county. August 15 Ed. B. Emory, Esq., lost two valuable 2-year-old fillies, held by him at $1,000 each. Some months ago W. T. P. Turpin, Esq., lost a valuable mare, and last week Mr. Wm. F. Phillips lost a top buggy from the stable of W. T. Coursey—all evidently have been stolen by a set of shrewd, organized fellows. Our farmers and others should be on the watch.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Synopsis of the minutes of a meeting of the W. C. T. U. held in Chestertown, August 5, 1884.

Opening religious exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Strayer. In the absence of the president, Mr. E. P. Janvier led the meeting. Attendance was better than at any former meeting. Mr. Janvier moved that a record be made of the kindness of the editors of the Kent News and Transcript, in making no charges for articles contributed by the W. C. T. U.; motion adopted. It was moved and adopted that a temperance meeting be held at Still Pond on October 7, at 7 o'clock p. m., provided a lady speaker can be obtained to address the meeting. The secretary was instructed to correspond with Mrs. Dr. J. C. Thomas, of Baltimore, to that effect, and report at the next meeting.

The executive committee was instructed to consider the plans of work laid down in the "Annual Leaflet" for 1884, and have selected, after due consideration, the following lines of work as practicable for the local union of Kent county: 1st. To aim to introduce such text text books in chemistry, physiology and hygiene as shall inculcate the scientific importance of total abstinence into the curriculum of our schools and college. 2d. To aim to teach the same habits and principles of the foregoing in our Sabbath schools, but strictly from a Bible point of view, on a quarterly Sunday dedicated to this purpose. 3d. To use our efforts to overthrow the use of tobacco, considering its use injurious and intimately related to the drink habit. 4th. To aim to keep our county papers thoroughly informed concerning the movements of the W. C. T. U. of this county. 5th. To carry Gospel temperance to the inmates of our jail and almshouse. 6th. To take up the flower mission, grafting our Gospel work upon this beautiful philanthropy; also; to secure the use of the unfermented juice of the grape at the Lord's table, if possible.

Committees will be appointed to these different lines of work at our next meeting, on the first Tuesday in September, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The Centennial Celebration at Barrett's Chapel.—The following is a copy of the circular which has been sent to the pastors of the M. E. Churches to be read in their pulpits:

"The undersigned committee, appointed by the Wilmington Conference, have been making arrangements for the celebration, to take place at Barrett's Chapel, on the 10th and 11th days of next September. Dr. Henry A. Buttz, president of Drew Seminary; Dr. S. F. Upman, also of Drew; Dr. A. P. Hunt, agent of the American Bible Society; Dr. J. H. Caldwell, Rev. J. S. Willis, and others of our own conference, have been engaged to deliver addresses. Professor Sweeney, well known for his musical talent, will have charge of that department, and will avail himself of local help to secure the best result. Sub committees have been appointed to erect seats, stands, etc., for the outdoor services, which continue, according to the plan, two days. Refreshments and whatever may be strictly necessary to entertain the people, will be provided. It is expected that lodging for the night can be obtained in Frederica and in the vicinity of the Chapel. Bishops Coke and Asbury met at Barrett's Chapel a century ago, and we ought to find a great pleasure in celebrating their meeting, as it was fraught with such great significance to the Methodist Episcopal Church. We invite everybody to come. T. E. Martindale. Thos. Mallalieu, J. S. Willis and others, committee."

Meeting of the Peninsular Press Association.—The sixth annual meeting of the Peninsular Press Association was held at the Hotel Henlopen, Rehoboth Beach, on Monday, the 18th instant. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: C. G. Woodall, Chestertown Transcript, President; J. B. Clark, Sussex Journal, and W. O. Gilmer, Elkton Democrat, Vice-Presidents; W. Scott Way, Middletown, Del., Transcript, Secretary and Treasurer; Henry C. Conrad, of Delaware, A. A. Christian, of Greensboro', Md., and H. G. Knowles, of Lewes, Del., Executive Committee. The editors and their friends accompanying them went from Rehoboth to New York by sea in one of the Old Dominion steamers, and from thence up the Hudson river as far as West Point. Their meeting and excursion were of the most enjoyable character.

A shooting affray occurred at Linkwood, Dorchester county, on Saturday, in which Geo. Parker, colored, was shot in the left breast by John Henry, a merchant, at Linwood. The bullet struck a rib and rebounded, inflicting only a slight wound. The difficulty originated about payment for a pint of whiskey which Parker bought at Henry's store. Henry fired twice, one bullet passing through Parker's hat and the other taking effect, as stated, in the breast. The parties were both held to bail for their appearance at court.

Richard Tweed, son of the late William M. Tweed, of New York, has died in a madhouse in Paris.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Sad Death of Captain Charles H. Bacon.

Capt. Charles H. Bacon, whose farm is four miles from Chestertown on the road to Hanesville, brought a two-horse wagon load of peaches to this town last Tuesday and was taking back a load of empty boxes. At the hill beyond the straw-board mill he took the precaution to get out of his wagon and lock the wheels, having a young and somewhat unruly horse in the team. At the foot of the hill he alighted and unlocked the wheels, and in attempting to get on the wagon in front the horses started to run and he fell, both wheels passing over his body, mangling it somewhat and dislocating the left leg at the hip joint. The horses continued to run until they reached Mr. R. G. Nicholson's, about a mile distant, where they stopped in the road.

Mr. Purnell Jones, tenant of Dr. Beck, overtook Capt. Bacon at the foot of the hill and was an eye-witness of the sad occurrence. He says the captain held on to the reins and was dragged five or six yards before the wheels passed over him, and thinks if he had let them go he might have escaped unhurt. He lived about half an hour after the accident and died on the road-side where it occurred. He spoke only a few words, requesting not to be moved, as he was very sore. Drs. Beck and Hines reached the place shortly before he breathed his last. The former, who was his family physician when he lived in the neighborhood, thinks that death may have resulted from heart disease, to which deceased was subject.

Capt. Bacon was a highly respectable and industrious citizen and a good neighbor. He was sixty-six years old, and leaves a widow and four children, all grown. His remains were interred in Chester Cemetery on Thursday afternoon.

OYSTERS.

Next Monday Opens the Season—License to Carriers to be Issued.

It having been stated in the Baltimore daily newspapers that the Comptroller had construed the oyster law passed by the last Legislature that no license would be issued to persons engaged in carrying, buying and selling oysters till the first day of November, the State's Attorney, at the request of some tongers, wrote to the Comptroller for his construction of the 3d section of the act of 1884 bearing on the question of the time when the carriers' license would be issued. In his letter he stated that if as reported no license to carriers would be issued till November 1st, then the tongers would derive no benefit in having their license issued them September 1st, for without buyers and carriers they would have no market for the oysters caught between September 1st and November 1st. The following is the Comptroller's reply:

Annapolis, August 27, 1884.

Marion deK. Smith, Esq.: My Dear Sir: In response to your communication of the 23d inst., I will state that we are issuing licenses to buy and carry oysters now to take effect on the first day of September, prox. This seems to me to be the only reasonable construction that can be placed on the section referred to. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. Frank Turner, Comptroller.

Hence it will be seen that the buyers and carriers' license can be taken out on and after Monday next. We also learn that the oyster packers in Baltimore expect to commence operations immediately.

The Storage of Fertilizers.

The town ordinances prohibit the storage of fertilizers or other offensive matter within the town limits, and dealers have been required to locate their factories and granaries outside, but it is complained that some persons disregard the ordinance and for weeks at a time the granaries about the steamboat wharves are used for fertilizer storage much to the discomfort of neighboring citizens. The town authorities have determined to enforce the ordinance, and hereafter fertilizer will not be allowed storage in the granaries or to remain on the wharves longer than eighteen hours after landing from the boat.

The commissioners of Chestertown met on Thursday and passed the following order:

Office of the Commissioners of Chestertown,
August 28, 1884.

Whereas, frequent complaint has been made to the commissioners of Chestertown by the citizens of the town, that the storing and keeping of Fertilizers at the wharves and in the granaries along the water front of Chestertown is offensive and a nuisance, and whereas, heretofore fertilizer dealers have been compelled to remove their fertilizer and store houses beyond the limits of the town under the provision of the town ordinances, therefore it is ordered, that all fertilizer and fertilizing material, and all other offensive matter now stored within the limits of Chestertown shall be removed within twenty-four hours from the date of the service of this order, and that hereafter no fertilizer, fertilizer material or other offensive matter shall be stored within the limits of Chestertown, nor shall any such goods lie at or on the wharves within the limits of the town longer than eighteen hours from the hour of arrival.

By order of the Commissioners of Chestertown.
Jos. N. Wheatley, Clerk.

Get Registered.—The registration officers of this county give notice that they will sit next week, from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive, for the purpose of correcting the lists of voters in the several election districts. The fourth (Chestertown) election district having been divided into two voting precincts the officer of registration will sit at Pomona on Friday, September 5, for correcting the list for that precinct. The places of sitting of all the registers are advertised in another column.

The Fair.—We are pleased to learn that much interest is being taken by the ladies in the preparation of articles for exhibit at our approaching Fair. The display of live stock, farm products and agricultural implements promises to be of a superior order, and the indications are that it will be the largest and most interesting exhibition that the association has ever held. If all work to accomplish this end it will doubtless be attained.

The Race to Come off.—The managers of the Kent Fair have acceded to Mr. Emory's conditions, and the race between Cyclops and Young Smuggler will take place on the first day of the Fair—September 23. The speed of these horses is thought to be about equal, and the race will no doubt be a fair and square one.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, Aug. 27.—Present, Judges Walker, Hyland and Stevens.

On application of Arilla A. Vannort, guardian to Melissa B. W. Vannort, her guardianship was revoked and Colin F. Stam was appointed guardian to said minor.

Colin F. Stam, guardian to Simon Wickes, Anna R. Wickes and John C. Wickes, filed his bond in the penal sum of $4,000.

Wm. J. Vannort, Samuel Vannort and John H. Simpers, executors of Wm. Vannort, filed their release from Joseph A. Vannort.

Lula Hurst's Profitable Tour.—Lula Hurst, the Georgia wonder, was interviewed at Chattanooga, Tenn., as she passed through the city en route home. She denied being married to her manager, T. M. Atkinson, and says that there is no ground for the report; that she does not even love him and never expects to. She states that her tour has netted her about $40,000, which she will invest in government bonds. Miss Hurst will be under the management of Charles Frohman, of the Madison-Square Theater, New York, next season, which commences in San Francisco on September 8, and continues four weeks. She says that her mysterious power is increasing continually, and she defies the world to solve its mystery.

According to the statement of Major Douglass, chief engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad Philadelphia branch, about 75 per cent. of the grading is completed, and in about three months all will be finished. The laying of rail will then be pushed vigorously so as to have the road in running order by spring, when the work on the elevated railroad through Baltimore will have begun. The abutments and stone supports of the bridge across the Susquehanna have been completed, and one of the stone piers in the river on the Harford side is in course of construction.

Killed at Camp-Meeting. — At a colored camp-meeting at Polk's Road, Somerset county, last Sunday, Milton Wilson and James Bevan, who had both been drinking, got into a dispute which finally led to blows. Bystanders interfered and attempted to part them, when Wilson stabbed Bevan in the neck with a long-bladed knife, severing an artery. The wounded man only lived a short time. Wilson was promptly arrested and taken to Princess Anne jail.

Runaway.—A team of four mules attached to an unloaded peach wagon of Mr. W. Eliason was hitched near the corner of High and Kent streets Monday evening, when a small dog with a tin pan tied to his tail came yelling around the corner and passed under or near the team. It was more than the mules could stand, and with a sudden jerk they scattered the rack in the street and started in a full run up Kent street, turning into Cannon at the Bethel church. They were pursued by the driver, a colored man, who, with surprising fleetness and dexterity, succeeded in overtaking the wagon and climbed into it by grasping the side-board between the wheels. He soon stopped the team and brought it back in good order, when it was found that no damage had been sustained.

Rest from thy labor, rest;
Soul of the just set free.
Blest be thy memory, and blest
Thy bright example be.

Thy toil and conflicts o'er,
Go take with saints thy place.
But go as each has gone before—
A sinner saved by grace.

We loved him; yes, no tongue can tell
How much we loved him and how well.
God loved him too, and He knew best
To take our father home to rest.

All interested will therefore take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

I will be at Locust Grove until further notice.
