SATURDAY MORNING.....AUGUST 30, 1884.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

A Republican's Eleven Reasons for Betting on Cleveland.

An independent republican of this city, who says positively that he will not vote for Blaine, and who has not yet decided whether to vote for St. John or Cleveland, recently made a wager on the election of Cleveland. The amount he staked would be considered in the sporting world as neither large nor small, but it is an amount which it would be inconvenient for a man of ordinary means—as is the man referred to—to lose. He does not admit the possibility of losing, and bases his hope of winning upon the following eleven reasons:

1. In 1880 Garfield was elected by a narrow majority. He was supported by the entire republican press of the country, and as a rule the independent newspapers were "independent republican." Now the very ablest republican newspapers are supporting the democratic nominee, and as a rule the independent newspapers are "independent democratic."

2. The republican party is not now and will not be united. Four years ago all factions of that party were in perfect accord at the close of the campaign.

3. The independent non-partisan vote is against Blaine. It was for Garfield.

4. The State administrations of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, California, Kansas, Connecticut and Nevada are democratic. They were republican four years ago. Their influence and patronage are therefore directly transposed.

5. The influence of the Southern question (the whole range of negro outrages, tissue ballots, false counts, intimidation, etc.,) has nearly vanished from national politics.

6. The tariff is not so popular and protection will prove a less potent cry than in 1880.

7. Trade and manufactures are languishing. Four years ago they were flourishing. The republicans got the credit then and will be responsible now.

8. Conceding that Butler's candidacy will damage the democratic chances, it will be more than offset by the damage St. John may be considered, in relation to democratic chances, as certainly no worse than a stand off.

9. The business depression and the civil-service act will lessen campaign contributions, which were so plenty in 1880.

10. The republican funds must be scattered over many States—Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, all the Middle States, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin and the Pacific slope. New York and Indiana only needed "salvation" in 1880.

11. The demand for a change on general principles, which naturally grows as a party remains in power.—Racine (Wis.) Dispatch to Chicago Times.

Workingmen Repudiating Butler.

The members of the national committee of the national labor party met in New York Friday evening, Aug. 22d. The committee appointed to attend the greenback, anti-monopoly, republican and democratic conventions reported that as the republican and democratic conventions have inserted in their platforms the principles and the policy of the national labor party, as adopted at Philadelphia, Pa., January 12, 1884, and the greenback and anti-monopoly parties refused to adopt a plank for the protection of American labor, and has now, as in the past, persistently opposed all measures for the benefit of the workingmen that would increase their pay or shorten their hours of labor, and at heart are for free trade, long hours, cheap goods, cheap rates, cheap men and women and low wages, the committee recommends "that we repudiate the effort now being made to commit the labor party to the support of a third party candidate, and recommend all workingmen to cast their ballots for the candidates of the regular parties that in their opinion best represent their interests, as the surest and best method to secure speedy and effective legislation in the interest of the working classes; and that we further recommend co-operation in each and every legislative district with one of the regular parties for the election of men pledged to legislate in the interests of the working classes, and we will oppose the efforts made to make our movement a close movement to wage war upon other classes of society, or upon the candidates of the democratic or republican parties." The report of the committee was received and adopted without a dissenting voice.

SHARKS IN CHESAPEAKE WATERS.—Sharks seem to be plentiful in the Chesapeake bay this summer. Stories of their depredations in fish-pounds and their bold invasion of the shallow waters of creeks and rivers heretofore free from them are numerous. Capt. Matthews, of the steamer Helen, reports a somewhat thrilling experience of Capt. Thomas Fitzgerald and wife with a shark in Hunting creek, Accomac county, Va., a few days since. The two were going down the creek in a small skiff when a shark about 14 feet long rose to the surface of the water in the rear of the boat and followed them. He swam so close to the skiff that he was rapped with a paddle several times, but he was not driven away. Mrs. Fitzgerald became terribly alarmed, and her husband did not feel easy. The shark grew bolder every second, and finally swam up alongside the boat, turned over on his back and snapped his ponderous jaws in a voracious manner. Capt. Fitzgerald made all haste to the shore, which he and his frightened wife reached in safety, while the shark cruised about in the water adjacent as if waiting for his prey to again embark. Shark fishing at Cobb's Island is a favorite amusement along the Atlantic coast. They use a stout rope capable of holding an ox, to which is attached a hook of proper strength. They bait the hook with something which experience has taught them the appetite of the average shark cannot resist, and then when they have hooked a fellow ten or twelve feet long there is fun on the beach for fifteen or thirty minutes. Last week they took a shark in this way which measured thirteen feet, after a lengthy and excited struggle. In cutting him up, besides other odds and ends of apparently indigestible material found in his stomach, were the bones of a human arm and leg from the knee down to the foot.

Messrs. Carmine & West, fishermen, of Occahannock creek, Va., it is reported by officers of the Eastern Shore Steamboat Company, took a huge shark out of one of their fish pounds last week, which had in him the bones of a man's shoulder and arm and a ragged gum shoe. All accounts agree that sharks were never so numerous in Chesapeake waters. Fish are scarce in Miles river, which is attributed to the presence of an unusual number of sharks.—Balt. Sun.

BLAINE'S MAN BEATEN.—Leading friends of Mr. Blaine appeared in the Connecticut republican convention and urged the nomination of ex-Congressman Lounsbury, a millionaire, for Governor, on the ground that he would be a "liberal contributor" to the State and national campaign fund in event of his nomination. But he was defeated for the nomination by Hon. Henry B. Harrison, whose friends claimed that with his name at the head of the ticket there would be no use of pinning a pocket-book to it." The friends of the pocket-book aspirant are very sore over his defeat, and prophesy that the successful aspirant will fail to enthuse the party.

MUCH as people may regret the loss of life and the destruction of property by the riots in Cincinnati, the lesson which they taught has not been allowed to pass unheeded. Six murderers are now under sentence of death, three have been convicted of murder in the second degree and six of manslaughter, and no motions for new trials have been granted.

BRUSSTAR BROS., who contracted for the two State oyster police schooners, launched the second Saturday evening from their yard at Canton. The joiner work, masts and other internal arrangements will be rapidly pushed, and it is expected to deliver both vessels to the State in a short while. The new schooners will be known as the Folly and the Frolic.

THE Baltimore county Union says the death of many hogs at this season of the year is attributed by some persons to turning the animals into the wheat stubble, when the swollen throat is caused by the swallowing of wheat beards, and not cholera, as many suppose.

DR. HUMPHREYS, fish commissioner, has given notice that a distribution of carp will be made about October, from the State fish pond at Pleasant Valley, Talbot county. Applications for the fish should be made to Dr. Humphreys, at Salisbury, Maryland.

We have no hesitancy in saying to our patrons that the improvements made in our Pier are for their advantage, and we believe they have but to visit us to be convinced themselves of the fact. We will always, as heretofore, endeavor to keep abreast with the times, and meet the requirements of the trade as the demands are made.

You should count the cost of the Fertilizer by the cost per acre. As the soil requires more of a lower grade Fertilizer to the acre than one of a higher grade, the consequence is that the extra quantity required, the extra labor in applying it, and the poor results obtained, make the lower grade of goods more costly.

With perfect confidence we refer buyers to all who have applied our Fertilizers.

Order of Publication.

Edgar F. Wiatt and Charlotte Susan Wiatt, his wife, versus
William Henry Lassell, Virginia Merwin Lassell, Evelina Pinkind Lassell, Annie Mabel Lassell and James T. Lassell.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree for the sale of a lot of land, situated on Cannon street, Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, being part of Lots No. 81 and 82 as designated on the plot of said town, and of which the Rev. James T. Lassell, of Cecil county, Maryland, one of the above defendants, holds one undivided fourth part, and the plaintiff, Charlotte Susan Wiatt, together with all the other above defendants, as tenants in common, hold the other undivided three-fourths parts.

The Bill of Complaint states that the lot in question is part of a parcel or parcels of land in Chestertown, Md., conveyed by one William S. Hambleton in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-five to a certain William C. Lassell in trust to hold one undivided moiety thereof in trust for Wm. Henry Lassell (the grandson of said William C. Lassell), and his children living at the time of his death, and their heirs, and to hold the other undivided moiety thereof in trust for Charlotte P. Lassell, the mother of said William Henry Lassell, for her life, and after her death in trust for the children of said Charlotte P. Lassell living at her death, as appears by a copy of said deed of trust filed as a part of the Bill.

That the said Charlotte P. Lassell died many years ago, leaving surviving her only two children, the above named Wm. Henry Lassell and the above Rev. James T. Lassell, one of these defendants, who now resides in Cecil county, Md.

That the above named William Henry Lassell died about January or February 1884 at his residence in Norfolk county, Virginia, intestate, leaving no widow, but leaving the complainant, Charlotte Susan Wiatt, who is above the age of twenty-one years, and the defendants William Henry Lassell, Virginia Merwin Lassell, Evelina Pinkind Lassell, Annie Mabel Lassell, and Mary Elizabeth Lassell, all of whom are infants under the age of twenty-one years, his only children and heirs-at-law, all of whom reside in Norfolk county, Virginia.

That a part of the land conveyed as aforesaid by said deed of trust, and particularly described in the Bill, was conveyed by said William Henry Lassell in his life time to Mrs. Selina C. Lassell, then the widow of Wm. S. Lassell, father of said William Henry Lassell, but now Mrs. Selina C. Carroll, for her life; and that she and her husband, the said William S. Lassell, built upon and improved the same, and that the said Selina C. Carroll now holds and occupies the same under said deed, and by the forbearance and acquiescence of the Rev. Jas. T. Lassell.

That the said Wm. Henry Lassell in his life time mortgaged all his interest in another part of the land conveyed by said deed of trust, and particularly described in the Bill, to one Wm. C. Mercer, who subsequently under the power contained in said mortgage, sold the same to one James S. Bradley and that the said James S. Bradley also subsequently purchased the interest of said Jas. T. Lassell in that part of the land mentioned.

That the remaining land consists of the said lot on Cannon street, with a front of 169 feet and a depth of about 168 feet; that it is unimproved and unproductive, and that it is not susceptible of partition amongst the parties entitled without loss and injury, and that it will be for the interest and advantage of all the parties interested to sell the same and distribute the proceeds amongst them according to their respective interests therein.

That all the parties interested, except the said Rev. James T. Lassell, are non residents of the State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, this 21st day of August, 1884, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of three successive weeks before the twenty second day of September next, give notice to the said Wm. Henry Lassell, Virginia Merwin Lassell, Evelina Pinkind Lassell, Annie Mabel Lassell, and Mary Elizabeth Lassell, the said non-resident defendants, of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by guardian, on or before the 22d day of December, 1884, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
