SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 6, 1884.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Gov. McLane on Democratic Party Prospects.

The Feeling in the North.

Gov. McLane arrived at Annapolis on Saturday evening from Narragansett Pier, and in a conversation upon the question of politics and the national democratic campaign said:

"I found all our friends in the North confident that Cleveland will carry the States of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. The attempt of the republicans to take the Irish vote for Blaine had failed in the Irish-American States in reference to the Irish-American arrested in Ireland under the coercion act is a bad cue. The contrast between his case and that of Gov. Mary in the Kozka case is very marked. In the last a democratic and a declaration of intention was held to entitle Kozka to all the protection our government could give him. In the Irish case neither naturalization nor service in the war availed to secure Mr. Blaine's sympathy or intervention. Even the law of Congress for the protection of foreigners was disregarded, and the subsequent intervention of Mr. Frelinghuysen in behalf of the imprisoned Kozka was continued with Blaine's course greatly to his disadvantage."

"In Connecticut, New York and New Jersey the Kozka case was generally regarded as a precedent in the Butler case, and will for the most part adhere to the democratic party. I am sure that the democratic party will win, and if the democratic workingmen remain firm and loyal to the democratic party success is certain."

"I heard everywhere that the independent republicans maintained their position and organization, and were determined to support Cleveland. I spoke at Rocky Point, N. J. on August 27, and there were delegations present from the adjoining States, and a great many workingmen and their families. I never saw a more enthusiastic and sanguine body of men. I was very much gratified at my reception, and it was an indication of first-rate courage and feeling on the part of the democrats of New England."

"Gov. Hendricks has no doubt at all about Indiana, and I have had very good accounts from California. I believe both of those States will vote for Cleveland. What still more notable in the canvass is the very genuine hope that the Northwestern democrats have of carrying Wisconsin."

POLITICAL NOTES.

In addition to Col. Fox, Penn. comes from Wisconsin that Col. S. B. Boynton, John H. McCreary and Hans Crocker, of whom were delegates to the republican national convention in 1880, have repudiated Blaine and declared for Cleveland.

Ex-Congressman Wm. A. Simmons, of Boston, who has been Gen. Butler's warm personal and political friend, has parted company with the general, and announces his purpose to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

The independent republicans of Indiana have taken a vigorous campaign. A committee has been organized to oppose the nomination of Blaine. John F. Fry, heretofore a republican, has taken the stump in Indiana for Cleveland.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said to an interviewer Monday: "You may say that Henry Ward Beecher wishes that Cleveland will defeat Blaine by such a majority as shall terminate any such a struggle as this, and I am sure that Blaine's name from ever assuming to be so foolishly as to run for such a high office as that of President of the United States for four years."

The Marylander, published at Princess Anne, speaking of Mr. Rogers' nomination for Congress and his vigorous in politics, says: "A kind of Eastern-Union-Blaine politician."

A Florida man that he recently killed an alligator, in whose stomach he found five live hens sitting on a dozen of eggs. He has been ordered to the Republican headquarters to serve during the campaign.

Trying to Win Over Cuckling.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from New York, dated Sept. 2, says: "It has been reported recently that Cuckling had suddenly become prominent as a candidate for United States Senator. The basis of the report is the attempt on the part of the Blaine managers to push up a large number of Cuckling, who have lately become greatly alarmed at the situation in the interior of the State, especially in the counties of Kent, Queen Anne and Dorchester, where the Cuckling are in open revolt. They believe that they could stop this revolt and the republicans by the Cuckling, who could be won over to go so far as to offer him the United States senatorial nomination, but the mission was wholly unsuccessful."

MARYLAND'S EXHIBIT AT NEW ORLEANS.—Senator Bishop, of Worcester county, having accepted the appointment by Gov. McLane of the place of commissioner for the State of Maryland at the exposition in New Orleans, to open December 1, active steps will be at once on foot to promote the desired object, and a full and proper representation of the State commensurate with the importance of its resources and the value and variety of its products. The exhibit of Maryland at its last session appropriated $5,000 for the purpose, and an equal sum was appropriated for the purpose of the exhibition. The amount for the State of Maryland is therefore $10,000, which is ample to secure a good exhibit. Senator Bishop, who is a devoted man, will establish himself in Baltimore, to visit every section of the State, and to the industries, which should be represented. He also takes steps to the commissioner in direct communication with the different producers and manufacturing localities of the State. There is a great variety of important agricultural, aquatic, mechanical and manufacturing industries in Maryland which should be represented at the New Orleans World's Fair.

GREEN'S DISCOVERY.—In the British Association at Montreal on Wednesday Sir Henry Lefay, in calling on Lieut. Greely, paid a high compliment to Greely as the brave explorer who had surprised the world by his achievements of glorious line of discovery. Lieut. Greely reported, and read a paper in which he touched upon the scientific value of his expedition. Referring to his discovery, he said he had been surprised to find by his observations that when the tide was flowing from the North, the water was warmer than when flowing in the opposite direction. He took the trouble to have recorded an elaborate set of observations showing this wonderful phenomenon, which would eventually be published. To him these peculiarities were unexplained, and he hoped that the observations would be studied by his hearers and some explanation found in regard to the thermometric observations of the expedition. He remarked that the mean temperature for the year of the hourly observations was 3 degrees below zero, which was the coldest point of earth ever reached.

POLITICAL TACTICS IN NEW ENGLAND.—A well-known politician, who has just returned to Washington from a trip through New England, says he was surprised at the interest in politics that was taking in the States. In Boston particularly they were very anxious to get Blaine's record before the people. At Worcester, Mass., a large number of farmers, proprietors, and business men were gathered to the election day in New England. There are a few individuals who are not supporting working for Cleveland in any way, and they declare themselves to be out of politics.
