SATURDAY MORNING.....Sept. 6, 1884.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

Gov. McLane on Democratic Party Prospects —The Feeling in the North.

Gov. McLane arrived at Annapolis on Saturday evening from Narragansett Pier, and in some conversation upon the question of politics and the national democratic campaign said:

"I found all our friends in the North confident that Cleveland will carry the pivotal States of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. The attempt of the republicans to take the Irish vote for Blaine had failed. His record in the State Department in reference to the Irish-Americans arrested in Ireland under the coercion act is a bad one. The contrast between his case and that of Gov. Maroy in the Koszta case is very marked. In the last a domicile in America and a declaration of intention was held to entitle Koszta to all the protection our government could give him. In the Irish cases neither actual naturalization nor service in the war availed to secure Mr. Blaine's sympathy or intervention. Even the law of Congress for the protection of foreigners was disregarded, and the subsequent intervention of Mr. Frelinghuysen in behalf of the imprisoned suspects contrasted with Blaine's course greatly to his disadvantage.

"In Connecticut, New York and New Jersey the workingmen were very generally refusing to participate in the Butler canvass, and will for the most part adhere to the democratic party. I think that is the delicate point in this canvass, and if the democratic workingmen remain firm and loyal to the democratic party success is certain.

"I heard everywhere that the independent republicans maintained their position and organization, and were determined to support Cleveland. I spoke at Rocky Point, R. I., on August 27, and there were delegations present from the adjoining States, and a great many workingmen and their families. I never saw a more enthusiastic and sanguine body of men. I was very much gratified at my reception, and the meeting was an indication of first-rate courage and feeling on the part of the democrats of New England.

"Gov. Hendricks has no doubt at all about Indiana, and I have had very good accounts from California. I believe both of those States will vote for Cleveland. What is still more notable in the canvass is the very sanguine hope that the Northwestern democrats have of carrying Wisconsin.

POLITICAL NOTES.

In addition to ex-Gov. Pound, news comes from Wisconsin that Col. S. B. Boynton, John H. McGregor and Hans Crocker, all of whom were delegates to the republican national convention in 1880, have repudiated Blaine and declared for Cleveland.

Ex-Collector Wm. A. Simmons, of Boston, who has been Gen. Butler's warmest personal and political friend, has parted company with the General, and announces his purpose to vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

The independent republicans of Indiana have begun a vigorous campaign. A committee has issued an address to the voters of the State against Mr. Blaine.

Hon. John F. Dye, heretofore a republican has taken the stump in Indiana for Cleveland.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said to an interviewer Monday: "You may say that Henry Ward Beecher wishes that Cleveland will defeat Blaine by such a majority as shall terrorize any man with such a notoriously bad public record as Blaine's from ever assuming to be so foolhardy as to run for such a high office as that of President of the United States for fifty years."

The Marylander, published at Princess Anne, speaking of Mr. Russum's nomination for Congress and his vagaries in politics, styles him "a kind of Eastern Shore-Ben-Butler politician."

A Forida man reports that he recently killed an alligator, in whose stomach was found a live hen sitting on a dozen of eggs. He has been ordered to the Republican headquarters to serve during the campaign.

Trying to Win Over Conkling.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from New York, dated Sept. 2, says: It has been reported recently that Mr. Conkling had suddenly become prominent as a candidate for United States Senator. The basis of the report is the attempt on the part of the Blaine managers to patch up a bargain with Mr. Conkling. They have lately become greatly alarmed at the situation in the interior of the State, especially in Oneida and adjoining counties, where the stalwarts of the Conkling school are in open revolt. They believe that they could stop this revolt and bring the republicans back into line if they could conciliate Senator Conkling, and they were willing to go so far as to offer him the United States senatorship as Lapham's successor, but the mission was wholly unsuccessful.

MARYLAND'S EXHIBIT AT NEW ORLEANS.—Senator Bishop, of Worcester county, having accepted the appointment by Gov. McLane of the place of commissioner for the State of Maryland at the exposition in New Orleans, to open December 1, active steps will be at once set on foot to promote the desired object of securing a full and proper representation of the State commensurate with the importance of its resources and the value and variety of its industries. The Legislature of Maryland at its last session appropriated $5,000 for the purpose, and an equal sum is allowed out of the fund voted by Congress for the exhibition. The amount for the use of Maryland is therefore $10,000, which is ample to insure a good exhibit. Senator Bishop, it is understood, will establish himself in Baltimore, to be within easy access of the larger manufacturing industries, which should be represented. He will also take steps to put the commissioner in direct communication with all the different producing and manufacturing localities of the State. There is a great variety of important agricultural, aquatic, mechanical and manufacturing industries in Maryland which should be represented at the New Orleans World's Fair.

GREELY'S DISCOVERIES.—In the British Association at Montreal on Wednesday Sir Henry Lefray, in calling on Lieut. Greely, paid a high compliment to Greely as the brave explorer who had surpassed the brilliant achievements of a glorious line of predecessors. Lieut. Greely responded, and read a paper in which he touched upon the scientific results of his expedition. Referring to his discoveries, he said he had been surprised to find by his observations that when the tide was flowing from the North Pole the water was warmer than when flowing in the opposite direction. He took the trouble to have prepared an elaborate set of observations showing this wonderful phenomenon, which would eventually be published. To him these peculiarities were unexplainable, and he hoped that the observations would be studied by his hearers and some explanation found in regard to the thermometric observations of the expedition. He remarked that the mean temperature for the year of the hourly observations was 5 degrees below zero, which justified him in saying his station was the coldest point of earth ever reached.

POLITICAL TACTICS IN NEW ENGLAND.—A well-known politician, who has just returned to Washington from a trip through New England, says he was surprised at the interest the independents are taking in the canvass. In Boston particularly they are using every means to get Blaine's record before the people. At horse-races, base-ball games and boat-races, programmes are published containing considerable interesting sporting matter, besides the Mulligan letters and Blaine's letter to Mr. Fisher. These pamphlets are gotten up in such an attractive style and distributed so abundantly that almost every man, woman and child in New England is made familiar with Mr. Blaine's political record. Campaign funds appear to be plentiful among the independents. In their ranks are several of the wealthiest men and most liberal contributors to the election fund in New England. There are a few independents who are not supporting nor working for Cleveland, but in many cases of this kind they refuse to assist the republicans, and declare themselves to be out of politics.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry 93c.@$ 96, Fultz 90c.@92c. for fair to good. Corn—White, prime 68@70; yellow, 65@66. OATS—Maryland, 33.

HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfilment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

Order of Publication.

Edgar F. Wiatt and Charlotte Susan Wiatt, his wife, versus
William Henry Lassell, Virginia Merwin Lassell, Evelina Pinkind Lassell, Annie Mabel Lassell and James T. Lassell.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree for the sale of a lot of land, situated on Cannon street, Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, being part of Lots No. 81 and 82 as designated on the plot of said town, and of which the Rev. James T. Lassell, of Cecil county, Maryland, one of the above defendants, holds one undivided fourth part, and the plaintiff, Charlotte Susan Watt, together with all the other above defendants, as tenants in common, hold the other undivided three-fourths parts.

The Bill of Complaint states that the lot in question is part of a parcel or parcels of land in Chestertown, Md., conveyed by one William S. Hambleton in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-five to a certain William C. Lassell in trust to hold one undivided moiety thereof in trust for Wm. Henry Lassell (the grandson of said William C. Lassell), and his children living at the time of his death, and their heirs, and to hold the other undivided moiety thereof in trust for Charlotte P. Lassell, the mother of said William Henry Lassell, for her life, and after her death in trust for the children of said Charlotte P. Lassell living at her death, as appears by a copy of said deed of trust filed as a part of the Bill.

That the said Charlotte P. Lassell died many years ago, leaving surviving her only two children, the above named Wm. Henry Lassell and the above Rev. James T. Lassell, one of these defendants, who now resides in Cecil county, Md.

That the above named William Henry Lassell died about January or February 1884 at his residence in Norfolk county, Virginia, intestate, leaving no widow, but leaving the complainant, Charlotte Susan Wiatt, who is above the age of twenty-one years, and the defendants William Henry Lassell, Virginia Merwin Lassell, Evelina Pinkind Lassell, Annie Mabel Lassell, and Mary Elizabeth Lassell, his said non-resident defendants, of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by guardian, on or before the 22d day of December, 1884, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
