Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING.....SEPT. 27, 1884.

SOME PLAIN FACTS.

EDS. KENT NEWS:—On your streets the writer found a hand-bill in about these words: "Why I am a Republican." It occurred to him with some force, that the converse would be better in the query: "Why I am not a Republican in the present canvass."

I am not a republican in this canvass because the party is running on the husks of its record: its past achievements and the possession of the fat things of office, and no longer stands for the glorious advocate of the "rights of man," and the equality of every nation, tongue and people in the sight of the Father of all; and that this country (as well as all other countries) belongs to God Almighty and all may come and enjoy the glorious privilege of our institutions who comply with the laws of the land, be they Mongolian, Malay, Caucasian, Ethiopian or Indian. Such was the fundamental principle, and it was maintained; (see action of late Congress and veto of anti-Chinese legislation by President Arthur;) position held by Senators Edmunds, Hawley, Hoar and the better class of republicans generally. Abandoned at Chicago this summer, see platform. In a word the party has forsaken everything but the name. Again we cannot endorse the principle of protection (so-called) to the extent of its jubilant devotees and the republican party rejoices in its sole proprietorship. Protection for development of any branch of industry within reasonable limits may sometimes be of service. But an industry which requires protection to the extent of prohibition becomes useful as its most ardent admirers claim, one thing is certain that the protection is at the expense of some other class.

A tax on any article of everyday consumption must be paid by the consumer, and if the number of those consumers exceeds the number of those benefitted by protection then it follows that "the greatest good to the greatest number" is not attained. It cannot be gainsaid that let who may be helped by this exclusive protection the agriculturist and the laborer in agriculture are not. With wheat at 75c. it is a one sided game—cheap bread for the protected. Enhanced prices for what the farmer and unprotected have to buy. Consequently, the republican pet don't suit the farmer. Again, changes are often beneficial—a change of diet, change of air, change of rulers.

We must not forget that "Ephraim waxed fat and kicked." Lastly, our colored brother is getting too fond of his white sister, and with the venerable, dear, old Fred Douglass and his white young wife, is rather more disgusting than agreeable. Perhaps a change might be of benefit here. INDEPENDENT.

Political Notes.

Judge J. N. Scott, of Indianapolis, Ind., and brother-in-law of Senator Benjamin Harrison, has declared for Cleveland. He has always been a republican.

The chairman of the New Jersey democratic State committee has written the democratic national committee that New Jersey can be depended on to give its electoral vote to Cleveland and Hendricks by a handsome majority.

The preliminary arrangements for the organization of a merchants' Cleveland and Hendricks' Club in New York were made Tuesday. Most of the signers of the call are republicans.

ELOPING WITH $60,000 AND A LOVER.—A dispatch dated Boston, Mass., Sept. 23d, says: A twelve-year-old girl of Farmingham, named Sadie Robinson, Friday, packed a valise with diamonds and negotiable bonds to the amount of $60,000 belonging to her mother, a wealthy lady of the place, and started for Boston to meet a young man and elope with him. She was arrested, however, on Saturday; the valuables were recovered and the girl taken home. The amount was divided as follows: $15,000 in bank bills, three $1,000 United States bonds, $7,000 worth of diamonds, and $35,000 worth of railroad stock. The girl is a daughter of C. E. Robinson. Sadie's mind has been filled with nonsensical ideas about runaway marriages. When charged with stealing the valuables she at first indignantly denied it, but subsequently confessed. She said that on Friday morning she took the valise with her when she went to school in Boston, and had given it to a woman. She told a blood-curdling story of having her life threatened unless she complied with the demand for money. She said she met the woman in Albany, and gave her the valise containing the valuables. The valise and valuables were recovered in a drug store, where Sadie had left them, promising to call for them today. She confessed that she loved a young man whose name she refused to give, and had taken the money with the intention of eloping.

GIVING AWAY DRY GOODS.—At Cumberland, Md., one morning last week two rival dry goods houses on opposite sides of Baltimore street made things lively for a short time. Each house had in front a large lot of blankets. One house displayed a card marked "Fifty cents a pair." The blankets of the other house were promptly marked "Forty cents." This brought the rival to 30 cents. Two more cuts brought the price down to 10 cents, and finally each put out a card marked "Free: take one." And on these terms in a very short time both lots were disposed of.

A SHOCKING self-murder occurred on Thursday week at Winchester, Va. Mrs. Oscar Barr, wife of a leading business man, had been an inmate of the Williamsburg Lunatic Asylum. She was not improved in health. After being at the institution some time she was brought home, her husband intending to place her in another asylum. Eluding her attendant Mrs. Barr obtained some coal oil with which she saturated her clothing, and then ignited it with a match. She was literally burned to a crisp before assistance could arrive.

DEATH OF HENRY CLAY.—Hon. Harry Clay was shot Sunday morning by Councilman Andrew Wepler, at Louisville, Ky., and died Monday morning. Mr. Clay, who was a grandson of the great commoner, was know all over the State as one of the most brilliant young lawyers in the South. He was the only one of his line who inherited his grandfather's wonderful gift of oratory. He was about 26 years of age and unmarried. Since Mr. Clay's death much indignation prevails, and there is talk of lynching Wepler, who is confined in jail.

FAST TIME ON THE BICYCLE.—At the bicycle tournament at Springfield, Mass., last week ten miles were covered by Howell, an Englishman, in thirty minutes and seven and one-fifth seconds. One mile was run by Prince in two minutes and thirty-nine seconds—time which some of our fastest horses could not beat some years ago. It is not unlikely that wheelmen, with the aid of the improvements that inventors are constantly making in their vehicles, will in a few years be able to distance our fastest horses.

SEVEN CONVICTS were whipped at New Castle, Saturday, in the presence of about 400 people. Among them were Edward Redden, white, who was pilloried for an hour in addition to his twenty lashes; Isaac Anderson, colored, who swore lustily while being whipped, and Sugar Awful, a colored thief, who took his thirty-five heavy lashes without a murmur.

WM. B. HARLETON, of Washington, and a former well-known Baltimore journalist, was committed to an asylum for the insane on Monday.

SUGAR AWFUL was given thirty-five lashes at New Castle, on Saturday.—Morning News. An awful sugaring for Sugar Awful.—Phila. Times.
