which when properly considered will not meet with general approbation. Upon the whole it is possible we may have misapprehended the meaning of several expressions which when properly explained may prove unobjectionable. I think not from any remarks here made that the writer is hostile to colonising his brethren on the coast of Africa he is decidedly in favour of the project and would do every thing in his power to encourage those to go who ~~[illegible]~~ are of good conduct. Remarks similar to those herein stated I intended have made on last evening but believing they would be productive of no good effect I ~~[illegible]~~ forbore.

JHB

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

1. May 1827--December 1833

1828