SATURDAY MORNING.....Oct. 11, 1884.

LETTER FROM FAIRLEE.

Re-opening of Salem M. E. Church — The Drought—Prospective Changes of Residence —A Proposed New Departure in Politics.

The re-opening of Salem M. E. Church took place according to notice in the KENT NEWS on the 28th ult. Although the day was excessively warm and the roads deep with dust a large and intelligent congregation assembled to hear the service. Rev. J. E. Mobray, who was expected to deliver the discourse at 3 P. M., was unable to attend, but his place was most acceptably filled by an excellent sermon by Rev. W. S. Robinson, on "Christian Liberty," from the Epistle to the Galatians, 5th chapter, 1st verse. "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free." The same brother spoke again in the evening, his subject being drawn from the parable of the wise man who built his house on a rock, and the foolish one who built his on the sand. The illustrations of his theme were apt and the sermons in a high degree instructive. The liberality of the congregation, both in the post-meridian and evening services, is the subject of much favorable comment. I learn that $133 was raised in the first and about $80 at the second meeting, in cash and pledges. This will, I think, meet all expenses of the much needed improvement. The whole wood-work has been painted inside and out, the walls neatly frescoed, the windows covered with a delicate paper, perfectly translucent, in imitation of stained glass—the figures being olive leaves and other neat emblems, the whole diffusing through the building a mellow and agreeable light. The whole floor is carpeted and the pulpit furniture renewed. A tasty and substantial fence and gate encloses the yard and building. Much credit is due the Ladies' Aid Society for their indefatigable zeal and industry in the accomplishment of this enterprise, and it is to be hoped that they will now direct their energies to the procurement of a bell for their beautiful and attractive house of worship.

The dry spell continues; this is not news but the results are serious — gardens are parched, pastures bare, milk scarce and butter poor and almost a thing of memory.

There have been some changes in our community. The firm of G. E. Noland & Co. being dissolved, our genial friend, George Edward, has concluded to "go it alone" at Lankford, formerly Trappe. How long he may entertain this notion is an unsolved problem. Rumor has it that at an early day he will take a partner; I do not know; one thing however is sure, and that is, that single or otherwise, his customers will always find him courteous, obliging and reliable, and not afraid of printers' ink in making his business known.

Mr. James Roe has moved into the only vacant house in the village, which he will occupy until Christmas, when Joseph Walbert proposes to take it.

At the end of the year Henry Greenwood will discontinue farm operations and locate in town. Herbert Lamb will take the farm Mr. Greenwood now occupies.

It may be mentioned that it is proposed hereabout to bring out a brand-new Presidential ticket and platform, which shall embody and represent fairly and squarely all the issues of all the parties, old and new and, in a word, absorb the whole. The reasons for such a step are obvious: Six tickets are now in the field; in case of a tie there is no chance of a casting vote. A deadlock is inevitable and the wheels of government stop—a disaster fearful to contemplate! Again, seven is a sacred number and why should not a seventh party save the nation. More reasons could be given, but at present I forbear.

SIMON SHARP.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Buffalo Daily Times has been opposed to Gov. Cleveland, but Thursday evening of last week the office of that paper was beautifully illuminated in honor of Gov. Cleveland's visit, and the Times next day contained the following gale, at the head of its editorial column: "The editor of the Times, thus naturally inclined to ally this paper more closely to the democratic party, has the further incentive to an earnest and vigorous support of the democratic candidates of sharing the general sentiment of disgust and alarm at the efforts of the republican party to foist a man upon the country as President whose public record as a legislator is smirched with corruption to an extent exceeding anything recorded in the history of any other national representative, and whose crimes against the nation the republican party is anxiously prepared to defend and indorse."

Hon. Wm. E. Forrest, of New York, has tendered his resignation as a republican presidential elector for that State. In doing so he informs the chairman of the republican State committee that he "cannot conscientiously support the nominee for President, James G. Blaine." All efforts to induce Mr. Forrest to withdraw his resignation having failed, the executive committee will substitute another name.

A Trenton (N. J.) dispatch to the New York Herald says: "In Princeton College a vote has just been taken among the students who are eligible to the franchise, which resulted in 42 for Cleveland and 38 for Blaine. Four years ago, in a total vote of about 100, Garfield had fifty majority over Hancock. This year, out of the forty college professors, all but four have declared for Cleveland. There is also much dissatisfection existing against Blaine among the theological students. A Cleveland and Hendricks club has just been formed, with a membership of 125 students, all of whom are fully equipped for the campaign."

A correspondent writing from Johnston, Pa., asserts that officers of the Cambria Iron Works at that place, having failed to secure pledges from their employes of a solid support of Blaine and Logan, ordered them a few days ago to report at the office of the company for formation into a Blaine and Logan campaign club. This, the correspondent says, many of them refused to do, whereupon their services were dispensed with. Some of the laborers attempted to be coerced have gone to Pittsburg and others are seeking employment in the steel works at Cumberland, Md.

David M. Nelson and George F. Sterling, of Crisfield, have made a novel bet on the presidential election. Nelson is a republican and Sterling a democrat. If Blaine is elected Nelson is to hang up Sterling "in a bag to be made by James Richardson," for the space of one hour, in front of the postoffice on the 10th day of November, 1884. If Cleveland is elected Nelson is to be bagged and suspended by Sterling. The agreement is in writing; and a failure to comply with the bagging clause involves a forfeiture of ten dollars.

S. S. Cox, Abram S. Heweitt, Orlando Potter, and Nicholas Muller, all able and worthy congressmen, have been renominated in New York. Mr. Dorsheimer, declines a renomination tendered him unanimously, and Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the New York World, has been nominated for Congress in Mr. Dorsheimer's district.

It is surely a significant fact showing the great change in public opinion consequent upon Mr. Blaine's nomination that of 256 republican members of the New York Stock Exchange who were members of the Garfield club four years ago 155 have joined the Cleveland club. Mr. DeWitt Seligman, the well-known banker, writes that "as a lifelong but disgusted republican I join your Cleveland and Hendricks club. In the name of pure politics it is to be hoped that the good, sound, honest sense of the American nation will prevent so indelible a disgrace as the election of Mr. Blaine from being fastened upon the country."

Last Monday night at a meeting of the National Labor party in New York city the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed to prepare a circular to all the trade and labor organizations of the country, notifying them that, after investigation by the National Labor party, they find the charge to be true that James G. Blaine was a stockholder in the Hocking Valley Coal and Iron Company, and also in the Standard Iron and Coal Company, which companies discharged union laborers and employed imported Hungarian laborers at 80 cents a day, and their wives and children at 15 cents a day, to take their place, and also employed Pinkerton's police to shoot the union miners down if they resisted this employment of pauper labor.

Resolved, That we urge all friends of honest labor and American labor to work and vote against James G. Blaine as the enemy of honest labor and a false and dishonest protectionist.

A CLERGYMAN, who has been a Republican in politics, states honest reasons for opposing the election of a dishonest man to the Presidency. "I think," says the clergyman, "that every God fearing citizen, not party blind, must join me in the fervent prayer: 'May God in His mercy avert the day when the majority of the American people shall have become so lost to honor as to prefer for their chief ruler James G. Blaine, whose only title to their suffrages is his bad pre-eminence among his fellows in corruption.'"

MR. JOHN F. KERSEY, of the Easton mercantile firm of Thompson, Kersey & Co., died on Wednesday at his residence in Easton. Mr. Kersey has been sick for several months, and several weeks ago his life was despaired of. But he got better and was to go about occasionally. Last Monday morning he was stricken with paralysis while at breakfast and never rallied from the stroke.

BLAINE'S HOCKING VALLEY LANDS.

The Fac-Similes of a Letter and Receipt Proving His Ownership.

Of all Mr. Blaine's denials the specific one disclaiming the ownership of any lands whatsoever in the Hocking Valley in Ohio has recently attracted the greatest attention. When his name was mentioned in connection with that of a company which had purchased a tract in the valley said to be rich in timber, coal and iron ore, he wrote the following from Bar Harbor, Me., to Mr. Bundy:—

"I beg leave to say that I am not and never have been the owner of any coal lands or iron lands or lands of any character whatever in the Hocking Valley or in any part of Ohio. Nor have I at any time owned a share of stock in any coal, iron or land company in the State of Ohio."

This communication was dated July 22 of this year, and elicited from Mr. J. Henry Brooks, of Boston, a letter in which he set forth the circumstances under which Mr. Blaine became connected with the Hocking Valley enterprise. In the autumn of 1880 articles of association were formed under the title of the Hope Furnace Tract. Mr. J. N. Denison was the financial agent and Mr. Brooks the trustee in respect to the title of the lands purchased. These belonged to William D. Lee, of Newark, Ohio, and consisted of 10,810 acres in Vinton and Athens counties. The association brought two-thirds of these lands, the whole being divided into thirty-three blocks, each of the value of $25,000, of which Mr. Lee held eleven. Mr. Lee said he would like to have Mr. Blaine interested, and at his solicitation the latter signed the articles of the association, subscribing for one block. On December 7, 1880, Mr. Denison wrote to Mr. Blaine asking for his subscription, and receiving no answer telegraphed him on the 15th inquiring if his letter had been received. On the same day a draft from Mr. Blaine for $25,000 was received, the letter enclosing it being erroneously dated the 30th instead of the 13th. Subsequently the Hope Furnace Tract Association was consolidated with the Standard Coal and Iron Company on a basis of $50,000 at par of the consolidated company's bonds for a $25,000 block in the Hope Tract Association, and on May 25, 1882, Mr. Brooks handed Mr. S. B. Elkins, as Mr. Blaine's agent, in his office, at No. 2 Wall street, fifty of the Standard Coal and Iron Company's bonds representing Blaine's interest, for which he received a voucher.

Copies both of this voucher and Mr. Blaine's letter enclosing the draft for $25,000, were published on the first of this month, yet Mr. Blaine writes to Mr. William McKinley, under date of the 4th inst:—

"I do not own and never did own an acre of coal land or any other kind of land in the Hocking Valley or in any other part of Ohio. My letter to Hon. Ezekiah Bundy in July last on this same subject was accurately true."

Mr. Blaine having seen fit to make this denial, fac-similes of his letter enclosing the $25,000 draft and of Mr Elkins's acknowledgment of the receipt as Blaine's agent of the bonds referred to, are published in today's Herald.—N. Y. Herald of Wednesday.

GEO. WARFIELD,

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GERDEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

Notice to Tax-Payers of 3d District.

THE tax books for the Third District are now in my hands and the bill of each individual tax-payer is ready for settlement. I hope that payment will be made promptly, thereby saving me the disagreeable duty of resorting to legal measures.

The law explicitly requires that I shall proceed WITHIN THIRTY DAYS from the date of receiving the books to collect, so that I have no option in the matter.

I may be found at Worton Station every Tuesday afternoon and at the court-house in Chestertown on Saturdays,
