Advising of the formation of an auxiliary Society & asking for publications to distribute.

Princess Anne, Somerset County Md. May 30. 1832

Gentlemen,

Our auxiliary Society has commenced under favorable auspices; and, if duly supported, will doubtless do much good — it is particularly desirable to receive a liberal supply of Reports, addresses &c, as mentioned below, to excite a lively interest towards the object throughout the County — which, if sent to me through the Hands of Messrs. Martin and Gibson, would be apportioned among the Officers for distribution in their respective neighborhoods.

With great respect, I remain, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servt
Littleton Dennis Teackle
