Giving an acct of proceedings of Dist Colony Soc. Societies of Somerset Co.

Princess Anne, Md. July 10. 1832

Gentlemen,

By the Village Herald, which is enclosed, you will see the late proceedings of two of the auxilliary societies of this County. those of the other (at Quantico) will probably appear in the next. I have heard from its President, Col. Stewart, that twelve candidates for emigration were offered at that place — so it appears that a full proportion may be expected from Somerset. I shall be gratified in hearing of your early arrangements for the commencement of transportation — and in the mean time will proceed in collecting the numbers, ages, sexes &c of such of the coloured people as may wish to emigrate.

With high Respect and consideration, I am Gentlemen, Your obedt Servt
