Sir

The following is a copy of a letter addressed to you by me on the 30th ultimo. Not having heard from you I have thought it possible that the letter may have miscarried — should this be the case your reply may be directed to me at this place viz. Smithfield Isle of Wight County Virginia. —

Very respectfully

It will afford me a high degree of pleasure to be instrumental in carrying into effect the views of the Board of Managers of the State Colon. Society of Maryland, as explained to me in your letter of the 25th. ult.

In regard to the terms on which I would be willing to engage in this service, I can only say that a base sufficiency to meet the current
