SATURDAY MORNING..........Nov. 8, 1884.

Election Incidents in New York.

CHEERING MR. TILDEN.

The early morning rush of voters had not ceased at the Twenty-fourth election district in the Third Assembly district when a stylish carriage drew up before the door, and ex-Governor Samuel J. Tilden was assisted to the pavement by his private secretary, Mr. Smith.

"Hurrah for President Tilden!" shouted a gray-haired laboring man as the crowd gathered about the venerable voter, and the cheers were given with a will. Mr. Tilden had his ballots in his hand, and, entering the building, took his place in line, with several voters in front of him. Two or three of these offered him their places, but he thanked them with a quiet smile and said he was in no hurry. He voted all the ballots including the constitutional amendment. When he turned to go quite a large crowd had gathered in the street and he received another loud cheer as he entered his carriage and drove away. Those who claimed to know said that Mr. Tilden voted the straight democratic ticket.

THE PRESIDENT VOTES.

There were less than twenty votes to be polled in the Second election district of the Eighteenth Assembly district at half-past two o'clock when a cab—not a yellow one—rattled up to the curb, and President Arthur was seen inside, accompanied by Surrogate Rollins. The booths were half a block away, but there was a helter-skelter rush toward the cab, and as the President alighted he was surrounded by a crowd which made the air ring with hearty cheers. The ovation was so warm that Mr. Arthur blushed like a schoolboy and looked very much pleased. The crowd escorted him to the booths, overturning the republican one in their excitement, and there was a scramble among the ballot pedlers for the honor of giving him the tickets. He examined them with deliberation, putting on a pair of dark-bowed glasses for the purpose, and then the shouting crowd bore him along to the polls.

A six-foot Irishman was depositing a ticket for Cleveland as he entered the poll. He fairly jumped for joy at the honorable juxtaposition thus thrust upon him, and declared afterward that he must certainly "ball up," for had he not offset the vote of the "President, God bless him?"

FRIENDLY CONSIDERATION.—At Thompson and Bleecker streets a white man raised an excitement by charging a couple of colored men with bribe-taking. A policeman came up to quiet him.

"I saw that nigger take a five dollar note," he cried. "Look here, Frazer, own up; didn't you?"

Frazer, black as Erebus, sulked and said:—"Naw."

"You didn't? What made you vote when that big slob over there," pointing to an Eighth ward "heeler," "tackled you?"

"Voted from friendly 'sideration."

"That be d—!" cried the irate accuser.

"Look a-here!" cried Frazer, "I done want no wite man to black my character. Gem'len," he explained to the grinning group around, "I come up to vote, and dat republican gem'lan says, 'Frazer, you tinks sumfin o' me.' I says, 'A mighty heap sah.' He says, 'A five case note would permote good feelin' 'twixt us, wouldn't it, Frazer?' and I said it would. So, after we was feelin' better and I had de spondlies he says, 'Say, Frazer, you has strong perlitercal convictions; how do you stand on swappin' dem for my friendly regards?' 'Pooty good,' says I. 'Den,' says he, 'how d'ye swap?' and I said, 'Even.' Wot's wrong 'bout dat I'd like ter know."

And the accuser was squelched.—New York Herald.

THE WONDERFUL GROWTH OF TEXAS.—The recent returns made to the comptroller of Texas show its rapid development, as rapid as that made by any State in the Union. Nearly all the counties have sent in their assessment, showing an increase over last year of $63,000,000. In 1882 it was $107,000,000, and in the previous two years nearly as much, bringing the total valuation of the State up to $583,000,000, against $311,000,000 four years ago—very nearly doubling in this short period of time. The increase in population has kept step with the increase in wealth. The immense immigration which began in Texas some ten years ago is kept up to this day.

The bureau of statistics, after a careful consideration of the subject, place the population today at 2,215,700, an increase of 623,964 in four years, or over 155,000 per annum. Should this progress continue Texas will have a population of 3,200,000, by the next census, and stand fifth in the list of States instead of eleventh. Large as is its assessments, it is less than half its wealth, the Galveston News remarks. The railroads are assessed at $40,000,000, whereas they are worth $200,000,000. The State owns lands and bonds worth $100,000,000, belonging to the schools, asylums, etc., which are not assessed. Personal property is assessed far below its value and agricultural products valued at less than halftheir true figure.

THE STEAMER GOV. MCLANE'S CREW.—Capt. Hedge Thompson, who is commander of the new oyster police steamer Gov. McLane, took charge last week and appointed the following crew: Charles A. Pembroke, first officer; F. C. Benner, chief engineer; Albert Benner, assistant engineer; Edward Denver, John Faheg, firemen; Charles Newnam, George Barnes, Charles Clark, Robert T. Bridges, deck hands; Joseph Thompson, colored, steward; John Earle, colored, cook. Both the captain and engineer have certificates qualifying them for those positions, as required by the Board of Public Works. An applicant for a master and pilot's commission must have had two years' experience as a waterman, and must be recommended by three experienced steamboat men. Capt. Thompson has had five years of actual service on the water. The effect of the adopted order of the Board of Public Works requring an examination into the qualification of deputy commander and engineers in the fishery force will, it is thought, have a tendency to reduce the number of applicants for those positions in the future. At the same time the aim is to improve the efficiency of the force.

TRUE TO HIS SOUTHERN FRIENDS.—The late James Wormley, the famous Washington caterer, always remained sincerely attached to his Southern friends, and preferred them to all others. Until Mrs. John B. Floyd died he was in the habit of sending to her, in Virginia, at Thanksgiving and Christmas, boxes containing every delicacy. He said that he thought that an ungrateful person was the meanest creature on God's earth, and that he would be that mean creature if he forgot his obligations to Mrs. Floyd. He said that she had taught him to prepare some of his best dishes, and had in every way in her power assisted in training him as steward and caterer. It gave him happiness to be able to do something for her after she was poor and old. Many Southern ladies whom he had known in their prosperous days, and who, from the force of circumstances, had to seek clerkships in the departments, were made the recipients of his hospitality. He was a warm personal friend of Senator Charles Sumner, who died in his arms.

"BILL JONES THE AVENGER" ACQUITTED.—Wm. Jones, known to fame as "Bill Jones the Avenger," charged with an attempt to murder Guiteau, the assassin, while being conveyed from the prison to the court-house, was tried in Washington last Monday for that offense. It will be recalled that while the van was being driven at a rattling gait along B street, Jones, mounted on a sorrel horse galloped alongside fired through the side of the van and got away at break-neck speed. The ball grazed Guiteau's left arm and he was found on the floor of the vehicle shivering from fright. Though the proof at the trial was very clear that Jones did the shooting, it took the jury only fifteen minutes to make up a verdict of not guilty.

A FORT DELAWARE PRISONER.—Mr. B. D. Utterback, of Centreville, Fairfax county, Va., is 80 years of age, and is distinguished for having spent the greater part of the late war in a federal prison. He was arrested at his home and detained in a prison until after the war, refusing positively to take the oath to the United States government. "And I never did," said the old gentleman a few days ago, "for when they came to send the last batch of prisoners out of Fort Delaware I had been a prisoner so long that all record of my name and charges against me had been lost and the officers could not detain me."

A COVEY of partridges about dusk one evening last week flew suddenly against the house of Alonzo Warfield, of Dorchester county. Over a dozen were killed by the force of the concussion. Mr. Warfield gathered up the birds and had a partridge breakfast the next morning.

ONE of the simplest ways to get rid of rats is to place within their reach a pan of flour, mixed with unslacked lime, and a pan of water beside it. The lime causes thirst and the rats die almost immediately after they drink.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry 90c @$ 95, Fultz 83c. @85c. for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 53@55; yellow, 54@57. OATS—Maryland, 33.

LETTER FROM WORTON.

Church Dedication—Good Templars—Change in Business—Thefts—Election, &c.

On Sunday last the Presbyterians dedicated their church at this place. Mr. Dewing, minister in charge, preached in the morning and Rev. W. W. Reese, of Kennedyville, in the afternoon and evening to a crowded house. This church is an ornament to this place and a credit to those that have labored so ardently for its erection, and though they may have been at a considerable inconvenience and expense, nevertheless they are paid in the consciousness of having discharged their duty and erected as a memento a structure whose power and influence will be felt long after its last atoms have crumbled into dust. Daniel DeFoe said:

Wherever God erects a house of prayer
The devil always builds a chapel there;
And will be found upon examination,
The latter has the largest congregation.

I know of no visible chapel the devil has in this place, but I do know he can always get a congregation when he wants to.

The lodge of Good Templars here adjourned on the 27th ult. sine die. In its most prosperous days it could not count more than thirty-two members and dwindled to less than a quorum; but three men withstood the temptation and passed through the ordeal to receive the benediction of the ladies: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Ben Harbourd has sold his stock of store goods and rented his store-room here to Nathan Marcuse. This is a good business stand and if Marcuse has the sagacity and enterprise that belongs to his race success awaits him.

Thieves both diurnal and nocturnal have been at work in this place. A watch was stolen from one store and a watch and twenty dollars from another. These knaves are a source of great annoyance as well as expense to their victims.

The election in this district held at Smithville passed off O. K. except a few skirmishes and which did not amount to much but hair pulling. I'll not say wire pulling, as we are too remote from the great centre of political intrigue to carry on that in a presidential campaign. The returns of today show that Ben Butler got but one vote in this county. We hope our worthy friend and brother at Fairlee was not carried away by the honor this party saw fit to bestow upon him as to forget himself politically.

vs.
HANNAH BARTLEY.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to obtain a divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii of the Plaintiff from the Defendant.

The bill of complaint states that John Bartley, the complainant resides in Kent county in the State of Maryland, and that in the month of June, in the year Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-two, he was lawfully united in marriage to Hannah Bartley, formerly Hannah Graham, of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

That the said Plaintiff and Defendant lived together from the time of their marriage until about the 14th day of November, in the year 1882, when the Defendant abandoned Plaintiff's bed and board, and has continued so to do until the present time, though the conduct of Plaintiff was and is without reproach.

And the bill further states that the said Defendant is impotent, caused by certain physical defects (set forth in said bill) which existed previous to and at the time of said marriage, and that these physical impediments were not known to Plaintiff until after his marriage as aforesaid.

The bill states that said Hannah Bartley is non-resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered this 1st day of November that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once in each of three successive weeks before the 6th day of December, 1884, give notice to Hannah Bartley, the non-resident defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn her to appear in this court in person or by attorney on or before the 7th day of March, 1885, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers.

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro."

Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FOR DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable.

J. T. HAYES."

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
