a man by the name of Whittington, of Snow Hill, who wishes to visit & examine the colony, to whom we long since promised a passage, & who can be accommodated in the Jupiter. Possibly he may be in Baltimore, & if so will you please to inform him of this opportunity & request him to be at Norfolk in due season. I shall write to him at Snow Hill

We have just resolved to send a large expedition from Savannah by the 1st of November. Of the number will be 200 of the best free people of colour from Charleston, with respect respectfully & truly
