Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING.........Nov. 15, 1884.

"OH, GLORY!" is the shout of Editor Gilmour of the Cecil Democrat. Verily, it is GLORIOUS!

THE President has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, Nov. 27, as Thanksgiving Day.

"LITTLE DELAWARE" has been thoroughly "seized" by the Democracy. Every officer in the State from the Governor down to district constable is a democrat.

"TALBOT can now be called a Democratic county," says the Easton Star. It gave Gibson 167 majority, but only 7 for Cleveland—a close shave.

CAPT. GORDY, of the oyster police steamer Gov. Hamilton, has resigned. Hon. Barnes Compton will resign the office of State treasurer March 1.

THE cholera is spreading in Paris to an alarming extent. The hospitals are so filled to overflowing that additional buildings have been taken to accommodate the patients.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.—The status of the next House of Representatives, according to the official returns thus far received, will be as follows: Democrats 184, Republicans 141 — Democratic majority 43.

THE Tribune and Mr. Blaine are yet hoping for the "eleventh hour miracle" whereby New York may be declared to have voted for Blaine and made him President, and our young friend Stoops says "we will know something next week!"

GILBERT HAZELTINE, of Jamestown, New York, convicted of manslaughter in killing Mamie E. Thorpe, at No. 104 North street, July 19, 1884, has been sentenced by Judge Phelps, in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, to eight years imprisonment in the Maryland penitentiary.

DR. JAMES D. PITTS, who killed Dr. Walter, on Tangier Island, last May, has been sentenced to eighteen years in the Virginia penitentiary.

Milton Wilson, colored, has been sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary for killing James Bevans in Somerset county, Md.

ADVICES from the South state that republican leaders in that section have so wrought upon the minds of the negroes that the latter are now fully impressed with the belief that the return of the democratic party to power means the re-establishment of slavery. It is reported that many thousands thus deluded have crossed the Ohio river from Kentucky and other Southern States.

MR. HOLTON NOT SURPRISED.—Representative Holton says that while he was not at all pleased, he was not surprised at his defeat for Congress. He said he did not want a renomination for Congress for the reason that he did not think he or any other republican could be elected this year. He said the race was forced on him, and he made the best fight that he could, with the result known to all. He accepted the trust to please his republican friends.

IRVING J. MILLS, who was convicted of murder in the second degree for killing Littleton T. C. Davis on the 26th of last September, in Somerset county, Md., was sentenced on Saturday to be confined in the penitentiary eight years. On being asked by Judge Irving if be had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, his distinguished counsel, Hon. John W. Crisfield, arose and withdrew his exceptions to the ruling of the court, and in a touching speech submitted to the mercy of the court. Mills is in excellent health, and looks much brighter than he did during the trial. On retiring from the court he exchanged a parting word and shook hands with his counsel and the State's attorney.

It will be remembered that Davis was killed by Mills on account of his stopping his horse in the public road while riding with his daughter.

"BITTER FRUIT."

"The policy which the Democrats have adopted of keeping the country in an excited and menacing attitude is already bearing fruit, and there may be a crop still more bitter in the near future.—Balto. American.

This extract contains a good deal of truth and an amazing amount of brazen impudence. The American knows as well as anybody that its own party is alone responsible for the unrest and excitement of the hour. Cleveland is as justly entitled to the vote of New York without contest as to the vote of Maryland. Yet Blaine and a few of his newspapers and party leaders have brazenly stood in the way and declared differently. Hence the "menacing attitude" of Democratic policy. If the party had adopted a different policy, and allowed Mr. Blaine to pocket New York and the Presidency in defiance of the expressed voice of the people, it would be all right, and even the American would say a good word for the peaceably disposed Democrats. But the Democrats stand up for their rights this time, and the swindlers of '76 are not to be allowed to successfully play their game of fraud.

Bitter fruit indeed is this attitude of the Democracy bearing! And a "crop still more bitter is in the near future"—the OFFICES—oh, those offices!—are going, going, and soon will be gone! Good-bye to Government pap!

A dispatch from New York to the Baltimore Sun of Tuesday says:

"Mr. Blaine, through the private wire which connects his house at Augusta with the headquarters of the republican committee here, so kindly furnished him by his friend and brother, Jay Gould, has been in constant communication with his fellow-jobbers all day, and has in advice and suggestions shown a reckless disregard for public sentiment and business interests which is almost incomprehensible, even to those who know him best."

Mail Outrages in Baltimore.

The Baltimore American is keeping up its reputation as an unreliable, sensational newspaper. On Tuesday it came out with a double-leaded editorial advising a suspension of the mail delivery to the citizens of Baltimore because of alleged attacks upon letter carriers on the streets. The article in the Herald or any other respectable paper would have caused a commotion, but in the American the "sensation" and "lie" could be read between the lines by all. The Evening News of the next day gives the following account of the "outrage:"

The first case was that of Carrier Hitchcock, who claims to have been assaulted yesterday afternoon on Holliday street, near Fayette, whilst he was at work delivering the mail matter entrusted to his care. Marshal Gray and Captain Lannan deny this statement. They declare they have thoroughly investigated the case and find the facts as follows: Officer Gallagher saw a colored boy and a white boy fighting on the street and attempted to arrest them. On seeing the policeman both boys ran off and the officer pursued them. The white boy, in his flight, ran against the letter carrier violently, and the collision sent the bundle of letters in the carrier's hand to the ground. They were, however, all recovered. A large crowd gathered while they were being picked up. A rumor soon prevailed that the carrier had been assaulted.

The other case was that of W. L. Miller, who claims to have been cut last night in an alley near Madison and Linden avenues. Little credence is placed in Miller's claims. He showed no evidence of being cut and was ridiculously inconsistent in his statements.

This man, like the former, was doubtless anxious to be considered a martyr, and the American, to score a point against the Democratic party, was willing to destroy its own city's good name and injure her business interests.

" While it lived it lived in clover;
When it died it died all over."

MAUD S. LOWERS HER RECORD — The Wonderful Mare Trots a Mile in 2:09¼.—At Lexington, Ky., on Monday, Maud S. lowered her record to 2:09¼. The slate is broken and Maud S., "The Queen of the Turf," has made the fastest mile on record. Time, quarter mile 32¼, half a mile 1:04, three-quarters a mile 1:37, mile 2:09¼.

CLEVELAND IN NEW YORK.

Although the official count in New York has not been fully completed, as far as it has progressed no material change has been found in the figures as originally reported, with Cleveland's plurality, according to the Herald, 1,259. It may therefore be regarded as certain that the Democratic candidates have carried the State and are elected. In fact the headquarters of both committees would have been closed a week ago and the members gone to their homes but for the persistency of Mr. Blaine, who, when informed of his defeat, set up the plea of "fraud," but where or how committed he could not say. The recount, however, nearly completed, shows a slight gain for Cleveland, and his majority in the State will likely be still further increased. The contest is consequently virtually settled and our friends on the other side may as well accept the fact and take their defeat philosophically. They have had a long reign of power, their party has become corrupt, and a change was absolutely demanded in the interest of the people and honest government. When Cleveland and Hendricks take the helm the country will be in good hands.

Their Hopes Fast Fading Away — Settling Election Wagers.

The Baltimore Sun of Thursday has the following from its New York correspondent: The ground is steadily slipping from under the feet of the Blaine conspirators, and they realize it. A more melancholy and downhearted conclave has not often been seen than that which was assembled today in the new quarters of the national republican committee. Chairman Jones was the centre of the group, with Elkins and Fessenden and Hobart around. Hobart is the member of the national committee from New Jersey who laid his head against an apple that he would deliver the vote of New Jersey to Blaine, but he and Elkins cannot reproach each other, as the latter made the same offer as to West Virginia. They were all solemn as owls, blinking at each other now and then from under their downcast eyes. One of those present said it had been reliably stated that President Arthur had a jollification in the White House a night or two since over Blaine's defeat.

Today bets aggregating more than $100,000 staked on Blaine were paid over by order of the losers.

THE MURRAY TRIAL.—The trial of John Murray for killing John N. Steele by a pistol shot in the abdomen in Cambridge, January 31, 1884, was commenced at Centreville on Wednesday. The case was removed from Dorchester county. The jury, P. H. Feddeman, jr., foreman, was obtained without difficulty, and is of more than average excellence. Nine of its members are farmers and three merchants. The counsel engaged in the trial of the case are P. B. Hopper, State's attorney of Queen Anne's county, Daniel M. Henry, Jr., State's attorney for Dorchester county, and Hon. John W. Crisfield, of Somerset county, for the prosecution, and John B. and E. H. Brown, Esqs., of Centreville, Henry Page, of Somerset county, and Col. Clement Sulivane, of Dorchester county, for the defence. Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana, was expected to take part in the defense, but a telegram was received from him the latter part of last week stating that sickness would prevent him from attending, the vigorous campaign in his State having completely broken him down. Night sessions are being held in order to conclude the case this week, the Talbot court requiring the presence of the judges next Monday.

THE next annual meeting of the Association of Public School Commissioners will be held at the Normal School, Baltimore, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 25 and 26. The association will be called to order at noon, Tuesday. Between the hours of 9 and 12, the members and their friends are invited to visit the Normal School. All the class-rooms will be open to visitors, and no change will be made in the usual order of exercises.

THE members of the Queen Anne's county bar adopted resolutions in respect to the memory of the late Judge Richard B. Carmichael on Thursday of last week which were presented to the court by John B. Brown, Esq., and ordered entered on the minutes. Mr. Brown, Judge John M. Robinson and A. R. Weedon, Esq., made appropriate remarks. The resolutions declared that as a lawyer, Richard B. Carmichael was learned, eloquent, zealous and untiring; as a judge, able, upright, courageous and righteous, and as a citizen exemplary and virtuous.

A SPONTANEOUS GATHERING!

MASS-MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE —PROTEST AGAINST FRAUD — CALM BUT RESOLUTE ACTION.

Notwithstanding the positive assurance from those in a position to know, and the indisputable evidence furnished of the fact of Cleveland's election, telegrams continued to reach here from Republican sources last week claiming that Blaine would be the next President, and many persons, with a lively recollection of the high-handed acts that deprived a former legally chosen Chief Magistrate of his seat, began to apprehend that a similar move was on foot again.—On short notice a meeting was called last Saturday night to give expression to the sentiment of the community on the subject, and at 7 o'clock the Court House was crowded with people in response to the call.

Major E. F. Perkins was called to preside, and Richard Groves, Esq., appointed secretary.—After a short but pointed speech by the chairman, Messrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Marion deK. Smith and Casper G Woodall were appointed a committee to prepare some formal expression of opinion. The committee reported the following:

In mass-meeting assembled we respond to the address of the National Democratic Committee.

We believe Grover Cleveland and Thos A. Hendricks have been elected President and Vice-President of the United States; yet the ungrounded claims made by the Republican National Committee justify the suspicion that a repetition of the damnable fraud of '76 would be perpetrated if opportunity offered; the party so long in power, and now in its death throes, would stop at no method, however wicked, to retain their hold upon the general government.

To suceed, they must wrest the vote of New York from Grover Cleveland and give it to a candidate whom she has repudiated.

The Democrats of New York, and all honest men in that State, should see to it that no rape of the ballot there is successful. Let there be no re-counts, no returning-boards, no compromise with thieves, no parleying with desperate politicians.

We have elected Grover Cleveland President of the United States, and we resolve that he be inaugurated.

We condemn the position assumed by the leaders of the Republican party as being revolutionary, and as threatening the peace and stability of this republic and tending to Mexicanize our government.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted by the meeting, and in response to calls James A. Pearce, Esq., made a brief speech. Mr. Pearce advised the people to await calmly the outcome of results. He had faith in the Democratic leaders in New York State to see that justice is done, and faith in the great heart of the American people to sustain honesty and fair dealing; he also had the faith that the American people would never again submit to a repetition of the fraud of '76. The voice of the people is the voice of God, and the voice of the people has decreed that Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks shall be the next President and Vice-President of the United States. Mr. Pearce's speech was received with enthusiastic applause.

On motion of Mr. W. S. Walker a vote of thanks was extended to the Kent Cornet Band, which furnished choice music for the occasion, after which the meeting quietly adjourned.

THE Kent County Teachers' Association meets on Friday of next week, the 21st instant. Prof. George L. Smith, of the State Normal School is to be present, and talk with the teachers on the occasion.

A "JOLLY GOOD TIME" was enjoyed by the Democracy of the Second District last Tuesday evening at Locust Grove. The election of Cleveland rejoices every Democratic heart.

Slaves Again.

In some sections of the country the colored people have been taught to believe that if the Democrats should elect their candidate for President, their race would be again enslaved. This has been one of the great "bug-bears" to frighten the ignorant colored voters and keep them in line. And now some of them—who believe Cleveland elected—apprehend that the dread day has come!

Some of the Democrats have been disposed to indulge in a little fun at the expense of these false teachings and a free assignment of the colored population has been going on since the election. One gentleman went around town with an open book and pencil in hand, and at every squad of "colored gemmin'" he would carefully take notes of a proper disposition of each!

This will be declared a ridiculous proceeding, no doubt, and so it was, but the teaching of such nonsense prior to every election was worse than ridiculous—it was criminal. And those who have had such little judgment or knowledge as to indulge in it will no longer have the confidence of the people so beguiled.

The success of the Democratic National ticket will be for the best interest of the whole people, and the colored race will find under its administration ample protection and absolute security in the enjoyment of their freedom and every vested right.

SALES.—M. deK. Smith, Esq., sold last Tuesday the farm of Mrs. Elizabeth Crew, near Betterton, containing 23 acres, to Edward Dempsey, for $1,210.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., offered the property of the late J. W. Carroll, of New York, consisting of dwelling and lot of ground in Chestertown, but withdrew it for want of acceptable bids.

Mr. Stewart Matthews has sold his farm, adjoining Locust Grove, containing about 68 acres, to Mr. R. H. Rouse for $4,500 cash. This farm produced 802 bushels of wheat this year (32 bushels to the acre) and 70 bushels of corn to the acre last year. It takes Mr. Bonwill to beat it.

THE Art Entertainments at the court house this week, under the auspices of the M. E. Sun day School, were very highly appreciated by all who attended them. The audiences were not large on either evening, but the afternoon exhibition for children drew a full house and the young folks were delighted. Beautiful pictures were thrown upon the canvas embracing views from the snow-clad peaks of the Alps to the crater of Vesuvius, together with many home views, and choice recitations were given by Capt. T. G. DeFord. Prof. W. H. Zimmerman, formerly of Washington College, in his own inimitable way, gave explanations of the views as they were thrown upon the canvas. The professor is a first-class artist as well as a gifted scholar in scientific lore.

INFORMATION FROM FARMERS WANTED.—Mr. C. W. Kennard is collecting agricultural products of this county for exhibit at the New Orleans Exhibition. He wants the following cereals and horticultural products in the quantities named, ½ bushel of yellow corn on the ear, ½ bushel yellow corn shelled, ½ bushel white corn on the ear and ½ bushel white corn shelled, ½ bushel rye, ½ bushel barley, ½ bushel black oats, ½ bushel white oats, ½ bushel mixed oats, ½ bushel red rust proof oats, ½ bushel white wheat, ½ bushel fultz, ½ bushel Irish potatoes and ½ bushel sweet potatoes. Evaporated and canned peaches in small quantities. The exhibitors' names should accompany exhibits. Mr. Kennard hopes that Kent county farmers will come to his assistance in collecting exhibits.

GALENA.—The cantata entitled "Under the Palms" will be produced in Galena in a week or two, under the direction of Prof. Gambrill, by the M. E. Sabbath School, assisted by talent from abroad.

The young democracy of Galena had a grand jollification last Monday night. Bonfires illuminated the streets and the shouts of victory were heard on every hand.

Father Bradford, of the Catholic Church, expects soon to occupy his new parsonage now nearly completed for him at the north end of the town.

SUCCESSFUL FESTIVALS.—Mrs. Gilpin's festival for the benefit of the public school at Galena last week netted $80.

The Catholic festival held at the Town Hall recently netted the handsome sum of $312. A number of valuable articles were raffled, and the winners of the principal prizes were as follows: Gold watch, Captain Brice; silver watch, Hugh Wallis; set of furniture, L. C. Justis, Kennedyville; ton of coal, A. O'Meara; cake-basket, Edw. Dempsey; prize doll, Mr. Bohland; pair gold ear-rings, James McKee.

MECHANICS' LIEN LAW.—Not many of our readers are aware of the fact that the mechanics' lien law now applies to Kent county. Under the operations of this act lumber dealers, mechanics and all who do any work or furnish material for any building have a lien upon the building for the amount of their bill—such lien superceding all other claims.

STOCK ALL TAKEN.—A new series of stock in the Chester Loan Association was issued last Monday evening, and all the remaining shares in the association were promptly taken. Applications for other shares were received but could not be supplied. Two thousand shares are now taken—the whole number allowed under the charter—and the dues and interest received amount to over $1,000 weekly, or about $60,000 per annum. A pretty big institution!

WITHOUT A PASTOR.—Rev. John McGrath, the new pastor of Kent Parish Catholic Church —which includes the Churches at Chestertown, Rock Hall and Church Hill—has retired from the diocese, and there will be no service at either of the three places named until another pastor has been appointed. It is likely that the charge will be supplied immediately upon the adjournment of the Plenary council in Baltimore early in December.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Officer Simpson arrested Chas. Dill on Thursday night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the street. Dill is a heavy built fellow and resisted the arrest, striking the officer several severe blows in the face. The latter, however, by the aid of several citizens, succeeded in getting his prisoner before Justice Wheatley, who committed him to jail. A further hearing will be had in the case.

GRAPES IN NOVEMBER.—Mr. James W. Chapman left at our office a day or two since a quantity of grapes of the Concord variety—finely flavored, firm and sound, just plucked from the vines. The vine is remarkable for its continuous and late bearing.

A PROTRACTED MEETING has been in progress at the Kennedyville M. P. Church for two weeks past with beneficial results. Rev. J. L. Elderdice, the pastor, has had the assistance of Rev. W. M. Strayer, of Chestertown, on several evenings.

NOTICE.—The time for receiving proposals for bridges, &c., at Fairlee Mills has been extended by the county commissioners to Tuesday, the 18th instant.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Nov. 11.—Present, Judges Walker, Hyland and Stevens.

Letters testamentary were granted to Francis X. Kraft on the estate of Agnes B. Woodall, who filed his bond in the penal sum of $4,000.

Letter testamentary on the estate of James Scotten were granted Mary E. Scotten, who filed her bond in the penal sum of $4,000, which was approved and ordered to be recorded, and James F. M. Woodall and Thomas Hewitt appointed to appraise the estate of said deceased.

J. Frank Wilson, as executor, returned the inventory of Jos. H. Clinton, deceased.

Thos. W. Skirven, adm'r of Sophronia Robbins, returned his first and final administration account.

The report of sale of real estate of Annie E. Bowers, deceased, returned by Richard T. Turner, executor, was ratified and confirmed.

The report of sales of real estate of Geo. W. Spencer, deceased, returned by Richard Hynson, trustee, was ratified and confirmed.

THE HOG CHOLERA.—This disease, which has been causing such havoc among the swine in the lower counties of the Peninsula, has not reached this county as yet so far as we have been able to ascertain. One large hog died recently from some unknown cause in Chestertown; it was not thought to have the cholera. In Queen Anne's county the disease made its appearance last week. Mr. Wm. Gleaves, near Church Hill, fears that he will lose his whole pen of fattening hogs, seventeen in number. Several of them have already died and others are sick. We have not yet heard of any effectual remedy for the disease. Burnt corn is recommended in one of the agricultural papers. It will not hurt to try it. Coal oil, freely poured down the animal's throat, is also mentioned as a remedy. Any of our readers who may be successful in treating the disease will do the public a favor by making known the remedy.

A PASTOR SURPRISED.—On Wednesday evening of last week, quite a number of the members of Salem M. E. Church and congregation quietly dropped in upon their pastor at Pomona and spent a very pleasant evening. Before the company left they were called to order by Rev. James Kendall, who in a very neat little speech expressed the regard of the congregation for the labors of their beloved pastor in making the improvements upon their church and, as a slight token of that appreciation, on behalf of the company present and others, presented a beautiful purse containing the sum of twenty-six dollars.

FOR SALE.—The finely located farm of the late J. Frank Hall in Queen Anne's, about three miles from Chestertown, is advertised by Messrs. A. R. Weedon and Thos. J. Keating, trustees, to be sold in Centreville, Tuesday, Dec. 9.

PERSONAL.—Judge Wickes was taken sick on the bench at Centreville last Tuesday, and has gone to Philadelphia for rest and treatment.

MATRIMONIAL.

Willson — Willson.

Mr. Horace A. Willson, a popular young gentleman of the fifth district of this county, and Miss Minnie Willson, were married in Baltimore on Tuesday at 1 o'clock P. M. by Father Broydrick at St. Martin's Catholic Church. They came over on the steamer Pilot Boy the same afternoon for their home in this county.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. John J. Murray, pastor of St. John's, and Rev. Dr. J. Thomas Murray, president of the Md. Conference M. P. Church, both brothers of the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Thos. A. Murray and William H. McFeely, and the wedding march was performed by Prof. Crowther. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome presents. The steamer Ford was taken immediately after the ceremony and the happy couple arrived here in due time where they receive the congratulations and best wishes of their numerous friends.

Strong—Phillips.

St. John the Baptist P. E. Chapel on Barre street, Baltimore, was densely crowded on Tuesday morning last to witness the nuptials of Mr. Earl R. Strong, one of Kent's most enterprising young merchants, and Miss Annie Phillips, of Baltimore. The church was darkened and then brilliantly lighted. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Chipchase. The ushers were Messrs. Joseph M. Watkins and Herbert R. Strong, of Baltimore; and M. Wilbur Thomas and James P. Wickes, of Kent, The bride was dressed in a handsome brown silk with trimmings of brocade velvet, and entered the church on the arm of her cousin, John C. Rose. The groom was accompanied by his sister, Miss Lillie Strong, who wore a brown camel's hair dress. After the ceremony the bridal party left on the steamer Emma A. Ford for their home near Edesville. At night a most pleasant reception was held, and many of the intimate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were there, to admire for the first time the ease of Mr. and Mrs. Strong as host and hostess. The happy pair were the recipients of nearly one hundred presents, many of which were extremely rich and handsome.

AT FAIRLEE MILLS

IN THIRD DISTRICT.

THE time for receiving Sealed Proposals (as advertised in August last), for said work has been extended to Tuesday, November 18, 1884.

Future proposals will be to build either an IRON BRIDGE or Compound (wood and iron) Bridge, either 60 feet long and 16 feet wide; to rest on Port Deposit granite abutments 16 feet wide, 5 feet thick at bottom, drawn to 3 feet thick at top—one to be 16 feet high, the other 13 feet high with wing walls 10 feet long, including breast wall, and 2 feet thick on top, or a wooden bridge 80 feet wide, to rest on 4 Port Deposite granite piers; the 2 smaller piers to be 6 feet high by 2 feet 6 inches square, the other 2 to be somewhat larger.

Drawings of said work and details can be seen at the office of the County Commissioners. Bids will be received for doing the whole of said work, with either kind of bridge, or for doing either kind of bridge alone, abutments or piers alone, or filling in breast of dam alone by different persons.
