SATURDAY MORNING.....Nov. 22, 1884.

The Discontented Man.

BY BENNETT JUNIOR.

The wind is rough, the sky is blue,
And I am feeling that way too;
It would appear my life were raw,
Though such appearance is not true;
Although I do just as I please,
When ere I please just we to do;
I'm troubled in some sad degree,
Yet I can't tell what troubles me,
Or notice what my cares imbroe.

My stagnant mind one vagrant thought,
Full feeds and nestles day by day,
I know I should do as I ought,
And cast said vagrant thought away,
And for that end I've frequent fought,
Although the conflict came to naught,
Said vagrant thought seems there to stay.

Such thing as I love, I've never known;
My life is but a sea of care;
Until I've cross and peevish grown,
And very frequently I swear;
Ill-humor eats me to the bone;
I long and love to be alone,
To nurse and nourish my despair.

I've been the tool of vile deceit;
Been duped and sold, and fleeced withal;
My temper is worn out complete,
And I am driven to the wall;
By those too, whom I thought so sweet,
And who so courteously would treat,
Me, when on them I'd deign to call.

I've cussed my luck, I've pulled my hair,
I've thumped my head against the door;
Until the top of it is bare,
And I a wig have had to wear,
And may perhaps forever more;
But what of that, 'tis all my care—
A solemn, sacred vow I've swore;
I should have sworn that vow before,
Yet I will keep it, I declare.

All day, all day, I fume and fret,
This country, hath no charms for me;
Sometimes I think, I'll married get,
Sometimes I think I'll go to sea;
But then I fear the water's wet,
And if the ship should chance upset,
Why, that would be the last of me.

QUEERLY NAMED PLACES.

What is Shown in a Postal Directory—Odd Names that are Found in Various Parts of the Country.

This great country has now over 50,000 postoffices for its over 50,000,000 people, or about one for each 1,000 persons. There are some curious facts connected with the administration of so large an institution as this. The employes of the department number over a hundred thousand. Of course the sum required to run so large an establishment is something enormous. The salaries of postmasters alone amount to nearly $10,000,000, and the sum paid for transportation of mails $25,000,000. The number of postoffices is increasing steadily at the rate of over 2,000 a year. The task of the fellow who fixes names for all these is a pretty serious one.

Of course the people of the section where the offices are to be located are allowed to fix a name so far as possible, but in many cases they select a name already given to some office in the State, and of course it cannot be used. Then they are permitted to make some other selection, and so on almost indefinitely. It often happens, however, that the postoffice officials are finally compelled to select, or that, in their despair, the citizens who have the selecting of the name, by having frequently chosen some name already in use in the State, jump at some ridiculous name altogether unheard of before, or select one suggested by some peculiar surroundings.

Some of the odd names are as follows: Dismal Thump, Daybook, Bad Ax, Calico, Rocks, Windfall, Bars Axis, Seven Stars, Leap Year, Hap-hazard, Boy, Odd, Rawhide, Difficult, Baby Mine, Bean Blossom, Yankee, Pay Up, Hard Money, Happy Home, Wide Awake, Alligator, Needy, Moon, Padlock, Gnatville, Blowhorn, Lubbub, Cloudland, Butterfly, Zib, Quidnunc, Rainbow, Scrub, Ty Ty, Pucker, Bush, Soon-over, Bumble Bee, Zula, Sopchoppy, Zero, Jamboree, Marrowbone, Slickaway, Negro Foot Jump, You Bet, Greenhorn, Tenderfoot, Sunshine, Muck, Shoofly, Kumtax, Oil Trough, Nine Times, Blowout, Gunpowder, Patsgumpus, Last Chance, Clear Grit, Greasy, Talla-Ho, Mary Esther, Why Not, Samper, Vein, Round Bottom, King of Russia, Gi, Joy, Hayfork, Picnic, Land of Promise, Squak, Smallpox, Mouse Tail, Pocker, Port Wine, Side View, Good Luck, Big Hill, Due West, Fair Play, Coin, Coal, Fire, Sodoin, Hurt, Sleepy Eye, Drone, Bird Song, Black Bear, Pinafore, Buttercup, Unique, Sunflower, Wormwood. The South and West have the much greater number of unique names, although many may be found in New England and the Middle States. In Texas is an office named "J. Bob," the familiar cognomen of a citizen in the community. "Bald Hornet," an office in Tennessee, is the suggestive nickname of a gentleman residing in the county. Chicago's mayor, Hon. Carter Harrison, is honored in Kansas with an office called "Our Carter." "Best," "Cloudy," "Cutlips," "Dull" and "Toadruse" are other offices bearing names of individuals.

Initial letters sometimes form the name of an office, like that of "T. B." in Maryland. When the first house in the place was erected these initials were found on a stone near by, and were probably those of a very early settler and owner. "Oh, Z.," in Colorado, is taken from a brand used for marking cattle, and "O. K." in South Carolina, from the humorous suggestions of an interested gentleman. The people of Sugar Grove, in Tennessee, refused to suggest other names after their own had been rejected, and the department established the office under the initials "A. B. C." There is a "Buss" in Michigan to match "Sweet Lips" in Tennessee, but there is a "Maiden" in North Carolina, a "Bachelor" in Mississippi, and "Widow" may be found in Alabama. There is "Comfort" in North Carolina and also in Texas, and "Tribulation" in Tennessee. The tribulation was in selecting a name acceptable to the department, and they ended their tribulation by making it "Tribulation." "Charity" is found in North Carolina and Tennessee, and "Hope" is also known, as well as "Adversity." There are "Wells" in several States, but only one "Cisterns," in Texas. They have a "Concert" in Iowa, and Louisiana contributes a "Violin," Minnesota a "Corner," Iowa a "Horn," Pennsylvania "Drums," and Ohio and Virginia "Fifes." There is a "Dark Corner" in Georgia, but "Dawn" appears in Michigan and Ohio, followed by "Day" in Michigan and New York.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

JOHN BARTLEY,
vs.
HANNAH BARTLEY.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this bill is to obtain a divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii of the Plaintiff from the Defendant.

The bill of complaint states that John Bartley, the complainant resides in Kent county in the State of Maryland, and that in the month of June, in the year Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-two, he was lawfully united in marriage to Hannah Bartley, formerly Hannah Graham, of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania.

That the said Plaintiff and Defendant lived together from the time of their marriage until about the 14th day of November, in the year 1882, when the Defendant abandoned Plaintiff's bed and board, and has continued so to do until the present time, though the conduct of Plaintiff was and is without reproach.

And the bill further states that the said Defendant is impotent, caused by certain physical defects (set forth in said bill) which existed previous to and at the time of said marriage, and that these physical impediments were not known to Plaintiff until after his marriage as aforesaid.

The bill states that said Hannah Bartley is non-resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered this 1st day of November that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once in each of three successive weeks before the 6th day of December, 1884, give notice to Hannah Bartley, the non-resident defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn her to appear in this court in person or by attorney on or before the 7th day of March, 1885, to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint from generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

SCROFULA

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great

Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an

Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.
