With the interlineations & other defects in the within communication I must beg you to excuse, on the ground of my real unfit-
-ness to write, by reason of my present Physical indisposition. –

I am almost afraid that I have tired you in my details – such is the state of my mind now that I cannot act well do otherwise – When the body is afflicted the mind is (as we are wont to say) weakened – Hence the difficulty of condensing – Please make this as my apology to Dr Howard for not writing an official com-
-cation to him. – This I will do, now-
-since permitting, as soon as I shall have visited Pimp Ann & Sandtelle –
I hope my success in those places be equal to my success in Caroline Queenstown & this place, the number will not be short of eighty.

Sincerely & Respectfully
Your friend &c
