made to them would be a certain influence ~~to~~ many of them to emigrate to the colony.—
Under this view of his case I respectfully solicit your Board to furnish him with a letter to Doctor Mechlin, commending him to his favorable notice & attention &c &c.—

Very Respectfully

PS. I may state, & it is probably due to him that it should be stated, that he is a regularly licensed Preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church.— His standing in said Church is perfectly good.
