Sunday Morn. 21st July

Dear Sir. I hope that my extreme anxiety to return to my friends will be a sufficient apology for my troubling you to day. I have received no letter as yet from Va — & am determined to go on this afternoon to be present at a meeting of the Gen. Committee tomorrow morning. I have thought fit to ask of you the favour of a note of introduction to Mr Key. I am emboldened to take this liberty rather from the favours & courtesies already received at your hands than from any claims to your notice.

Very respectfully your obt Servt
