Boston Sept 28. 1833.

J. H. B. Latrobe Esq

Dear Sir,

Your much esteemed favor of the last of July on the colonial project of Maryland, would long since have received the attention it justly deserves, but for a long absence of mine from the City, and a great pres of engagements now accumulated in consequence. Thus circumstanced as I am still, I can only find leisure to say that I feel a very deep interest in your scheme, and am almost desirous to have more and minuter information than I possess respecting it. Shall I not have the pleasure of hearing from you again — for the Colonization training or otherwise?

Of your plan of sending on an agent here I think well, if discretion be observed in the mode and time. It would disaffect and discourage all parties, to send one at the present period, — except perhaps for purposes
