Frederick City Md. 2
Oct. 23. 1833

Dear Sir,

Owing to the constant rains, which commenced last Friday evening, I have been able to do but little since my arrival here. — Inasmuch as I have delivered an address last evening, explanatory of the views & intentions of from Board; but finding the company not large, & understanding that the County Court will commence its Session next week, I concluded, after consultation with our friends, to postpone any address yet, until this day week. —

I visited two families in the Country yesterday, who are highly recommended. Each Grp, the head of one of them came in to day, & has made up his mind to embark for Cape Palmas. He has a wife & 5 children all and slaves, the property of Mr. Walker. Mr. Walker offers them their liberty upon the condition of their going to our Colony. — Grp & his wife are spoken of as first rate people, for sobriety, morality & industry. They are with us in principle, & are in every respect
