SATURDAY MORNING..... Dec. 27, 1884.

LETTER FROM REV. E. C. MACNICHOL.

Historical Mention—A Good Woman's Wonderful Success, &c.

Forty years ago, the Rev. Wm. Foulks was sent by the Philadelphia Conference to an appointment then known as Kent Circuit, which embraced nearly all the Methodist churches in Kent county, Md. The parsonage was then located in Chestertown.

By a division of the Philadelphia Conference Kent Circuit was included in the Wilmington Conference, and what was once a single charge with one parsonage has since grown to five charges with as many parsonages. In the parsonage of old Kent Circuit at Chestertown, and in the family of the Rev. Wm. Foulks, with others there was one daughter seven years old named Lizzie.

In the march of time Bro. Foulks died and was received from the "Church Militant" into full connection with the "Church Triumphant"; and the family removed to Philadelphia. Years afterward Lizzie Foulks visited the home of her childhood at Chestertown as the bride of Evan F. Smith, Esq., of Philadelphia. Soon after her marriage Lizzie, under the leadings of the Holy Spirit became painfully conscious that she had but the form of Godliness and lacked its precious power, and after many days and nights of prayer she obtained the "Witness of the Spirit." Later at the second National Camp-Meeting, held at Manheim, Pa., she entered into the experience of "Perfect Love" and received the "Baptism of the Holy Ghost"; immediately she became earnestly and enthusiastically engaged in the work of "Spreading Scriptural Holiness" and with her Godly husband threw open their home and established a Tuesday evening prayer meeting for the promotion of holiness. Soon after this was established, one evening there wandered into this meeting a rough, careless boy of 14 years whose buoyant flow of spirits and impetuous nature had already carried him into many sinful ways and excesses. The quick eye and loving heart of Sister Smith readily detected the boy's eager inquiring look and at the close of the meeting quickly took him by the hand and gently and kindly urged him to give his heart and life to God, the words were as seed sown in good ground for the spirit pressed them down into his very soul.

That night was the opening of a new chapter in that boy's history; he soon became a Christian, an active member of the church and also a member of Sister Smith's Bible class in the Sunday School. In the providence of God that boy afterward became a minister in the Wilmington Conference, and the pastor of a charge in Kent county Md., which embraces two of the churches that were included in old Kent Circuit, and that enjoyed the services of the Rev. Wm. Foulks. In answer to the call of the Holy Spirit Sister, Lizzie Smith found time and opportunity for evangelistic labor. On the 16th of November, forty years after the pastorate of the Rev. Wm. Foulks, and twenty-five years had gone by since her last visit to Chestertown, Sister Lizzie Smith and the boy that she had led to Christ sixteen years before, found themselves, one as the pastor the other as an Evangelist, standing side by side upon the same ground, proclaiming the same grand Gospel to many of the same people that heard this Gospel from the lips of her own father forty years before. Truly His ways are past finding out.

Sister Smith came to us on the 16th of November and remained until the 16th of December; during that time there were fifty-five conversions and the church nearly doubled her membership. The meeting began under the most discouraging circumstances; unbelief had nearly frozen out all desire for salvation in very many hearts; many members of the church had been crippled and hindered in their spiritual life by the presence of this withering and destructive frost, but thank God! this has quickly vanished under the warm life giving power of the Sun of Righteousness and today we not only have a changed and beautiful church building but one that is filled with changed and transformed hearts that abound with songs of gladness and praises unto God.

POMONA, Dec. 23, 1884. E. C. M.

The Woman's Temperance Union.

The Kent county organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met at the M. E. Church in Chestertown on the first Tuesday in December. The meeting was opened by devotional exercises and the secretary's minutes of the last meeting were adopted. Mrs. J. Frank Wilson, vice-president at Still Pond, reported that the ladies who joined our "Union," at the meeting addressed by Mrs. McLaughlin, have decided to connect themselves with the county organization, and we most earnestly invite them to meet with us in Chestertown as often as possible. The secretary moved that parlor meetings be held during the winter, the first to be held at the residence of Mrs. John N. Usilton's on motion adopted. Music and readings, with talk on practical temperance subjects, and objections replied to in conversational style will be the programme for these meetings. Mrs. John W. Corey, vice-president of the 3d district, reported distributing temperance literature at the mission school in Worton and at the Sabbath school at Salem, also in their public school. Mrs. Rondo reported that unfermented wine is used in the sacramental service at Salem M. E. Church. The services on "temperance day," in the Methodist Sabbath Schools, of Chestertown, were very interesting, rendered more so by the eloquent appeals of the superintendents, Mr. W. B. Usilton, of the M. P., and Mr. T. G. DeFord, of M. E. School. Mr. DeFord's heartfelt address was made practical by offering a pledge to the school, to which sixty names were obtained and over 300 pages of literature were distributed by the W. C. T. U. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to try and introduce "Temperance Physiologies" into the schools of the county, called upon the Professors of Washington College for the purpose of introducing Prof. Steele's Physiology, containing special reference to the use of alcoholic drinks and narcotics. Prof. Rivers very courteously assured us of his great sympathy with our work, and suggested that the W. C. T. U. prepare a small pamphlet, containing the above reference in a condensed form, which could be taught in connection with the high authority now in use in the college, and which he would take pleasure in introducing. We have not yet been able to see Mr. Perkins in regard to the book designed for the public schools, but trust we shall be able to introduce Mrs. Mary E. Hunts' work even before there is a law to that effect. Thus, little by little, through the Sabbath and day schools, we hope to educate the young up to a more complete knowledge of the moral and physical effect of all intoxicants and narcotics, for it is with them our greatest hope lies for the future of temperance principles in our country. The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in January, 1885, in the M. E. Church of Chestertown, at 10 o'clock A. M. Respectfully submitted by the RECORDING SECRETARY.

JERSEY CATTLE AT AUCTION.—A lot of imported and homebred Jersey cattle, the property of T. S. Cooper, of Linden Grove, Coopersburg, Pa., was sold Thursday in New York. There was a large attendance, among those present being well-known breeders of fancy cattle in different parts of the country. Nearly 70 animals were disposed of, and a few cows and heifers brought extra good prices. The result of the sale was satisfactory, $22,635 having been realized. S. A. Ellison, of Richmond, Va., purchased a three-year-old cow, Golden Heart, for $1,000, and two-year-old cow, Blush Rose, for $520.

SOME young men near this city have hit upon a plan to catch chicken hawks, and have been quite successful. Hawks, it has been observed, always alight on a pole or barren tree; so the young men got a long pole and put a steel trap on the pole. Some eight or ten hawks have alighted on the pole the past few weeks and the traps have held them firmly. After the hawk is caught the pole is taken down, the hawk removed, and then the pole is put up again for the next customer.—Westminster Advocate.

THE business of Westminster is in the hands of young men. The leading ones range in age from 25 to 46 years, the majority of them being under 40. If you look around among the lawyers you will find but two in practice above middle age, the others being below 45. The doctors in practice are young also.

An Interesting Sketch.

Rev. Henry Colclazer who, for fifty-six years was an active Methodist minister, died in Philadelphia on the 18th inst., after a brief illness, Mr. Colclazer retired from active connection with the Wilmington Conference in March last, and had since then resided in Philadelphia. He was born in Alexandria, Va., in 1809, and was admitted to the Ohio Methodist Episcopal Conference in 1828. He subsequently removed to Michigan, and was one of the founders of the Methodist Conference of that State, and was prominent in founding the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. In 1846 he was transferred to the New Jersey Conference and located at New Brunswick. Two years later he went to Philadelphia as pastor of Wharton Street Church, and subsequently he also filled the pulpits of Ebenezer, Union and other Methodist churches, of that city. He afterward became a member of the Wilmington Conference when the Philadelphia Conference was divided, and during his service in Maryland was Presiding Elder of the Salisbury Circuit. He was also recently pastor of Bethel and Glasgow churches. In 1851 he married the daughter of Gov. Thomas Holliday Hicks of Maryland.

In his entire ministry Mr. Colclazer never failed to answer roll-call at the annual Conference of which he was a member. During his ministry he was the pastor of three church members who afterward became Bishops of the Methodist Church, two of whom were converted under his ministry. He was also ex-President Hayes' first pastor in Ohio.

He was the first Methodist preacher to introduce instrumental music in the church services in the West, if not in the United States, nearly fifty years ago. The first time the then young preacher had the audacity to attempt such an innovation was at Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1839, upon the occasion of the dedication of a new church he had just completed. At the next meeting of the Conference Mr. Colclazer's character was challenged, and during the discussion which followed the "ungodly fiddle" was denounced and referred to as an "instrument of the devil" which would destroy the Church if its notes were not hushed at once. His character was finally passed and instrumental music in the Methodist churches of the West thereafter was not an uncommon thing.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The Denton, Md., papers state that Capt. Robert W. Stewart, who resides a few hundred yards from town, while getting a load of wood in the woods last Thursday afternoon, was seized with a vertigo and fell to the ground. His faithful mule, however, kept its steady pace on the road for home. About a half mile from the captain's home was a farm gate on the road leading to the woods, at which the animal stood for an hour or more, waiting to be let through, then retracing her way made for home across some lots. The appearance of the team without the captain alarmed his family who sent into town for some one to help search for him. In a few minutes twenty-five or thirty young men and boys, lanterns in hand, were making their way for the woods at a rapid pace. In less than half an hour the poor man was found, kneeling upon the ground and clutching a small bush with his hands. He had been exposed to the biting cold and driving snow for a couple of hours and was more dead than alive. He was placed in a carriage and carried home. Medical aid was summoned and at the present writing we are glad to say he has almost recovered his usual good health. It was truly a narrow escape from death.

A TOWN CAPTURED BY A MOB.—A dispatch dated Travers, Dak., Dec. 21, says: At seven o'clock yesterday morning an armed mob of one hundred men, mostly from Wilmot, a small town in the southern part of the county, attacked the courthouse in this place—the county seat of Roberts county—breaking in every door and removing the county safe. A strong guard armed with Winchester rifles was stationed at the end of every street, and no one was permitted to enter or leave the town. An immense amount of property was destroyed. The mob also carried off all the private property they could find. Sheriff Comings attempted to resist the mob, but was immediately covered with a dozen Winchesters. The mob remained about an hour and then left with the safe and private property. Every man in the mob was under the influence of liquor. The United States mail-carrier was stopped, and the mail overhauled. The safe contained no valuable records or papers. The mob destroyed a large number of papers, among which were several chattel mortgages.

ST. JOHN'S Male Orphan Asylum, Brooklyn, was destroyed by fire on Thursday of last week. It was in charge of Mother Superior M. de Chauial and twenty-seven Sisters, and there were 735 boy inmates, many of whom barely escaped with their lives. Thirteen charred remains were taken from the ruins on Friday. Some of the inmates were injured in jumping from windows, and a sister and several firemen were also injured. The building was valued at $200,000.

THE Maltby House, being located so close to steamer landings in Baltimore, has become the favorite resort of those going by boat, while its omnibusses can be found at every R.R. Depot on arrival of trains.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry 90c.@92c.; Fultz 86c.@90c. for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 47@49; yellow, 48@51. OATS—Maryland, 34.

Do You Know?

FROM the slow manner in which the TAXES are coming in I fear that the tax-payers are not generally posted as to the necessities of the case. On the first day of January all levies in my hands are due, and to meet them all taxes must be paid on or before that date. Those who fail to pay by that time will do me great injustice and themselves discredit. Please attend to this at once, and let me have the money.

You can find me at home. In Christmas week I will be at Kennedyville on Friday, 26th; Still Pond, Saturday; Chestertville Monday; Chestertown Tuesday, and Lynch's Wednesday.

I Must Settle!

If YOU Do Not then Where Am I?

ON the FIRST day of January all the levies in my hands are due and I must pay them. It will not suffice for me to say that Farmers have not sold their wheat, or that corn is too low to sell, and taxes have not been paid in consequence. The money will be expected—apologies will not relieve me, but I will be held accountable for any default.

Therefore, take notice, tax-payers MUST PAY ME on or before the FIRST OF JANUARY, or I must proceed by law to enforce payment. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Respectfully, GEO. S. BIDDLE, d13-3t. Coll. 4th Dist.

Notice to Tax-Payers of 3d District.

THE tax books for the Third District are now in my hands and the bill of each individual tax-payer is ready for settlement. I hope that payment will be made promptly, thereby saving me the disagreeable duty of resorting to legal measures.

The law explicitly requires that I shall proceed WITHIN THIRTY DAYS from the date of receiving the books to collect, so that I have no option in the matter.

I may be found at Worton Station every Tuesday afternoon and at the court-house in Chestertown on Saturdays.

Respectfully, JAMES S. GEMMILL,

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great

Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an

Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.
