SATURDAY MORNING.........JAN. 3, 1885.

Kent County Agricultural Association.

CLUB ROOM, December 29, 1884.

Mr. Robert Nicholson was called to the chair. Owing to the unfavorable weather the meeting was small, but those present seemed much interested in the proceedings. Question to be discussed at the next meeting: "What does it cost to raise a bushel of corn or wheat?" Every member should be present and ready to give his opinion on the subject as it is a very important one to farmers. Next Monday the officers will be ready to make a report of the financial condition of the association. A good turnout of the members is desired. W. P. S.

Sunday School Entertainment.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We had the pleasure of attending on Monday, the 29th of December, a very pleasant Christmas entertainment given by the Sunday school of St. Andrew's Chapel, (Episcopal) Galena.

The entertainment opened with a very pretty "welcome," given with great heartiness by some eighteen or twenty of the children. One of the matters of interest to the young folks was the Christmas tree; but the magic lantern seemed to be the special matter of interest. This was conducted by Dr. Phelps, of Galena, who kindly volunteered to take charge of this department. Among the pictures represented were several poets, from whose works were selected some entertaining poems, which were recited by certain ones chosen for the purpose. One of special interest was the selection, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," from the English poet-laureate—Alfred Tennyson, rendered with much spirit by Reginald H. Murphy, Jr. The same young gentleman, on being encored, gave a humorous piece, "Hodge, and the Vicar." Another recitation well worthy of mention, if selections can be made where so many were excellent, was Longfellow's "Psalm of Life," recited by Minnie Phelps, which was so much appreciated by the full and attentive audience, that she was forced to return to the stage and repeat one verse. One little girl, Virgie Morgan, six years of age, sang as a solo a pretty carol, accompanied by the organ, in the chorus of which all the school joined with great gusto. The selections and magic lantern pictures were interspersed with beautiful Christmas carols sung with great spirit by the children. On the whole a more enjoyable affair of the sort we have not had the pleasure of witnessing for some time. The rector, the doctor, and certain ladies who had hands in the affair, certainly deserve great credit for the manner in which the entertainment was conducted. M.

Letter from Kennedyville.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I propose to furnish you some items concerning our thriving little town: Two of our enterprising young men, Mr. Frank Roeder and brother, have opened a dry goods and grocery store in the old Shallcross house and are doing a flourishing business.

Kennedyville now has three stores, two blacksmith shops and a commodious hotel for the accommodation of travelers.

There are quite a number of removals from and to the village—more than there have been for years.

Sleighing has been excellent this last week and our young folks have taken all advantage of it. The merry jingle of the bells has furnished our village with music night and day for quite a time.

James Archibald and John McGugan, Jr., were out sleighing Xmas night, each one having a young lady with them and driving at a rapid gait between Kennedyville and Still Pond, when a horse and sleigh without a driver met them at a lightning gait, ran through between them and capsized both sleighs, throwing the occupants on the road. The drivers held manfully to their reins and were dragged nearly two hundred yards; the young ladies escaped unhurt while their companions were slightly bruised about the face and arms by being dragged on the ice. Our boys are too careless as to what kind of horses they put bells on. Young horses that are not accustomed to such music should not be driven, as the drivers have no idea of the risk they undergo.

Some of our farmers are filling their ice-houses this week; the ice is from four to five inches thick.

Christmas Day passed off very quietly here—quieter than ever before witnessed. The boys say it was on account of the Sassafras river freezing up so soon. It froze all the Christmas gifts up in Baltimore. Messrs. Eds., I shall now draw my letter to a close, wishing you all a happy New Year. RESIDENT.

HOW THEY REGARD THE DECISION.—A San Francisco dispatch states ex-Senator Sharon being asked what he intended to do in regard to the decision in favor of Miss Hill, or Mrs. Sharon, as Judge Sullivan declares her to be, replied: "Fight it to the bitter end in all the courts and on all sides. That decision is not sustained by facts. The contracts and letters are forgeries, and that knowledge keeps me in the ring. I shall appeal the case and oppose the decision to the last." Mrs. Sharon is reported as saying: "I am so happy I feel just like a young kitten that has just been brought into the house and set before the fire. The poor, dear old 'Sen!' I'm sorry I beat the old man, for I love him still. He's a dear, sweet old fellow. Only for the principle of the thing I would have compromised long ago, but I was after his name, not his money. I married fully believing he would act fairly. Our marriage was on the quiet, but it was only done at his request for fear it would scandalize his relatives. I am glad he did not compromise by giving me his name according to the offer I made in court, as I am now set right before the public."

COLORED MEN WHO HAVE NO FEAR.—A large audience of colored people assembled at Chickering Hall, New York, Monday evening, to consider the political situation of the race. Rev. W. B. Derrick, a leading colored minister, was the first speaker. He paid a warm tribute to the ability and independence of Gov. Cleveland, and felt sure he "would rise above party and become the ideal of a ruler for the good of all the people. The duty of the colored man was to mind his own business, learn all he could, and when he possessed educated intelligence, his brain power would have its way and the question of rights would be a thing of the past." The Hon. Algernon S. Sullivan, a leading democrat, also spoke, and urged mutual forbearance, mutual help and education as the means of making the people of both races happy and contented. The resolutions adopted declared "the cheerful acceptance by the colored man of the recent national contest, with the stern expectation of their just dues—viz., the proper and faithful administration of the laws which protect the rights and privileges guaranteed by the constitution to all American citizens."

AN OPINION THAT RAISES WHISKY MEN'S SPIRITS.—The internal revenue tax on 27,132,707 gallons of distilled spirits in bond, amounting to over $24,000,000, will become due in the next six months, and the whisky men have found a new means of escaping payment. They have for sometime past been avoiding payment on large quantities of spirits by exporting it for storage and sale abroad. But at present the foreign market is glutted, and it is desirable to await a better demand. Hence they have asked the Secretary of the Treasury whether their whisky may be retained here in bond, even after the tax falls due, provided declaration is made of an intention to export it. Attorney-General Brewster having been consulted by the Secretary in regard to the matter expresses the opinion that it is in the power of the Treasury Department to make a regulation of the character desired by the whisky men. Should such a regulation be announced by Secretary McCulloch owners of distilled spirits in bond will not, for a while at least, need to export their property until sold.

THE COLORED MAN'S RIGHTS SECURE.—In reply to a question from the editor of the Colored World in regard to the probable policy of the incoming administration toward the colored people, Vice-President-elect Hendricks says that the policy of his party is expressed in the platform adopted by the convention that nominated the national democratic ticket, and also by those provisions of the constitution that confer citizenship upon the colored man and guarantee him his civil and political rights. "The liberty and citizenship of the colored man are held by the same right and guarantee as that of the white man, and can no more be taken from him nor impaired than they can be taken from the white man."

AN HONEST CONFESSION.—A young man named William Lewel, converted at a salvationist meeting, in Montreal Monday, went next day to the police office and surrendered himself for having obtained goods under false pretenses from George McRea, Q. C., by whom he was formerly employed. He offered to pay the money when he could earn sufficient, but pleading guilty he was committed to jail for ten days.

Hymeneal.

GALENA, Dec. 26.

EDS. NEWS,—A very pleasant affair was that which came off on Christmas evening at the residence of Mr. Jonathan Hodgson, near Masseys. We refer of course to the elegant reception given that evening in honor of his son, Jos. Hodgson, who brought home as a life partner one of Philadelphia's most charming young ladies. The marriage took place at the spacious residence of the bride's father in the above named city, in presence of a large number of invited guests. The ceremony was performed by one of Philadelphia's most eminent divines amid a perfect midsummer profusion of flowers and tropical plants. The bridal gifts were numerous and costly. The happy couple arriving on the 8.05 P. M. train at Masseys, were soon ushered into the eager presence of a large company gathered to welcome them home. Mr. Hodgson's residence was brilliantly lighted, and amid the scenes of hilarity which followed it might well be said everything passed off as "merrily as a marriage bell." The bride was superbly dressed, but as "Observer" is a poor hand to describe "wimmins fixings" let that pass; suffice it to say that she looked "perfectly lovely." The marriage feast was, to say the least, perfectly sumptuous, no pains being spared to provide all the delicacies of the season to "satisfy the inner man." Much joy go with this happy pair in their new relation. OBSERVER.

COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE.—Our government can no longer be said to be an experiment. One hundred years of successful existence have established it as a permanent insitution. The magnificent conduct of the people during the late election proves their patriotism, and the wisdom of our constitution. Our immense commercial interests also furnish convincing proof. We know of no better illustration of the success attending honorable and able business methods than the firm of D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich., the leading seedsmen of this country. From small beginnings, thirty years ago, they have built up their mammoth business by strict adherence to their initial principle of furnishing only the best seeds obtainable. They offer to send their valuable "Annual" free to all who expect to buy seeds or bulbs.

A STEAMER SUNK NEAR NORFOLK.—On Tuesday morning, during a fog, the handsome passenger steamer John Romer, of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, while going to Newport News ran into a dredging scow in tow of the tug Ludlow, striking on her port side just forward of the wheel-house, breaking a hole in her about four by ten feet, through which the water rushed with great rapidity, sinking the Romer in three minutes in 30-foot water. The Ludlow went to the Romer's assistance, saving all the passengers and bringing them back to the wharf of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad with their baggage. Fortunately the Romer had no freight except mail and express, all of which was saved.

THE devices resorted to by the whiskey men of Talbot county to sell whiskey in violation of law are very numerous. Among others the St. Michael's Comet notes the following: Cakes are sold at a dime and the drink is thrown in. Keys which will open a spigot set to run out "so much and no more" are sold at about the same price, and having served their purpose are expected to be quietly returned. Elevators are arranged so that the thirsty one puts on a dime, will see it shoot up and a drink shoot down, and "nobody sells it." Bottles are invitingly arranged in a box, the buyer takes his beer, lays down his cash, walks out and sees not a human face on the premises.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE MERCHANT.—Daniel Smith, for many years a prominent Philadelphia merchant, died Monday night, aged 94 years. He belonged to a singularly long-lived generation, the earliest death among six brothers and a sister occurring at the age of 75, while two or three have not occurred until after 90. The six brothers who, out of a family of thirteen, grew to this good old age all celebrated the fiftieth anniversaries of their wedding, a fact which is probably without a parallel in history.

NOT ASPIRANTS.—Gov. Hoadly, of Ohio, pronounces as absolutely false a statement which originated in a Washington paper that he is seeking a cabinet position. He says he prefers the office he has to any cabinet position. Gov. Waller, of Connecticut, also denies the rumor that he is a cabinet aspirant. He thinks the President-elect competent to select his advisers without suggestions from outsiders.

A ROUGH PASSAGE.—The schooner John A. Griffin, from Wilmington, N. C., to Philadelphia, reports a very rough passage. On the 18th Capt. Rice was knocked overboard by the foresail, but was rescued. The schooner lost her main boom, and was within thirty miles of the capes of the Delaware for ten days.

TRYING to chew chocolate caramels with false teeth, and essaying to untie fast-knotted shoestrings with dogskin gloves on, is very like trying to do business without advertising.

"PEACE AND PLENTY" can be had at the "Maltby House," Baltimore, at surprisingly low prices. Try it!

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

WHEAT—Longberry 90c.@92c. Fultz 80c.@85c. for fair to good. CORN—White, prime 49@50; yellow, 51@51. OATS—Maryland, 36.

Notice to Tax-Payers of 3d District.

THE tax books for the Third District are now in my hands and the bill of each individual tax-payer is ready for settlement. I hope that payment will be made promptly, thereby saving me the disagreeable duty of resorting to legal measures.

The law explicitly requires that I shall proceed WITHIN THIRTY DAYS from the date of receiving the books to collect, so that I have no option in the matter.

I may be found at Worton Station every Tuesday afternoon and at the court-house in Chestertown on Saturdays.

Respectfully, JAMES S. GEMMILL, Coll. 3d Dist.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW

—IS THE—

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties, and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shops in Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

WM. A. HYLAND, GALENA AND CHESTERTOWN.
