Mr Latrobe

My dear Sir. you have rec^d letters from Dr Hall informing you that he had sent three native boys to you to be educated – they were sent to my care after I left Cape Palmas, but one of them was so unwell at Monrovia that I was induced to send him back, so that only two have come. The larger one is called John Cavally, the other Charles Grawy: they speak little or no English. It is regarded as a very prudent measure in Dr Hall's taking them as hostages. The particulars of the purchase of lands you have rec^d I thought Dr H. uncommonly expert in managing the affair – he pursues the interest of your cause with a great deal of zeal & if his health serves him he will soon rear a flourishing Col^y at C.P. although no
