Sec.y of the Md. State Col. Society.

My Dear Sir,

We are all made happy by the safe return & favorable report of Mr. Wilson & Mr. Wyncoop, and are under great obligations to your Society & its worthy agent for the facilities afforded them in their travels and researches. Suffice it to say, that our expectations are more than answered, & we are encouraged & incited to go forward in the work of the Lord for the good of Western Africa.

Mr. Wilson will show you the resolutions adopted by our Committee in relation to our proposed mission at Cape Palmas. There are two resolutions, however, which ought to be communicated to you officially: they are these, viz.

"Whereas Dr. Hall, as Agent of the Maryland State Colonization Society, has purchased a tract of land at Cape Palmas, and, as a part of the consideration for said territory, has engaged to furnish a school for each of the three native towns within the limits of the territory; & whereas he has invited this
